The Secret Place Revelations

Today, on Sept 25th, 2024, I received an email from The Bold Existence Eagle Hub as an encouragement to take the first step forward in sharing my affiliate link with others to join the online platform. Below is the screenshot of the same.

As I quickly skimmed through the mail, I came across 4 script suggestions to share along with the affiliate link to join the platform. I didn't like any one of them but liked some statements from each one.

I chose what I liked from each one and formed the following custom composite script shared above.

Feeling disconnected? Connect, message, share, post, access groups, events and courses and more. No more intrusive ads or tracking—just pure, unfiltered sharing of God's Word. After writing the first page, to share the mail as proof of the fulfillment of the vision I had received on Jan 20th, 2024, as I was about to take the above screenshot, it happened to me that I should check the date I registered for the affiliate program. When I looked it up, it turned out to be the same date as that of the vision: Jan 20th, 2024.
