The Good News

1 Corinthians 15:1-8 (New Living Translation)

The Resurrection of Christ

15 Let me now remind you, dear brothers and sisters,^[a] of the Good News I preached to you before. You welcomed it then, and you still stand firm in it. ²It is this Good News that saves you if you continue to believe the message I told you—unless, of course, you believed something that was never true in the first place.^[b]

³I passed on to you what was most important and what had also been passed on to me. Christ died for our sins, just as the Scriptures said. ⁴He was buried, and he was raised from the dead on the third day, just as the Scriptures said. ⁵He was seen by Peter^[c] and then by the Twelve. ⁶After that, he was seen by more than 500 of his followers^[d] at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. ⁷Then he was seen by James and later by all the apostles. ⁸Last of all, as though I had been born at the wrong time, I also saw him.

Page 1. First three-day fast

02 February 2022

21:54

Well, I'm feeling happy about successfully completing my first proper three days fast, where I didn't have food at all but had only water. The first two days I had half a mug of tea once. And the third day I didn't even have the tea. However, it wasn't as intense as it was supposed to be as I didn't pray and worship as should have been because I was focused on not having food and also on observing how it unfolded because I NEVER did such a thing before. Before I knew God, I used to think that foolish people fast.

I feel so good. And on top of that what's making me happier is knowing that I could've gone more days without food had I had some kind of light substitute in moderate or less amounts. But I wanted to keep it to three days this time to observe how it would go.

And this morning I felt SO SO calm in my mind. It was unusual. Yes. Fasting sets you aside from the world. The distractions vanish and you become sort of more awakened to your existence that's separate from your body. We all know it's a part of crucifying the flesh so that we can become more aware of our spiritual senses.

I did start to experience slight pain in bones\joints today towards the end of the day, but I think it wouldn't have been there if I had gone on a fruit and water fast and not worked but only rested. But sometimes we should try hard-core fasting too!!!

The next time I will only have water and nothing else and will rest for the entire three days keeping my eyes and ears open to what God has to say, waiting for Him to respond, as I watched in a video where a sister in Christ shared how she waited for the Lord to respond for long durations of time initially when she took her walk with God seriously. This time that I fasted – I worked and watched other videos as well; the fast wasn't entirely about God. But – glad to see that I made it at the end. And the next time it would be easier. The fast sort of broke my dependency on food, as previously I used to get hungry too quickly or before the daily meal hours. My body had become used to eating a lot. So – that broke. I think, that with more fasting, more of such negative bondages/addictions will be broken and it will help me in hearing from God better too.

Though God did talk to me during the three days by showing me some things that at first looked funny to my present self but would have looked quite serious to the self that I was some years back. And I understand the gravity of what God showed me. But we have to keep in mind the Word of God too, and use that in tandem with what God shows us. So, he showed me something that would be wrong in a sense if I were to follow the Word of God, which implies that it wasn't meant for the present but future when it would be deemed right in God's eyes.

And that vision repeated many times which means it is important, and I guess that's how my state would be at that moment seeing someone at the brink of being all spent out (or dying – as depicted by God) and me rushing to do the will of God in that moment which would also be my true inner state. For instance, a month or so back, God showed me that I was hovering on His Spirit like a free butterfly. But that came true for real as my inner state after a while. So, my desperation to save that person out of love - that God showed me – would also come true for real in time.

God designs scenarios for people according to what they can digest or the deep things that they understood once and held dear to their hearts. Though they might have forgotten those things, or the things might have slipped to the back of their minds with time – God sees the heart, and also the subconscious, and it pleases Him to see that someone understands things that aren't a characteristic of this world. So, He often grants those things or creates those situations to make them come true for that heart. The same thing couldn't or may not have pacified someone else in the same way. But God sees that it would pacify 'you' and also in what way, and therefore He gives an appropriate gift to you.

He will draw things out of your subconscious and use them to motivate you or help you in certain ways. He knows best what would be of help to you in different situations. And what would give you the ultimate satisfaction. He draws things out of your subconscious that you might have forgotten, and He uses them to unravel the path forward in future – and you see that He is actually pleased with the things you believe in and wants you to walk in them.

With more fasting, you hear Him better. And I'm sure that with my coming rounds of fast, I would be doing even better. And I would be able to focus on God instead of observing how the experience is going with me. The third day of fasting was unusual. First, I had some unusual physical changes, and second, I had all distractions and thoughts dissolve away.

The physical changes included a sudden heightened heart rate twice (don't know what caused that, perhaps a lack of glucose?), paining legs towards the end (that was because I was on foot a lot, like the usual days: washed clothes, took a walk on roof etc.). At the end, I was feeling as if I never fasted, though I still didn't have food yet.

The Secret Place Revelations

And the three days seemed so easy to have gone through. It didn't feel at all that I hadn't eaten. But I did end the fast like I had thought I would when I decided on Sunday to end it on Wednesday night.

I will perhaps do a 21-day fruit and water fast next. Or maybe a three-day no food or sweet drink (at all) fast.

But I do feel that though I fasted, my focus wasn't on God as much as it should have been. I was thinking about everything else! And working, watching, and listening to other people; Don't know if God is happy with that kind of fasting. But at least I tried and made it through. And it feels that I am further in my walk with God. More spiritually awake, less affected by the environment.

The next fast is going to be a one-day one on Sabbath. I will get some fruits to make up for the lost nutrition and also because I don't want to have paining bones the next time I fast.

But I am also amazed in a way at how could I even focus and work while not eating for three days. While previously I would lose focus one or two hours before my food time and my belly would start grumbling! I am sure now the fast was necessary. My belly didn't grumble as much as it did when I ate regularly, and in the end, I feel that my dependency on food has also weakened to a great extent! Plus I lost 2 kgs in just three days. Woah! Should do more of this.

The next time I would make it about God and not about observing the changes and doubting if it would go as intended or expected.

21:05

Well, I overate since morning. And I could tell that much of it wasn't out of hunger, really. I was craving eggs after breakfast. Don't know, perhaps my body had enough of carbs since the last meal the last night. And then I had breakfast which again was mostly carbs. Later around noon I wanted to not have carbs and was strongly craving egg toast. So, I cooked it. I ate it not because I was hungry but because I was STRONGLY CRAVING egg toast of some kind! I could feel that it was a consequence of fasting.

The Secret Place Revelations

And then later today I was reminded of a vision I had some months back where I saw an egg toast being cooked and it was the only thing in that vision. And I could tell that it wasn't my own thought but it was definitely from the Holy Spirit. Because I wasn't thinking of eating eggs at all and I am not crazy for them either. But suddenly after fasting, my body wants eggs, not carbs! And I don't know if it has germinated bcz of my own self or is planted in me by the Holy Spirit to fulfil the nutrient deficiency via eggs alone.

The vision from months back now makes sense! Now that I've started fasting and will be doing more of it, God is suggesting me to consume more eggs when I am not fasting instead of plain rotis, rice, or the usual veggie they give which again is mostly carbs.

Even now I am not hungry. But I want to eat egg toasts of one or the other kind. Suddenly, after fasting my bent towards food has changed! Wow.... God told me the solution to make up for the nutrient loss long back! I have to rely mainly on eggs now, and fruits too. But God stressed mainly on eggs. Idk if it was a directive vision, or a helpful vision or a vision depicting a change in my mindset. But in any case, it's supposed to go in tandem with the extensive fasting schedule that I am going to follow. Good God!! God cares about me. He showed me months back what I would be doing when I would be fasting, and in a sense, it's good that He showed me this long back. Because I can confidently say now without any doubts that the vision was a confirmation of what I'm supposed to do 'now'. Back then I wasn't doing such a thing (fasting) and therefore didn't feel like consuming a specific protein-rich diet. So, I can't say that my vision was induced by my own reasoning or thoughts. It was a directive and suggestive vision by the HS.

Okay. I was feeling a bit confused, actually - confused a lot, because I didn't know if I was really walking in the Will of God or doing what He wanted me to do, though I am trying to keep things intact from all ends. What's happening now is also a good confirmation of that. That I 'am' walking according to His plan. I don't know if I'm too slow. But definitely not as quick to change as the first disciples.

I remember telling Himanshu about this particular vision on the phone but I hadn't understood the significance or the contextual meaning. I was telling him that God wants me to eat less fast food and eat healthier and that too in less amount. That's what I had made out of the vision back then. I was eating a lot of fast food, sugary and fatty sweets and similar stuff. Then I have this vision of just an egg being cooked on a flat surface above fire, the white and the yolk visibly separate. Just an egg. Nothing else. And I was quite confused. I told Himanshu that perhaps God was trying to tell me to eat less and change mentally the way I eat, making it more like John's - who ate humble things living in the wilderness. Well, now the meaning of that vision is clear. God was hinting towards this time when I would have reached a stage where I am ready to fast and actually complete a long fast. Because earlier I could only fast for a day on Sabbath and that too looked so difficult to me - someone who NEVER fasted before and always slightly or hugely overate, NEVER underate!

And now God brought me to a stage where I am comfortable with long fasts and He has given me the direction/solution to cope with the resulting physical conditions too. The next time I go on a long fast, I won't end it by eating any kind of bread/roti, but with egg toast of some kind. Yeah, I get it why He suggested that. Because even most fruits are mostly sugar (though natural) and aren't filling. Eggs are kind of rich in everything but carbs, and are filling.

Well, that was about the egg vision. There are other dreams and visions as well. Waiting for fulfillment. I don't know how God will bring me to a place where I become comfortable or used to those things too. Well, God has His own ways. <3

I just don't want to be slow in following His Will. But by far, things seem to be going according to what He showed me. An incident here and there confirms what He showed me some time back and I get reassured that I'm walking on the right path, perhaps in a zig-zaggy manner, but still, on the path He set out for me.

And then He gave me a promise long back without me asking for it. He must have some plans with that too. Because God always makes promises that are a part of His Will and brings about a fulfillment of His plan in some greater way.

And then during the evening though I wasn't hungry, I wanted to eat the eggs I had kept mixed with some veggies inside the fridge. So I went and had them before the usual dinner time. I had a few extra things too. But I started towards kitchen craving initially those eggs only. Ok. I get it now. God will guide me further.

The Word that has left the mouth of God doesn't return void. So, if God spoke something over someone, it will come to fulfillment in its time.

22:41

I woke up from a dream this morning where somewhere in between of it I kept repeating two sentences to everyone I happened to meet. It was as if I wanted them to know this and it was the most important thing they should be knowing. The first sentence I can recall: "Eleutherians worship the light"

The Secret Place Revelations

But the second one I have forgotten. But, it involved a word starting from 'A' to represent those who are moral or follow the precepts of God.

But I'm sure of the meaning I was trying to convey. And it was that those who live according to their personalized version of freedom regardless of morality worship the 'light' - which signifies Lucifer/Devil/Satan - whether they know or accept it or not.

But those called by the word starting with an 'A', worship God. I will try to search the word I was repeating. But I have a feeling that I might find it somewhere in the new teachings of Brother JK. Because he talks a lot about licentious freedom and then the true moral freedom which is of God. But I don't really know the meaning of the 'A' word. If I don't find it in his videos, I will perhaps get to know about it later in one or the other way.

Found this on the Internet and found it helpful:

For Believers

Now, the first lesson for believers is: give God the glory. Give God the glory for your confession. If somebody asks you how come you're saved, don't let your last answer be, "Because I believed. Because I confessed him as my Savior." Let your last answer be, "Because He who is in me, is greater than He who is in the world." Give God the glory for your salvation. Give God the glory that you have heard and confessed the truth. That's the first lesson for believers.

From <<https://www.desiringgod.org/messages/test-the-spirits-to-see-whether-they-are-of-god>>

For Unbelievers

And then there's a lesson for unbelievers. And the lesson for unbelievers is this: you must cry to the Holy Spirit. You must call out to him, "Don't leave me!" Have you ever thought about what that prayer signifies? "Don't pass me! Don't pass me! Open my eyes too. Soften my heart that I may give confession that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. Don't leave me, Holy Spirit!" That's the way an unbeliever should pray. "Come break me! Make me open. Free from my unbelief. Help my unbelief."

The Secret Place Revelations

The 'A' word in the dream seemed to be a word from Strong's concordance. It sounded weird – like all Strong's words are.

Page 4. God - The Beautiful First Love of Everyone

06 February 2022
23:30

I just realized something very important that might set things straight for some like it did for me:

When I was broken because of narc abuse and my belief in everything good was shaken, I didn't know God. But now I do. And I just realized that "He" is the true first love of His creation. That's how He created us to be. We by default have this ability to love because God gave it to us and it's "Him" that is supposed to be that pillar that NEVER breaks or always supports, and plus, He's true and Real unlike devil because He is the perfect God that has loved us with a perfect love! So, even if I lose everything in this world, I would still have God, the most important pillar and cushion I need to have. And He is eternal and there forever, for real; and His moral precepts never change! He is the unchangeable God.

No one can take Him away from me - that's the most beautiful and strengthening part, and it has been possible because of who He is. God will never leave you and forsake you (Deu 31:6).

If people didn't think of God as a boring concept, or too spiritual to be realistic, or someone who is some sort of 'Fun Police', they would see that He's actually very humble, gentle, righteous, and filled with LOVE, mercy, and forgiveness. Just imagine talking to someone who doesn't talk crap and worldly stuff, is slow to anger, is compassionate, has authority over all creation, and is also a healer – that would be God; He's not a boring spiritual old man. In fact, He's Spirit; and if we look at it in a non-stereotypical sense - He's the highest technology possible, beyond the comprehension of any human or angel. So, he's not only the perfect and the best indestructible being but is also beautiful. THAT is my and your God! Not some boring old man whom people see as 'spiritual' in a stereotypical sense.

So, knowing this, how can we cry, or how could and why would I cry that I got thrashed by a lying child of devil!! - no matter who it is!! I've got God. And He's eternal. And my time here is short!

The Secret Place Revelations

The moment you realize your eternal reality with God is the moment things get set right for you. The order of things has to be in the proper place and the things and people of this world won't be able to 'touch' you.

Somehow tuning in to the reality of me an eternal being trapped in a degrading body where the eternal me belongs to God and is His beloved creation actually opens my eyes to a fresh and the right perspective. I wish I had known God before. He talks to you through things that affect you the most - that's how He's able to bring changes in people – because He knows their hearts and minds.

Like He's been talking to me through different songs since morning. Some I heard inside me out of nowhere; some I happened to listen to. I can't believe He's so amazing. Though God is eternal and ancient, He's like a wind that is always fresh and which leaves you rejuvenated.

Page 5. Act of Faith Based On My Own Understanding

21:45

Well, many times you don't really know if you're actually doing the Will of God but you step out in faith. So, it was one of those attempts for me. Because God had been highlighting the number '9' to me, in my Spirit. Well, at first it was just a 9. But the second time, it was a 9 with the top of 9 formed in the shape of a heart and there was an orange hue around.

And so I stepped out around 9 making sure I would be out at '9' and I was wearing clothes I was wearing in a dream He had given me, two incidents of which have come true in the same order. So, I was thinking perhaps the next incident He showed me would 'come true this time and that's why He wants me to be out. But it turns out that I was wrong. Things are always so unexpected with God.

I think He was testing me. Or giving me some initial courage before I finally face the situation He showed me. And also, everything from God is received in faith.

But I feel happy that I wasn't as anxious as I thought I would be. And that I actually went out. In that dream, He showed me that I entered a certain street, an unusual one, out of nowhere and it was nighttime. Well, I don't trust my memory that much. Perhaps I am missing out some info. But I tried to do as much as I could make sense of everything together.

The Secret Place Revelations

It's training time and also the time to walk out in the Will of God and receive His promises. Seeing how bad I'm going with fasting, it's taking forever to move ahead in His anointing where I would actually perform the assignment He has for me, while also being a part of something beautiful. I don't know if the assignment part will come to fruition later than the latter part. But definitely the latter part is that which God wants to manifest in our lives.

The assignment or the first dream that showed me what I would eventually do was from long back. And I think that that would be at the end of it all - when I'm even more mature in my faith and understanding of Him. We all walk at different paces with things. For me it seems like a loooooong journey before I carry out His ultimate Will!!!

Well, for the number 9, it could also mean the ninth hour. Anyway. But I would really be ashamed of myself if I missed some instruction or misunderstood it as a prophecy. But the dream was definitely prophetic and not instructive. Well, the incidences so far have come true without me following certain instructions. So I am hoping and expecting that the rest of it will also come true if I just follow my internal nudges and do not resist them. They are perhaps the Spirit poking from inside.

I'm so slow!!!! :(

I wish I could tread this road faster and be at the level God wants me to be. But I'm just not willing to give up on my bad eating habits!! They are a must to get away with.

Anyway.

But there's one very important thing I have to remember and walk in. I don't want Jesus to shut the door in my face like He would when I would have lost the key to approaching Him - Love!! No matter what one goes through - one has to walk in Love, or hold tight to the inner core of Love which is fuelled by His Spirit. If you lose touch with it, or lose it, Jesus shuts the door while turning His back towards you and locking you outside - if I'm interpreting correctly. He did this at the end of the 3rd dream in series with the above one. And then the vision focused on the locked door, as if I needed the key to go inside. I must not lose the key. And even if I will at some point in future, I will find and pick it up again. I may get so focused on the external as I interact with more and more people as I try to walk in the Will of God that I may lose the key, the key to which lies inside. That's a caution one has to take. To not lose the key to Jesus while walking in His Will.

The Secret Place Revelations

Jesus locked the door right after I told my middle brother that 'he never got perfect'. Apparently I had been trying to turn him to faith in that dream. So, my first interpretation was that if one's not perfected by his faith and His Spirit, Jesus will lock that person out. So that had me scared, because I've degraded a lot internally since the last narc!! Though I still am not at the negative end or the dark side, but I definitely have degraded.

I don't think I will lose my key of Love!! I will NEVER lose that key!! I misinterpreted!!!!!!!!!!

10th Feb

I was chuckling thinking that perhaps I should've made '9' rounds like some people in the Word did things 7 times as God told them!!! :D

Of course, it didn't have to be so! I didn't receive any instructions. I just went out by my own understanding and mind!

14:55

Well, the pink shawl and the blue denim skirt were from the dream but the rest I chose as I felt like or felt nudged. But at least I tried though I may not have remembered everything.

But one thing is for sure - what God has willed will happen the way He spoke it.

Page 6. Nate and Christy - 'Pioneers, the future is in your Pen'

12 February 2022
00:27

I am watching a Word by Nate & Christy on the YT channel Read & Listen. And these words have struck the chord with me:

'This tension will make you feel uncomfortable at times, (the tension he's talking about relates to going deeper in the secret place) but it's harpooning you to the future you're the representative for. That's right, God is planting you in the future and you'll learn to navigate that line between what is coming and what you see. This tension will cause you to feel deeply dissatisfied and unable to settle in the wilderness and it will uproot all places of potential apathy in your life, but the good news is that YOU WILL SEE the goodness of God and the breakthrough you've been praying for.'

The Secret Place Revelations

This struck a chord because I too have slowly learnt step by step the ways of God. At first, something I couldn't at all have known by my own self was told to me in a dream, and that happened to be true as was confirmed on a call I received the following day. So, that was a lesson that told me that God communicates through dreams and reveals info or future.

Afterwards, God revealed to me my eventual assignment. Though there's still a long way to go to be at that level where I would fulfill His Will and my job after having made the necessary changes in me.

And then slowly, over time, I kept 'seeing' stuff that kept coming true. So, it taught me to expect what I have seen to actually come true as I had enough evidence now to believe in it. Without this experience, I would be faithless regarding seeing the 'future'. It took a long time to get accustomed to it - perhaps about an year. And now I'm learning how to walk or settle in the present knowing what is to come, and the choices I should make accordingly. So, the words above - 'God is planting you in the future and you'll learn to navigate that line between what is coming and what you see' are right on spot with my present situation.

I'm learning to walk that line where I know what's coming, and then deciding accordingly how to navigate the present. I don't get badly affected now by negative revelations related to me!

A few months back I had a vision of long tubes (looked fleshy) suddenly popping out with eyes at the end!! I thought what could that possibly mean!? Sometime later it was clear to me as I had an incident with the geyser in the washroom!! Anyway! I couldn't believe that 'THAT' was what I actually saw!! I take negative revelations easily now. I don't know if it's making me less empathetic, because the negative revelations won't affect me much even if they pertain to my family. But I do see some kind of inner strength being developed in me where I no longer get too frightened on receiving bodily harm. That vision of my 'death' doesn't scare me at all. Can't say for sure though about what lies ahead, but I've a rough knowledge of the significant events. I hope I don't fail myself in between. But there's something that gives me strength and makes it internally clear that what I see in the mirror is not me and what I see around is not permanent. And therefore I don't have to perceive the persecutions or difficulties of my time here too gravely.

And I must not slide back in my routine reading of the Word.

Page 7. Spirit of God - The Middle Man

12 February 2022

17:28

The Spirit of God has His own amazing and beautiful ways to keep you updated about the states of people He wants you to be updated on. I find it quite touching how He connects you to those He wants in your life. Also, it also shows that the Father cares enough and actually a LOT about your personal life and relationships so much so that He tells His Spirit to communicate to you regarding the same.

If two people have the Spirit of God in them, Then God will use His Spirit to keep both of them in touch though they may not actually be in direct contact in the physical world. However, if only one has the Spirit of God, then the one who has Him receives valuable information about the person God intends to give it about. And it's quite touching that God doesn't necessarily convey objective information but will most often communicate the state of the heart of those He wants you to know about. It is a process He uses to fulfill His Will by bringing you in alignment with His Will and transforming your heart.

And the Spirit reveals it by portraying the revelation in beautiful ways which also reflects how God wants you to see a particular situation because that's the absolute reality of it. Since it's coming from God, you know better to not form your own perceptions but believe what God has told you and let your heart be touched and affected accordingly.

22:22

On the third of Feb, I realized something that I hadn't all this time that I had this notebook. It was like a sudden understanding of something which laid right in front of your face all the time yet you wouldn't have understood the meaning until the time God chose to reveal it to you. It was not a coincidence that I bought this notebook. The notebook is prophetic and I had it for many months now. And it goes along with other visions that God showed me. Ok I don't feel like posting the picture here as of now, a lot of work. I would do it later.

Well, I would upload the pic her rn.

The Secret Place Revelations

I had bought this long back and had been using this all this time. But on 3rd Feb, it's prophetic meaning was revealed to me. And it also goes along with two other visions from the Holy Spirit that I had. One had a butterfly hovering on a white ball of light. Another had a lady with butterfly wings standing facing a guy. Both were fully dressed in white. I couldn't see if the guy had wings too as the lady's back and the guy's front were visible in the vision. Also, I couldn't really make out the facial features of the person standing facing the lady. But whoever it was, the face quickly turned to someone else's face (that I've seen) and then back to the blurry initial.

This must mean that the butterfly hovering on the Spirit of God represented by the white ball of light is equivalent to the lady with butterfly wings facing that person which again is confirmed by the revelation of the meaning of the front of this notebook at the appropriate time. If the later two scenarios are just another version of the first one which has the Spirit of God in it, this must mean that they constitute the Will and plan of God.

I've now three revelations by God of the same scenario.

I was just molten looking at this notebook when I realized the meaning.

He is truly happy because the butterfly freely came to him and so he has the butterfly, and the butterfly is freely hovering around him and not going anywhere else.

Well, the fact that the butterfly is 'green' is also not a coincident. God can be so amazing and above it all, knowing way before we can even think of what He has in store for us and giving us related signs and confirmations!

And the fact that I happened to feel a strong urge to write this this particular time is also not a coincident. I look at time I started this page, and it says "22:22"

Isaiah 22:22 (New International Version)

I will place on his shoulder the key to the house of David; what he opens no one can shut, and what he shuts no one can open.

From <https://www.biblegateway.com/passage/?search=Isaiah%2022%3A22&version=NIV>

I was about to do something else at that time but I felt a sudden urgency to write about the notebook here.

The Secret Place Revelations

23:31

Well, I don't really exactly understand how Isaiah 22:22 fits here but I've a vague idea. The same is explained in the recent Word by Nate & Christy that I also wrote about in the previous few pages.

Isaiah 22:22 usually refers to having the authority to open and close doors that no one else can shut or open besides the one with the 'key'. So, perhaps in this case, it means we've the authority to open new doors and no one can shut it because God has given us the 'key' to the house of David.

I can recall, actually I remember it quite vividly!! When I was in that other PG, and I was lying on bed with lights off and was thinking what could a certain incidence mean. I asked God in my mind something like - "God, what does that mean?" And right then I felt that something entered in my brain from above my forehead. It's hard to explain the sensation, but what followed right after that was the image of a huge key forming in my mind on its own. Again, I didn't understand it. But I'm hoping one day it would all make sense.

Well, the incident was thinking about was something which happened when I was back at home and had just turned to faith and started keeping Sabbath too. On one Sabbath night, I and my youngest brother were woken up by a loud sound of lady shouting something in an unknown language (I would realize later that she was speaking tongues). I can roughly recall that I had that key vision around the night that I had met that Pastor and his son that the cook of that PG had called for me to meet and ask about water baptism. Yeah, it was on that night alone I guess, or somewhere within the following few nights. Coming back to what happened back at home, that loud voice was coming from the top right corner of our room and from "inside" the room. We both woke up and after a while it stopped. Though we didn't talk much then but the following morning I asked him again, and he agreed that he too had heard it and thought that it was coming from a nearby apartment. But it was coming from inside the room. He just twisted the reason to what his mind could believe not being ready to accept what was the actual reality.

So, that night in PG, I was asking God about that same incident, about the meaning of what the lady was shouting in tongues. And suddenly I had that sort of blanket enter inside from above my forehead after which the image of the key formed. I still haven't understood well the entirety of it.

So, that was about Isaiah 22:22. Yeah, I just recalled that it also signifies new beginnings from what I have been watching in prophetic words on Read and Listen YT channel and also some videos by Nate and Christy. 22:22 signifies authority in God and new beginnings as well I guess.

The Secret Place Revelations

I also watched a video by Brother Nate on seeing the numbers 22:22 or 22 again and again and the things God usually communicates through those numbers.

So I guess we've the key to open new doors that NO ONE can shut! - Because of Isaiah 22:22.

The time is at hand.

That pic on the notebook melts my heart EVERY single time I look at it, seeing what it represents!! Or I can say... that it instantly lights me up!!!

I will now try to implement for some time what Sis Adele taught in the video I watched today and then sleep.

13 February 2022
02:09

I guess demons spiritually attack everyone when you try to focus on Jesus and pray. They don't want you to pray focused.

And most importantly, one should obey God when He asks you to do something! Like I again felt a strong inner push to come to this notebook and make some changes though if I was to follow my own will, I would've rather waited until tomorrow as I was close to falling asleep. But it kept recurring and I could sense a displeased Spirit of God. So I took my laptop and did what I was feeling strongly being pointed to.

Idk, God gives importance to details which most people would ignore. And you have to obey Him when He asks you to do something because He's God.

I'm glad that I didn't resist the intense pull to write the previous page suddenly coming out of nowhere at a certain time which happens to be 22:22. Certainly, it was God pushing me to write that and I'm glad I followed the leading of the Spirit, though it may be a small act. Still, I'm learning prompt obedience despite me feeling uncomfortable or eventually not caring about the perception of others. This should happen more often. When God puts things on my heart, and I don't resist to do them out of my own reservations. This is teaching me to follow God in obedience irrespective of the path. Yessssssssss!!!

It's very important to listen to other believers who're also walking and living in the truth because it keeps you in touch with reality. Or else, you may get swayed by the cares and burdens of this world, or even your perception of the kind of life you've in this place. It's important to remind ourselves again and again, and it also constitutes a part of 'freeing one's mind', that the life we think we have here is not really real as we only see the delusion of devil in this place and the truth of God has to be sought in His Word or in prayer and Worship without which you're living an absolute lie, like I was at once.

Listening to brother JK has helped me tremendously in setting my mind right and right on those things that are the truth of this fallen world. The more I listen to him, the more I become grounded in reality. The world is a 'spirit cooking' place for real, though I haven't watched that video yet.

But we must stay in touch with those whose eyes are opened to the world they live in and how it is all much like the movie 'The Matrix'.

Ways to know if you're being devoured by the Devil:

1. Does your teacher downplay the crime of sin? The deluded teacher tells you: just go ahead and do as thou wilt.
2. Are you seeking Jesus to become wealthy or to become better off? - Do you believe in the 'Prosperity Gospel'.
3. Are you looking outside of the Bible for extra Jesus adventures? (Don't listen to false prophets like Amanda Grace.)

---> False teachers and prophets have been sent from hell to deceive you, drag you in sin and leave Jesus and His commands and the way of life He wants for us.

Fellowship today:

The Secret Place Revelations

- findtruth88

4 things affecting our culture in a very very bad way (much like in the Sodom and Gomorrah kind of way):

1. Refusing discipleship
2. Being rebellious to God's order - in home, ministry or marriage
3. Being disrespectful to older people - this also relates to refusing discipleship because it's the older people who correct and disciple us.
4. Gossiping

I am feeling an urge to write about this dream here. I don't know, but the dream and the later ones made sense to me in a certain way and this feeling of writing about it has been recurring to me since yesterday, though I'm not quite sure but perhaps for a few days. And today it has been coming to me since morning again and again and making me feel overwhelmed as I realize who Jesus is on the inside and how He has loved us and would save us though we may not be aware that it was His hand that saved us, yet without our knowledge He works for our best.

So long back, can't recall exactly when it was. But it was certainly before I shifted in this PG or even the other one - not sure about the latter one. Perhaps it was when I was still at home. In that dream, I was surrounded by water everywhere and sort of flying few meters above it, and was trying or struggling to stay above and not be drowned. But I eventually fell inside facing upwards and I could feel the water gushing in my mouth. Then suddenly, I saw someone standing on the surface above who was bending downwards to reach out His hand to me. It was a rough figure, I didn't know or couldn't think of who it could be. But I certainly sensed that He was reaching downwards and before His hand could even enter the water, I woke up.

After that I've had two dreams in which I saw myself locked inside in a space with different animals. In the first one, I saw two animals of the same kind. I saw two bulls/buffaloes (?) approaching me; and then there were two gorillas inside. Well, there were other animals as well but these two are the ones I've the perfect memory of being 'two' in number. In another one as well I saw myself locked inside and there was a room to the right, and when I went inside it was filled with animals and birds; I didn't focus enough to see if there were two of each. Well, I'm taking this second dream with a grain of salt. But the first one, I do know had meaning because of a follow-up Word by Sis Adele that helped me understand the significance of being locked inside by God and waiting.

But the thing that has me overwhelmed is the sight of that figure who was reaching down to get me out. Jesus pulled me out of the waters and put me inside the arc.

The Secret Place Revelations

It didn't make much sense back then, but makes now after the other two dreams and that first drowning dream had been coming to my mind since yesterday out of nowhere. And today looking at everything together, I felt so touched by God. God saved me from the flood (or hellfire?), and made me His treasure safe in the arc. Well, the same holds true for other saved believers as well, but this is the place where I'm sharing "my" personal testimony and journey.

The first dream of the inside of the supposed safe zone or arc was in this PG from what I can recall. Because a few weeks after that Sis Adele released a teaching and sharing Word regarding navigating the duration of the aftermath of flood wherein God has shut you in the arc and you don't know how long would it take for the waters to go down and you to walk on land again, but you just wait in hope and patience having full faith in God.

Just wanted to write the record of the drowning dream here because it's precious to me!

Watching a little bit of the last episode of Fate/Stay Night gave me a headache as it also reminded me of the vision I had that I shared with Blue. And after watching that little part, I was wondering if it was a coincidence that I landed on that page. (Edit: Below is the video I was referring to above.)

Fate/Stay Night - Saber's last moments

The Secret Place Revelations

When I take into account everything, some parts just don't fit in. But I will not rely on my own understanding.

But I witnessed today that I can no longer handle intense animes. It gets too heavy! And if it resembles somewhere with the reality of what is or what is to come, then it's all the way more emotionally distressing. I don't want to think about or be concerned with how things end (here on earth). I will only look at the journey that God takes me through while I'm here. If I was my past self, I would be completely swayed by the emotional burden of what I saw. But it doesn't seem as grave now because we don't actually die but go back to the place we actually belong after we've completed our assignment, like Saber! But it does affect you when you think about those you'll leave behind. God shows only some parts of His plan, not all. So we can walk in faith with Him without knowing for certain all things to come but trusting God that His plan or Will would eventually be fulfilled.

But I also just got reminded of why I don't want to watch any series of such kind. Because they draw you into an illusion and you get consumed by that and no longer keep God in the centre. This world is meant to be the place where people worship themselves by making themselves the centre of everything - their life and decisions, independent of God. The system was started by devil for the same purpose where people would forget God and live a life independent of Him and even if they do happen to believe in God then it would be one or other form of devil himself and the belief too would mean to receive one or the other kind of worldly 'comfort'. The system was started by devil to make the option of living a life independent of God available to people, but he didn't warn them that their illusion would just be but for a while, and that at the end they were eventually going to deal with the consequences of choosing the wrong path away from God.

If you want to be your own God, this is the place to be, and the end lies in eternal hell fire!

And yeah, any TV series of any kind would seem too heavy to me now because I can see it is bringing a delusion over my mind. People didn't have to deal with distractions of such kinds during or around the times of Jesus. So they were able to be better set-apart. Because one place wasn't connected to other and therefore couldn't be affected by the cultural nuances of other places. But these days, the few morally downtrodden people just need a TV telecast to influence the whole world. But the times have also made it possible to shake and save more people out of the world.

The Secret Place Revelations

We've to be grounded not in the reality of the world but in the reality of God and our kingdom purposes and assignments and job; everything else is delusion.

Page 12. findtruth88: Healing Marriage; The Process of Unfolding of a Dream; How did Jesus Handle Narcissists?

19 February 2022

Today's fellowship:

1. findtruth88 (Healing Marriage)

1. Take the step of faith
2. Invest your time
3. Be willing to be discipled
4. Respect those who've already gone through what you're currently going through and come out of it successfully
5. Take advice from those who received an answer from the Lord for their situation resembling yours
6. Don't listen to the advice of those who don't stand on the Word of God and therefore didn't receive their healing or answer
7. Doing 4, 5 and 6 above will help you in not being doubleminded
8. Be patient while waiting on God

2. (Visions and dreams may be known, but the journey is unseen)

One should not act according to one's own understanding and Will when it comes to the fulfilment of God's plan in one's life. But, one should only take steps when God nudges or pushes or directs them to. In some cases, the person whom God revealed His plan to would need to act according to God's good will not heeding their own emotions or understanding of things regarding a particular situation. The person in intermittent communion with God would wait on God to lead her steps leading to things slowly falling into place according to His timing and plan.

Though heeding God's answer or direction at times may not seem to lead to instant results or success, but they do fulfill a purpose in creating grounds for the next instruction following more of which would eventually lead to the fulfilment of the final revelation that God showed you. So, if God has shown you a situation and you're following some internal nudges or at times very much apparent directive answers from the Lord, you shouldn't expect to see the situation that God showed you but know full well in your heart that this particular unseen or unexpected situation is also a part of the path that would lead to what God did show you.

As you follow along the nudges of the Holy Spirit, and as time passes, you start to see and understand how things are falling into place to lead the 'seen' situation to be manifested in your life. Never disregard the nudges of the Holy Spirit. That holds for me because I'm the one who's facing problems in cultivating prompt obedience. Or it could also be that I've acted the way I was supposed to in God's eyes, and that's why He framed those situations the way He did for the fulfillment of His plan while also keeping safe.

3. (How did Jesus Handle Narcissists?)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=tiQH4ikrDc>

When narcs bully or hurt us, we should say, "God will handle this."
But we also have a blueprint to follow according to what Jesus said and did.

1. He ignored them

With their pious attitude and their constant correcting, the Pharisees were always looking to stir up trouble to criticize Jesus. (All narcs point out your flaws to make themselves look good.)

Matthew 9:10-12 (NIV) 10 While Jesus was having dinner at Matthew's house, many tax collectors and sinners came and ate with him and his disciples. 11 When the Pharisees saw this, they asked his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?"

12 On hearing this, Jesus said, "It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick."

Jesus didn't take the bait. The Pharisees were trying to create a smear campaign and Jesus chose to ignore them. Instead, He focused on His mission.

The Secret Place Revelations

2. He called them out

The Pharisees were a hypocritical bunch that Jesus took several opportunities to call out. One of them is:

[Matthew 23:29-30 (NIV) 29 “Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You build tombs for the prophets and decorate the graves of the righteous. 30 And you say, ‘If we had lived in the days of our ancestors, we would not have taken part with them in shedding the blood of the prophets.’

Narcissists are classic scoffers and judgers. They're all about the image. So, if you wanna be like Jesus, when it's time, don't hesitate to call out narcissistic behavior. Just be careful. Because we often think that because we call something out, then that means that thing's gonna change. It often didn't for Jesus, and it won't for us either.

3. He cut them off

Jesus wasn't opposed to giving No Contact. For as many people as Jesus helped, He walked away from several more for many reasons. He taught the same mindset to His disciples as He was preparing to send them out to minister to the world.

[Matthew 10:12-13 (NIV) 12 As you enter the home, give it your greeting. 13 If the home is deserving, let your peace rest on it; if it is not, let your peace return to you. 14 If anyone will not welcome you or listen to your words, leave that home or town and shake the dust off your feet. **]

[Matthew 10:16 (NIV) I am sending you out like sheep among wolves. Therefore be as shrewd as snakes and as innocent as doves **]

You might ask, "What about prayer? Didn't Jesus ask us to pray for our enemies?" He sure did. But you've to be careful. If you struggle with any form of co-dependency, it's likely that you continue to try to 'love' the narcissist, but in reality, you're simply perpetuating the evil they're causing.

[1 John 5:16 (NIV) If you see any brother or sister commit a sin that does not lead to death, you should pray and God will give them life. I refer to those whose sin does not lead to death. There is a sin that leads to death. I am not saying that you should pray about that.]

So, when referring to the sin that leads to death, the Bible is referring to a sin that a person is wilfully and habitually continuing in. Narcs rarely show any genuine repentance. So be careful of how you're loving and even praying for this person. Don't let the narc distract you from your purpose. Call out their evil behavior. Cut off the relationship when necessary.

20:40

It wasn't man that God loved and died for to gift salvation and eternal life to. It was the angel trapped along with a demon inside man that God loved too dearly to lose hold of. God doesn't love the fallen nature of man. But He loves the angel inside him to the extent that He was willing to be born in flesh and be nailed to receive the judgement on man's behalf.

God found it worth it to go through all that He did in order to have the angel reconciled back to Himself nullifying or inverting the demon part.

God's angels that He created with His eternal everlasting love are too precious to Him to lose in the world because they happened to take devil's bait and be born in the flesh system of an angel and a demon unequally yoked together inside a host body. He wanted man to become whole again - by undergoing a spiritual conversion to being fully an angel - the definition of being 'born again', where one is no longer half angel and half demon as one had been born as a consequence of being in flesh, but is born again spiritually as a whole angel. Being born again is not a physical phenomenon. It's a spiritual process one undergoes as one turns back to God and receives the gift of salvation through Jesus Christ with a contrite heart, now fully changed in the ways of His life and thoughts as one now wants to reflect the glory of God through his changed self. God's Spirit works on the heart of man and gets rid of the old nature. The demon inside is inverted back to being an angel and you're no longer divided within. Your eyes get redoubled and you become who you were initially called to be.

The Secret Place Revelations

To glorify 'man' and what he does is foolishness. We all are born divided in this fallen world. The angels inside is who God is running after as He brings them to Him while they're on earth and converts their hearts.

God is not in love with man with the fallen nature that he's born with in this world. This is evident from Him sentencing all unconverted men to hell. God is in love with the angel trapped inside of man. That's why He's written in His Word that love sees the best in each other. He saw the best existing inside of us and chose to sacrifice Himself for the same in order that best part may return back to Him and not be doomed to hell.

[1 Corinthians 13:7 (Amplified)

Love bears all things [regardless of what comes], believes all things [looking for the best in each one], hopes all things [remaining steadfast during difficult times], endures all things [without weakening].]

Page 14. Waiting on God

20 February 2022

God wants those whom He has given assignments and promises to walk according to Him in His timing for their own good and safety.

The Secret Place Revelations

There is a time of seeing when God shows you the things that're to come, and there's a time when they actually come. We shouldn't try to hasten the process as we desire. But we should wait on God for His good timing.

I will not risk. I will wait for God to direct my steps.

If it's not according to God's Will, I won't be able to perform even the things He has called me to. So, one should wait on God. Meanwhile, I will grow in the knowledge and understanding of the Word.

If we want to be blessed by God, we've to move according to His nudges.

I wanted to spend time quality time focusing on God listening to soaking Worship instrumental music, but I had a catharsis instead listening to it.

I started feeling deeply hurt and then the emotional feeling extended to my entire body. So I ate something and drank and felt a little better. Though my head is still heavy from the experience. I was expecting to go deeper into the presence of God and feeling at peace. But the stillness of the music ended up drawing out the buried feelings of being hurt. Then I listened to Sis Adele's Word on not acting on one's feelings of being hurt but giving it all to God and let Him avenge you as He struck Nabal. Seemed it was for me. Adele said that we've to be blameless before God and not avenge ourselves.

Also, looking at two of God's recent visions was also a relief. One was really heart touching. I will write about it later after it has come to pass. The other one was weird but funny too. I just want to see my reaction in real life about the second one. It was really funny and I wasn't expecting that 'God' will show me such a thing. But I won't write about it when it comes to pass. I will just make the comment in real life at that moment that God had already shown that to me (if I remember to make the comment).

Edit:

23:58 (9th Nov 2022)

The vision highlighted in pink and black was later on manifested as a confirmation when I was drawing a tree in the paint app for my PhD Thesis and later on for my model's diagram. Only in that vision I was asleep with my mouth slightly open and not smiling as is represented in the diagram (but that could represent my inner state of sleeping).

Page 15. Receiving the Sword of the Spirit (the Word of God), and Slowly Learning to Walk with God

19:10

I have the sword of Spirit now! That's what I would understand by God highlighting this particular song to me. And this also goes in tandem with a previous vision where I was standing in brown (supposedly dirty) full clothes (resembling in shape to Saber's) with a sword in my right hand. And it didn't actually make sense to me at that moment though I understood the meaning being standing firm with the sword of the Spirit while being dressed holy and walking in the ways of God. I hadn't thought or seen anything related to Fate/Stay Night or Saber for months when I had that vision.

And a few moments back God was highlighting this song to me.

The Flower Of Carnage - by Meiko Kaji

The Flower Of Carnage.mp4

He highlights things by playing them at His will inside me, or by a vision. I am not good at discerning His voice as of now, but I am doing ok with instructions given via visions, or things highlighted via songs, or the state of things being shown in visions or dreams as I have obeyed the instruction shown in a vision. But I am not good at hearing His voice or discerning if it's Him or my own mind. Discerning visions that are from outside of your conception and things you see as result of your own imagination is easier than discerning the voice of God amidst many things going inside.

The Secret Place Revelations

Because seeing something out of nowhere that definitely couldn't have been conceived in your own mind stands out alone, but voices get intermingled.

I have also learnt the importance of asking God questions with time as I've received instant answers. Once I received in the form of a song that played in my heart, the recent one I received as a vision with very clear answer to the question. Though I hadn't understood the surrounding that I saw around the written answer, it made sense when I was actually in that place and I realized what the vision had meant. So I waited until the time the written answer God showed me would be fulfilled at that place and then went to perform that which I had questioned God about.

It could also be that He makes us ask questions, so He can give concrete answers without having to say a lot.

I've also understood the nudges of God as the great inner push to do something though you may not be willing to do it by your own reasoning or will. Somewhere within the past week or so I came back inside after taking a walk on the roof, and I felt this strong inner kind of direction to go back there. I couldn't understand the origin of it or why would this 'thing' want me to go back towards the end of the roof. But I obeyed despite not wanting to go, and then I saw my specs lying there. I wasn't having a feeling that I had forgotten something so I should go back and look - that's different. It was something 'telling' you to go back and making it very much significant in your thought process or whatever you would call it, and such a directive push can be clearly discerned as being different from being a result of your own thinking.

The same thing I felt when I went outside one night as I had to obey God's answer to a question I had posed the last day, but I didn't clearly know where I was supposed to go though I had my own understanding. I stood for a few moments at the front gate and was confused about where to go. I turned to my right and looked in the street to my right that followed and saw no one there. But I didn't also feel a push to go in and rather there was a repelling sort of negative push which felt like I wasn't supposed to go in that direction. So I turned back and came back inside. But I did obey God in the part where He had shown me the time at which I was to leave when I was roaming on the roof though it wasn't the same time that I went downstairs and outside, I did that when I felt comfortable and felt that that was the time God was highlighting as I spoke something earlier to someone.

Later on, I understood some things about that incident and that it had fulfilled the purpose that God intended it to. So, I'm relying on these directions from God as they are also in good and safe timings.

The Secret Place Revelations

Learning to discern God's directives and instructions is a process for me, and seems like a long one. There are some who heard His voice very clearly when they got saved, like Brother JK when he was called to his ministry of uncovering the one-up one-down truth of the spiritual condition of this world.

If I go out and act according to my will, it won't be good for us.

I think I understood what the number 9 meant after reading this week's devotional by Sis Adele.

But at times I do feel quite anxious at obeying God promptly as I don't know what lies ahead when He plants these directions in your brain. It's a process to come to a place of discarding the comfort of knowing where you're going and what you're supposed to do before you set out, and learning to trust God blindly because He has His own reasons for keeping certain things to Himself and revealing only some to us when He wants something done.

It's a process of changing your mind according to the ways and the Word of God and undoing the worldly programming. Sometimes you need to do one thing first before God will reveal the next to be done. I just want to be attentive enough when God speaks because He can speak anytime He wishes and we have to pay heed to Him because He doesn't speak in vain as what Sis Adele also said in the video I watched today.

I really respect and admire Brother JK's obedience to God, like how prompt he is and does things at the moment's notice – like he built and completed that epoxy floor before the arc event as God had instructed him to though it was very brutal to be burdened with that heavy a work to be done at such a short notice. I want to be like that, too.

For me, I get stuck with my own presumptions and fear of not knowing what lies ahead. So, I have to learn from Brother JK and walk accordingly in my own walk with God, with full faith in Him and not fearing the next step.

I can go out and do what I want, but I won't – until God pushes me out. Waiting for the next directive. We've to beware of devil and his schemes as well and God knows them too well. devil always opposes the will of God and is out like a roaring lion seeking whom he may devour. You've to be beware of that and keep safe in your place waiting on God. Don't give devil a door to come inside.

The Secret Place Revelations

We've to rest in the knowledge of God being a shield around what He's spoken and not let our human reservations or fears overtake us though they do sometimes, and that's ok. We can pray to God to give us strength during such times. We don't have to overdo or try harder because that would be of no use. What God spoke, He will watch over it to perform it and it will definitely come to fruition. And we shouldn't try to make things quicker or slower. We just have to be restful at our places doing our work knowing that the good Will of God will be fulfilled because of Him (and not because of our special efforts) in His timing.

They said to him, "This is what Hezekiah says, "This day is a day of distress, rebuke and disgrace; for children have come to birth, and there is no strength to deliver them.

Isaiah 37:3 (AMP)

Declaration: I can "birth" every promise God has given me, as He enables me to do it.

BOLD EXISTENCE®

What has God asked you to "birth" this season? Is it marriage, a business, a ministry, a book, a painting, a song, etc? Whatever it might be, there will be times when you will have opposition (spiritual, physical, emotional, mental) coming against you to hinder the "birthing". The enemy does not want you to succeed as he knows that if you persevere and endure the opposition and you are able to breakthrough and "birth" that which God has given you, it would be detrimental to him. So the enemy will come in various ways and forms to hinder the "birthing". This can be by keeping you so busy and distracted with other things that you end up in "survival mode". You just try and fix and do what is "gunning" for your attention and then you end up neglecting self-care. The enemy's attempts are to tire you out, to leave you weak and vulnerable so that you don't have the stamina or even the desire to "birth" that which God gives you. Don't allow it.

This is a very encouraging devotional I received today.

We just have to keep in mind that the devil has been a thief and a loser from the beginning. Adele is right. The enemy's attempts are to tire us out and to leave us weak and vulnerable so we don't have the stamina or even the desire to "birth" the promise that God has given us.

When I was an atheist, calling this way of starting new things according to God's purposes as 'birthing' them would've seemed too weird to me. But now I've got accustomed to it and all other believers use it too. And I understand now why it is called that. It is so because when God speaks something over your life, there's always a time period between the time of spoken Word and its fulfillment and during that time period takes place the 'formation of the baby' and then comes the time when what God had spoken actually manifests in our lives which is called birthing. So yeah, it makes sense in a way. Because God's spoken Word is the seed that starts the formation of the baby or forms the grounds and creates circumstances to lead to the vision spoken by God. The time in-between is very much like caring for a baby in formation as you listen to God's instructions and follow specific rules, avoiding some things and doing what God tells you - doing all this eventually leads to a time when what God spoke has become ready to be 'birthed' in our lives. It's not too weird after all, it seems.

13:59

Late last night I kept having thoughts of eating noodles though I didn't really want to as I already had dinner; I mean I could've resisted it and gone to sleep. But the inner push seemed too weird to me as it was recurrent. So I just went ahead, cooked, and ate. And sometime later as I happened to murmur this worship song while lying in bed, I happened to utter 'No more eating' in synchrony with the other 'No more' verses of the song, and I could tell that it didn't come from my own mind but was quite unexpected. I understood that God had now commanded me to 'eat no more' after overfeeding and treating me the last time.

And now since it is an instruction this time, I feel scared to even touch food because it has been instructed by God, and I have to 'obey'. Though I was feeling hungry an hour so back, I resisted as a fear dawned upon me. Fasting is very much necessary in your walk with God.

Well, but I can drink for sure, so I had tea in the morning and I can have milk and juices. And I will not eat until God tells me next to resume eating. I think or am expecting that He will only tell me to eat a little bit when my dependency on food has been broken as I had been feeling really downcast for two days with a heavy head and I tried to soothe myself with food. But it didn't work as well as was needed, and I kept returning to the same downcast state of heart and mind. But, today I feel a little better though I have not had breakfast and lunch, and it tells a lot about how things 'really' work. God knows that using anything else other than His Spirit and having fellowship with Him will not help in me being uplifted in spirit. So He commanded me 'No More Eating'.

The Secret Place Revelations

I will continue like this until He instructs me or shows me when and how to eat and in what measure.

God understands the struggles His children face, and uses the right situations to bring a change in them in order for them to be in closer fellowship with Him and to be walking in the Spirit.

The last time I fasted for three days it was a personal endeavor, but now it's a command. I didn't feel any fear of eating the last time, though I didn't eat as I wanted to stick to what I had determined in my heart. But this time, I am fearful. Also, I only had tea once a day for two days, and water on all days. But this time, I will only drink all sorts of liquids and not eat anything, as I want to stick to the phrase.

Also, many weeks back when my roommate had still yet not returned here, I happened to look at her uncovered bed as I was about to leave the room to get some food. And it wasn't a usual act of looking, but rather I happened to focus on the written part on the mattress and kept looking until I understood what was written and it was - 'Real Comfort'. I understood that God was telling me that real comfort was found in Him and not in food as I had been trying to deal with the negative feelings because of the current situation by depending on food. But apparently, telling me that 'He' was the one who provided 'Real Comfort' and not food wasn't enough. Though it kept recurring to me, that depending on food is just an illusion, because real comfort comes from God and my behavior also was making food an idol as I was relying on it more than God to cope, I still couldn't change my inclinations. But God finally gave a command yesterday to bring me to the place of 'Real Comfort'.

Page 17. 'Open Your Mind'

13:09

Yesterday, when I was on the roof hanging my shawl on the wire to wash it in sunlight, I noticed that I had just uttered 'Open your mind'. And a few days before that, I kept having visions of my head, represented by a golden but spiritual form, being cracked open at the top and what seemed like white light being poured into it. And even a while back I was feeling this struggle which came along with visions of a structure trying to break free.

God is communicating that we've to open our minds to receive His treasure of Holy Spirit, which is to say, we've to undo all aspects of thinking that we learnt in this world if we want to walk in the truth. Opening your mind is very much like your spiritual being opening itself to the reality of God's power and how faith harnesses it through the Holy Spirit. There is a golden spiritual being inside of all of us. And we all should crack open our 'minds' and receive God's outpouring of His spiritual gifts. Opening one's mind doesn't just pertain to receiving gifts from God, but mainly undoing all worldly programming and walking in the knowledge that God can perform a miracle anytime and anywhere as He leads you in His path.

Opening one's mind doesn't come easy to those who've become used to the worldly patterns and have accepted them as the only reality. We shouldn't try to be logical when we walk with God. It's a walk walked with blind trust and full faith in Him. He will cover you up with a 'real armour' out of thin air when situation calls and it's in His Will.

Sis Adele:

Turning of the Tides

I heard the Holy Spirit say: "The tides are turning".

The Lord then prompted me to look up the meaning of "tides" and "turning", these are the definitions He highlighted to me:

Tide – Alternate rising and falling, a powerful surge of feeling or trend of events.

Turning – Move so as to point in a particular direction, in a different position in relation to its surroundings or its previous position, fold or unfold.

The Lord then gave the following two scriptures:

Psalms 118:16 (MSG) – The hand of God is raised in victory! The hand of God has turned the tide.

Psalms 56:9 (TLB) – The very day I call for help, the tide of battle turns. My enemies flee!

The Secret Place Revelations

God said the following:

"I am turning the tides in your life. That which was high will be brought low. That which was low will be brought up. I have spoken these things multiple times and now it is here. Seek Me and ask Me what this means personally for you, child of Mine. It is time and it won't delay. My justices are already at work in the earth.

I will continue to expose the wicked and arrogant man among you. When I move you or tell you to separate yourself from a situation or a group of people, do so, and do so without delay. Otherwise, if you remain, you might be caught in the middle of My justice being poured out on them. I never speak in vain. So if you heed My words, you will remain safe.

Do not defend a wicked man. I am the Lord your God. Rather stand up and fight for the powerless, the righteous, the orphan and the widow. Do not allow the corruption in the world to taint your heart. Know My ways and follow My instructions. I won't leave you helpless when you adhere to My principles. I am moving swiftly in the earth now.

You will find you might struggle to catch your breath sometimes due to the pace things are moving at. Do not concern yourself child with the shortness of days. But rather come and ask of Me how you can steward your days well. There is no time to waste. Stay in tune with Me. Come to Me as often as you can during each day so that I can wash you and refresh you and refresh you. Keep standing firm against the onslaughts of the enemy.

Remember, I have already given you the victory. Learn to see differently. A renewed perspective will help you in the coming days. Wait on Me and continue to wait on Me. I will always show you the way to go when you commit your course to Me. Receive the joy and hope which is found in Me. I love you."

Here are the other scriptures the Lord gave with this word:

Numbers 16:21, Jeremiah 51:45, Amos 5:24

Page 19. Last Night's Weird Experience

18:58

I had a very weird experience last night. I can't recall exactly though when was it, but I do remember being half asleep and feeling a weird restless emptiness in the place of my heart. It felt so empty, well, not really empty, but it certainly made me too restless. I never experienced this before. It felt like something outside of me had taken a place within; it didn't feel like my own state. I kept tossing and turning but it wouldn't go away. Don't know if it was a part of spiritual warfare. Though I experienced some a night before when my roommate wasn't there for the night. I woke up and heard a woman's voice singing a song I didn't understand the lyrics of in a weird tone. It came from my left side from above the dressing table. It was late night. After she stopped, a guy downstairs (most probably the watchman but not certain) walked around singing that same song (I recognized it bcz of the same monotonous tone), as if the spirit that was in my room had now taken hold of him.

The Secret Place Revelations

Then after a while, I heard the sound of a quick breath from the same spot. I was ignoring all of it. And there were also songs playing in my earphones in a low volume. When the Book of Psalms begun as the narrator was speaking, "The Book of Psalms", I heard a panic-stricken very short high pitched shriek from the same spot. Apparently, the same spirit was manifesting in that spot.

Anyway. And yeah, I also faced a lot of what felt like spiritual oppression coming from that direction. And I automatically started praying in tongues though I was half asleep. I have now faced this thing multiple times, where I face some sort of attack during the night, and then I start praying tongues which I happen to resort to by default now whenever I face this kind of struggle. And the next morning I woke up feeling so tired. I think I will from now on sleep after praying and covering the room and myself with the spiritual blood of Jesus. I just go directly to sleep. We can't ignore or pretend as if warfare isn't real when demons are on the loose to carry out their own assignments.

Coming back to last night, it was nothing like something that I've experienced before. There was a throbbing emptiness inside of me but it wasn't my heart, though the feeling was manifesting in that spot. It was a little emotionally painful too; didn't understand the cause of it, and it came out of nowhere. God has often played songs in my heart to communicate certain things to me, the meaning of one of them I understood later after an incident happened and I realized that one particular song that had played on its own in my heart right after I got out of bed when I was staying in that other PG actually represented the thoughts or state of heart of someone that God was communicating to me about. Because that person did that thing after a few days or perhaps a week and it was quite unexpected. And the song was in future tense (as was the original song). I hadn't understood why that particular song would play on its own when it was long back in childhood that I had watched that movie and wasn't a great fan of that song either. But it wasn't about the song, it was about the literal meaning of lyrics. God plays the related lyrics though they may not make sense in the context of the song or the lines that follow, but the lines that God plays are the ones He's been communicating to me. The first such playing of lyrics that I can recall is the one that I mentioned earlier here, and it was somewhere during the last year before I had shifted to this PG. God also makes me feel a certain way in my heart when I can clearly see that the feeling isn't mine but pertains to that same person. Sometimes my heart skips a beat, like a quite apparent but unexpected jump that stands out. I've learnt from experience now that God is keeping me connected to that person. However, I'm not sure about last night's incident. And plus, these demons have to attack you (it feels so oppressive, literally like an invisible evil presence you're wrestling with as you pray) when you want to sleep peacefully, and you feel so tired afterwards.

The Secret Place Revelations

I love the Lord.

Page 20. Gen 6 and my small House of the Lord

27 February 2022
12:54

When I was reading Genesis 6 to make my notes few weeks back, I was filled with an overwhelming feeling of hurt and sadness as I was getting an inkling of the extent to which the heart of God was grieved seeing the extent of wickedness that had taken hold of mankind on earth. The feeling stayed for some days, coming and moving back into the shadows intermittently.

Reading in order to understand the Word deeply and write your understanding of the same helps in understanding the heart of God than just reading it objectively and leaving it. I could feel the grief and pain in God's heart that He felt at that time. Then later on when I was going through Sis Adele's notes, she too was grieved by God's pain and expressed her sadness. I felt good and strengthened, seeing that there are others as well who understand how seeing wickedness prevailing in mankind affects God, where at one instant He had to decide to destroy all life on earth.

When I read Genesis 6, I had wanted to cry for the pain that God experienced, but I withheld the outer expression.

God has a heart, a very good one, the perfect and the best indeed, and therefore His grief and pain is pure too. It's not some adulterated form of pain that a doubleminded man feels. Therefore, a wicked doubleminded man can't also understand the agony and pain that others go through.

I also want to write about the small House of the Lord I made out of a coffee cardboard cover. It was something I just felt like making and I enjoyed making it. And I don't know if it's a coincidence that I had made it. But after I made it, I had a dream one night where God was singing over me and was walking wearing red suit with white shirt inside (is this prophetic as well?) and with many many garlands of flowers (and this.) around his chest. It was to showcase the House that I had made. The dream went like this. There was this song playing. Then it showed me walking in a long purple t-shirt with one or two garlands around my chest with 'few' purple flowers widely separated apart and then the whole dream shifted to my left side (viewer's right side) where "GOD" was walking in swag wearing the outfit I described above and the entire focus was on 'Him'. He showed Himself as an old man in that dream and had many many many CROWDED garlands of flowers of various colors around Him. OFCOURSE, GOD HAS ALL THE GLORY!!! And it was apparent in that dream!! But the voice that was singing the song was that of a 'young man' who was singing that I could call on 'His' name, and Father God who was walking like a celebrity wasn't the one singing it. I didn't get to see the one who was singing.

I had pasted the four-letter Hebrew name of the 'Father' with red paper inside the temple. I guess that's why He showed up dressed like that, because I also pasted floral wallpaper outside the temple. Father God acknowledged and gave value to the small temple that I made. I hadn't understood the concept of 'Son of God' too well back then, so I wrote the name of 'Father God' inside the temple. Also, I didn't have personal experiences and encounters with Jesus too which I now have and which has led me to grow closer to Him.

Though I know that it's us who are the temples of God as His Spirit dwells inside us, but I just made it out of love for God, and Father God honored it by wearing that outfit.

And after I shifted to my current place I had a vision of a glowing flower having a glassy structure on it which too was glowing and the whole thing was rotating and it looked so beautiful. The glassy structure resembled in its print the paperweight that I have. So I put the paperweight outside the supposed door and I understood the glow as the light that comes from inside, and so started putting a burning candle inside.

Sometime later I stopped putting a candle and didn't do so for a few months, but now I feel like putting one inside again. I won't call the small House a tabernacle acutely constructed with specific instructions and details. It's just been a random act of love from my side and God liked it as He showed me in that dream.

Also, after the wall behind got a black covering because of once intense burning of the candle inside which had led to the whole room filled with smoke and had also blackened to an extent the inner walls, I had a vision where the inner door wall was covered with the same blue floral blue wallpaper that I had used on the floor inside. So I ordered it again and pasted as it was shown to me in the best way I could to mimic what I remembered from the vision, and it covered most of the blackened part inside.

I think I will put on the inner wall right to the middle wall the Hebrew name of Jesus because it's Jesus who saves. But it's just a feeling that I'm having to put Jesus' name after watching Brother Wally's video today which was all about 'Jesus is Salvation'.

And then after the attached wall had been blackened, some days (weeks?) later I covered the blackened part of the wall with the same blue floral wallpaper because the wall looked too bad. I started random and towards the end it started to take a form and I ended it with what 'I' understood as the 'fist of God'. But my motivation was to cover the black wall. Later on I understood it resembled a human face with a weird nose and a bouquet as well. But I tend to see it as the 'fist' that I originally thought of.

All of a sudden I felt this song in my Spirit this afternoon and it has been recurring since then. Though I try to resist, it keeps recurring.

God has lead me to do other things in a similar manner as well, so I think I should listen to it without much thought. If God puts something in my Spirit and keeps repeating, I should listen to it. I haven't listen to this song for more than easily a decade; perhaps that's why it felt too weird when it came to me this afternoon.

I think God is reinstating in me some of the lost things. A sense of eternality? We gotta learn to be grounded in the reality of us being eternal beings walking in God's everlasting love. And many times it's about the aura that a song carries, and not so much about the specific lyrics.

The normalized satanic thought patterns in the world have created an image of God's eternal precepts as being naïve, foolish and of no value!! People mock at the idea of what's pure and right!

Wow.. it didn't even seem like it was an 8 minute song, and it only had 2 stanzas.

And I felt something pass through my heart as I listened to the first violin stroke. It has a good opening.

The Secret Place Revelations

It's necessary to have the right mindset when you stand firm against the devil. And that includes having a sort of constancy in character which is lost in the present times but is reflected in old songs. At many places in the Word, we see the use of particularly stringed instruments to worship God, praise Him, and sing songs to Him.

Sur (The Melody of Life).mp3

(Added on Oct 26th, 2024: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zklm71HW4pl>)

This part of the song actually reflects how God is to be worshipped - not with vain words that just leave one's lips, but with a heartfelt melody that originates from deep within the heart.

The use of stringed instruments also relates to the use of a part of animal intestines in making those instruments back in the days of OT. And it explains why Harp - a stringed instrument - is the instrument of God's choice; the strokes come along with a sense of depth as the strings are made of intestines. (I learnt this info from Brother Wally's video - The Human H.A.A.R.P Project)

We are human harps, and when we sing to God from a place of deep intimacy, it is a metaphor for us playing the strings made of our intestines (representing the depth of our singing), and the melodies sound to God like strokes leaving a stringed instrument.

Well, I usually pray quite random prayers. And this afternoon while walking on the roof, when I wanted to pray and started praying, I started praying gratitude prayers, thanking God for everything. And it actually seemed quite unexpected to me because it came on its own. Almost as if I was drawn to pray and thank God for doing this great work in my life, as if something had been accomplished or brought near completion, and therefore I was drawn to thank God for everything.

The Secret Place Revelations

It's an inclination that originated by itself as I'm feeling a sense of completion of something. If I've interpreted correctly, the Lord gave me a sign of 'Victory' yesterday. I'm getting a feeling of completion of this particular phase/part.

God had shown me something that was to come to pass in my life, and I've been waiting for the same. He didn't give me a specific time, but it was my own understanding that it should happen in February because of a vision that I might have misinterpreted. I many times don't understand what God shows or flashes to me. Like once I happened to see a '669' (guess it was few weeks back), and I didn't understand until I came across Isaiah 66:9 which says the below.

(NIV)

Do I bring to the moment of birth and not give delivery?' says the Lord.
'Do I close up the womb
when I bring to delivery?' says your God.

And I can roughly recall Isaiah 66:9 coming at first to me as I asked what 669 meant. But I brushed it aside because it seemed too weird to me and didn't even look up Isaiah 66:9. What God has been working on to build according to His plan will definitely come to fruition or will be 'birthed'. The above verses are often used to signify the 'birthing' of a promise that God has been working on to manifest in your life.

When God has done all the work, won't He bring it to completion? When He gave form to His promise by creating situations and circumstances, won't He deliver the promise? He would.

We should be thankful to God for gifting us with a thing of value, even during the 'transition' phase that we go through before we've birthed the promise, as we can be sure that what God has spoken "will" come to pass.

Though we are saved by grace, we've to watch our thoughts and actions as well, and sanctify. And I for sure need sanctification because of some intrusive thoughts and feelings I started having due to narc abuse. I have to stand firm with my sword of the Spirit. I can see a lot of filth inside me and I want it out.

I think when I was shown '669', I was thinking or worrying about my actions - if I was doing or acting in the way God wanted me to in following Him. I was worried if I had to do some things that I wasn't doing and I didn't know what more to do, as I'm trying to move forward with God in the best way I presently can, given my intermittent changing moods. I wish I was more stable but with everything that has been going on, I felt I could've done a better job in following God in the absence of it all, where I didn't have to think about abusers trying to shipwreck my happiness in wicked heartless ways. I was perhaps thinking if everything was going the way it was supposed to. Then God flashed me 669, and it can't mean anything else other than Isaiah 66:9. God reassured me. Sometimes He reassures you. He's so good. He cares.

This increased my confidence in God. And then I keep assuming stuff and keep convicting myself of disobeying God. I don't want to be in this place. I want to be at a place where I clearly know God's instruction, and it's not fused with my own thoughts, and therefore I would know for sure if something was to be done, like the way I followed what I saw with my temple and one more thing in my room. Those visions were easy and obvious to understand. But many times, they are not easy to understand or interpret, though I'm further ahead in my walk with God.

I know the scenario God showed me, but I don't know when to expect it. All I know is that I'm changing according to God's Will. He's been working on my heart like He's worked on yours.

And today I've been feeling like thanking God for this work in my life and on my heart which has changed my disposition towards Him and led to me wanting to change according to His ways and nature.

I am following a reading program offered by Sis Adele. She sits with the Holy Spirit and makes notes as highlighted and then shares her notes. She doesn't act like a teacher of 'men', but she just shares her notes revealed to her by the Holy Spirit. I don't think that's unbiblical. Also, God told her to start that Discipleship Accountability course. And it has talked into my situation a few times now, where what I wrote here in my Notebook was later confirmed or explained in more details in her notes. Also, her understanding has helped me in understanding more things related to the kingdom of God – like spiritual warfare, transition period, and how God works. She doesn't sit and preach or talk over men. She just uploads her videos and notes on internet.

The third main scenario God showed me in the dream I mentioned above happened during the night time, so I go out during night hours only. The first two scenarios already came to pass on different days, though they were part of the same continuous dream. I have to follow God's instructions and timings, and not my own. I don't know better than God that I should try to replace 'His' Will with my supposed 'better reasonable timings', expecting His plan to be fulfilled. His plan will be fulfilled the way 'He' has shown to me, and not otherwise.

The Secret Place Revelations

The focus of the first two scenarios wasn't very much on the day or night part of the day as they were shown happening inside, with me eating all the time. I was wondering why I'm eating that much continuously, I mean, quickly after the last time I ate, I would again come across food and eat some. I guess because it represented many days, and while all this was going, a certain person appeared twice in two different outfits, but both the times it was a quick glance-and-ignore kind of situation. And that's how it happened to come true, the first scenario being during late evening hours, and the second during late afternoon hours, and I happened to come across the person wearing those same outfits shown to me in the dream. That's how I knew it was a prophetic dream. The third scenario shown was specific in the part of the day - it was night and I went out and I again came across that person, but this time it wasn't a glance and ignore situation but I actually received God's promise.

But I didn't expect that there was going to be a long duration of time after the second appearance for the third one to manifest the way God showed me, and that there would be many incidents in between which I didn't see in the dream. There was no month highlighted in the dream. The first two scenarios took place within the past two to three months. The first was in the late evening hours of the day I pasted the 'apparent' fist of God on my wall to cover the blackened part. Later on, I recalled that I had actually 'seen' that person in exactly that outfit in the first appearance in my dream, and later on after a few days, he made the second appearance in the outfit I had seen in the dream. Now I'm waiting for the fulfillment of the third incident that I saw, and I guess there was meant to be a period of time needed for the situation to manifest.

I want to be in a state of mental clarity, knowing well what is to be followed, and what are my own thoughts. I don't want to overlook things like I did Isaiah 66:9 when in fact it was the right interpretation of the number God flashed to me.

I actually related this situation with what I read about the transition period of Noah in Adele's notes, where he didn't know how long he was to stay inside the arc. God revealed to him the duration of rain, but not the duration before he would actually set his feet on land.

The Secret Place Revelations

Many times people commit horrendous sins first, going to even the extent of murdering others, before they finally learn their lesson as they get healed by the supernatural power of God and then they realize they were powerless from the beginning, and that it was only because of God's good grace, merciful and longsuffering nature that they were able to dish out the abuse that they did in the first place, and then they have no words to say. They just don't look at you and leave without even expressing any gratitude as they're filled with shame. They can't say a word to you as they realize the extent to which they've lost. But while they were previously out dishing out abuse they felt all powerful and above it all, as if they had power over everything. But at the end of it all, they won't have a word to say. That's how you kill the enemy with the sword of the Spirit - by 'healing' them with God's good Will and then they're left speechless as they look at everything they did to you.

Yesterday I suddenly realized how not-so-normal it is to have God answer you instantly when you ask Him something, as I realized that He's not obligated to answer. Who am I or anyone else that the God of the heavens and the earth should answer them when they ask Him something (though He answers instantly or communicates directly with some people). I've been taking it for granted and treating it like a usual and casual thing when He answers or shows me something. If I took it very seriously, I would be considering my own thoughts, behavior, and actions quite seriously too.

After Sis Adele released the Word 'Turning of the Tides' in which God had asked to ask Him what it meant personally for each one of us, I was praying and asking for more revelation about the same. And God showed me that Sis Adele was being used as a literal mouthpiece by Him. And yesterday I had this realization of how grateful I should be because God answers and that it's a big thing. Though it's a norm for many people, but still I'm very much grateful that He answers in His own chosen ways even though I may not understand the meaning in some cases. I think I will start to do better as I grow in my knowledge of the Word.

And then I looked back at all other past instances where God had answered instantly or given some sort of revelation. I felt grateful.

I never thought in my entire life so far that God would show me things, even less that He would kiss my left cheek during my lowest moments few years back. It all just seems so unbelievable yet heart touching at the same time. God wants an intimate personal relationship with His children. He's perfect and amazing and the source of all good things.

I was trying to find the scene of Lion's roar in Kungfu Hustle that God highlighted to me somewhere within the past few weeks, and I found the one that matches the closest to it. And as I was watching the video below, when Lana talked about 'roaring boldly in authority', I felt it helped me understand in some ways the significance of what I had seen – the bold roar because of God's work on our hearts.

12:16

Today I happened to pay attention to the thumbnails of a few mp3s I had been listening on a music app. I was filled with utter repulsion and disgust, because all the thumbnails promoted satanism. Earlier I was focusing only on the contents - the music or the lyrics. Some of the lyrics were good and could be understood as Godly.

The Secret Place Revelations

And in fact I kept humming inside those few godly verses of an entire song whenever they played, as if they were the only parts that were highlighted and touched my heart.

But today I couldn't keep those songs in my playlist because they were stinking of idolatry. Suddenly there was a repulsion inside me and I got rid of them all, even though I may have liked some godly lyrics of a song wrapped in an ungodly thumbnail belonging to some ungodly movie. Earlier, listening to an entire ungodly song for those few godly verses in the lyrics seemed worth it and I still love those few godly verses.

Perhaps I would convert a few mp3s from YouTube.

And I experienced a similar thing the day before yesterday. I went to the roof and some ungodly song was being played loudly through speakers at the roof of the adjacent building, I just couldn't listen to it though others were dancing to it. Earlier I would've felt neutral as I ignored a lot of stuff, but that day it was like poison to my ears and made me cringe. It led me to think if the people who were dancing on it were so morally blind or had gone so, or were so desensitized that they couldn't see that the song actually stank.

I can clearly see what is worldly and what is godly now. Even liars repel me. I could see when someone told a lot of lies in a row. Devil is a liar and so are his children.

There is the world on your left, and there's God on your right. You've to choose a side because both are in opposition.

These lines from Sis Adele's notes made a lot of sense to me:

'God does not expect us to give everything to everybody until we ourselves have nothing, no, God wants us to have things too, we should just not have selfish hearts that are not willing to share.'

Many times people give to others because of their own abundance but that doesn't mean they have a selfless heart. God emphasizes upon the need to not have a selfish heart though you may not be sharing your 'last bite of bread' with someone who's only testing you or wants to deplete your resources. It's important to have a selfless heart irrespective of what or how much you give.

After I've shifted to the other room, I've decided that I would be out every day. Though I've not really received anything from God regarding this, and I only know the end of the cyclic itinerary, and I don't really think this has come out of my brain. But if we look at what God has been pointing out through different channels, I can guess something about the end game.

The Secret Place Revelations

The setting and the time. We need to look at the songs and the prophetic symbol and other things highlighted by God.

The lyrics of a song the music of which I wrote about in here previously could answer the day (in 'my' understanding), and the time of day was already shown by God in that dream, and the event is highlighted in the prophetic symbol.

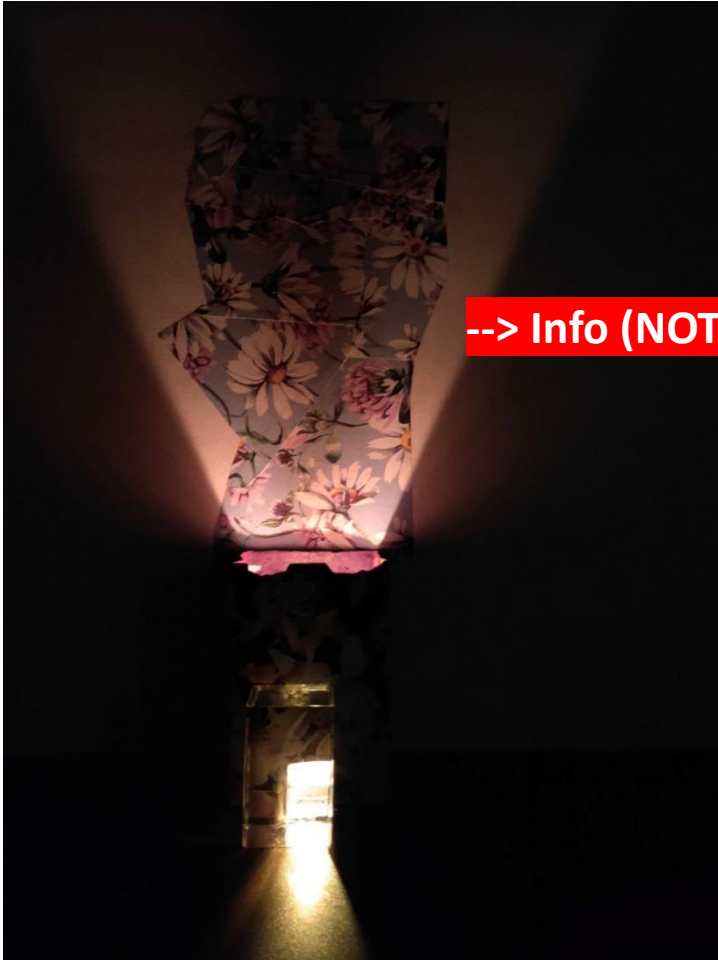

But I don't know if I should go out every day, as I haven't received or understood anything related to it, but I will certainly be doing at the date and time above.

I just hope I am not trying to 'help' God like those people I've read in the Word so far by trying my own plans. I'm only acting on my own understanding. But that's also what they did at certain times in their walk with God towards their promises.

Is the symbol above a bold declaration or statement? - That the impression highlighted will definitely come to pass? Though I have no doubt in God's spoken

The Secret Place Revelations

Word over me in that dream, I was only pondering if the image above is a bold declaration or perhaps another stepping stone in moving towards what God showed me.

Also, I was thinking a few days back about how the accidental fall of a few burning candles made two depressions on the top and how they give it the look of having two eyes. And today morning, I shared with my roommate how the whole thing looked like two eyes above and a mouth below that is emanating light. But I was actually thinking if I should remove the paperweight as it seemed an 'extra' addition to it. And without it, the door would perhaps give a better look of being a mouth filled with light. But I noticed this evening as I was staring at the pic after returning to my PG after work that the paperweight actually gave it a glow in the middle which gave it a 'nose'. How amazing and unbelievable is that? Almost as if God is putting things together with time and they're gradually taking a form.

Without the paperweight, it wouldn't have a nose. I had felt like removing it in the morning, but I didn't as something stopped me and it just didn't seem 'right', not that I was focused on what the paperweight was doing in the middle but I was only concerned about capturing the light coming out of the door in a better way but something in me made it seem as if 'this' is how it was supposed to be. So, I let it be.

Moonlight Candles: (Another confirmation)

I had felt a strong urge to buy a lot of these candles some months back in that other PG. I didn't focus on the name but I just felt compelled from within to buy these as I was still learning and growing in identifying the nudges of the spirit. My own reasoning was that perhaps these would be useful during economic collapse and that's why the Holy Spirit is pushing me to buy these but I wasn't sure of the reason. I just knew that I had to buy them.

Because I felt a strong compulsion to buy these, I bought. And it goes along with the lyrics of the song too.

But I noticed the name of the brand - Moonlight - today only.

So, we've some sort of picture or idea of how things should unfold according to God's plan or Will.

The Secret Place Revelations

22:00

I was also thinking if I was supposed to continuously eat or eat within very short intervals or overeat during this phase as that's what I was doing in that dream as well. I hadn't understood why would I do so, eat when I am already full. Because I can recall feeling full in that dream and yet, eating.

And even now I can resist and sleep, but it's as if I 'have to' eat. Why is it that after overeating and not doing any physical exercise for a few months now, I'm still the same at weight scale, only a little less weightier. Almost as if I'm losing weight slowly. Because I measured today morning, it was slightly less than yesterday. Now the way you know if you're on the decreasing end of your weight is by looking at the fluctuations of the scale when you stand on it and as it settles on a value. If the fluctuations are shifting towards the decreasing end as you measure each successive day, you're on weight loss. And it just doesn't make sense to me.

22:42

Yesterday morning I had a zoom prayer meeting with Sister Adele, Sister Candance and Brother Mike. I was so rejoiced at their sight because I could see their persona reflecting on their faces - good people with noble and gentle hearts.

I had my camera off initially as I was feeling a bit nervous at first, but after listening to their voices I was all good as I felt comfortable around them.

The Secret Place Revelations

When Candance told me that I was a beautiful, beautiful daughter of God and told me that the first thing she noticed was my eyes and smile, I didn't know how to react to it as I wasn't expecting it as I usually don't focus on outer attributes of people but I knew and could see that she was referring to the joy that was all over my face. Later afterwards the meeting I was thinking I could've given her some compliments too as I looked at her beautiful persona shining out from within. But then I usually keep stuff that seems personal to me inside when it's the first time I am getting to interact with someone. So it didn't occur to me to mention that to her that their beauty was shining out more fervently as they have been with God longer than me and are also well versed with the Word. They were so encouraging. They gave me very helpful advice and encouragement.

Brother Mike told me that one should be kind in the Godly way and not in a worldly way that has people pleasing inbuilt in it. That we've to learn to build thick skin but a soft and kind core inside. Yeah, I think I need to work on that, because not only I sometimes get resentful towards the people who're inflicting undeserved abuse on me, but it makes me hate everyone for a while like today and I don't want to be like that. I've to keep wearing the armour of God because I can see that those thoughts are temporary, as if arrows sent by devil. I don't want the wickedness of an evil person affect my relationship with God. Plus Adele told me that God had been preparing me my entire life for this, and to take courage. This also made me feel that what I'm going through isn't just a scheme of devil but could be understood as a form of worldly persecution coming from devil through a certain person as God uses this situation to bring His sheep together.

This is my calling and I've to learn to walk in it with my heart guarded and the full armour on. I can see I've not been guarding my mental gates and taking care of some stuff.

Thank You Jesus for bringing the body of Christ together at such a time as this, so they could be united and work together in a better way.

Yes, our beautiful, beautiful God has all the glory as He uses us in various ways. We should never forget to thank Him for being kind and merciful to us and for choosing us to use us for His kingdom purposes. There couldn't and shouldn't be any work that seems better than the one He assigns to us.

It was a wonderful experience to connect face-to-face with my fellow brother and sisters who've been in fellowship with God for long and are well-versed with His ways.

The Secret Place Revelations

I want to keep myself in the Word every day for some time as I don't want the things that lie ahead to affect my building of a relationship with God. I've to change my thought processes as well. Once you break out of the matrix, it takes a while to adjust to the new understanding of how things really are, and this world is nothing but merely a fleshly illusion that people are living forgetting about the existence of God. Some of God's sheep is lost and scattered. It's the responsibility of shepherds to bring those that can be brought back together to God.

So, this is my prayer for today – that God will use His mighty hand in bringing His lost sheep together back to Him in unexpected ways. I pray this in the name of Jesus. Lord, let it be so.

I'm feeling as if I've nothing to lose in my walk with God as God already does everything needed to bring His plan to fruition and has already bought us. We walk in victory in any case. Because God did all the work to buy us back to Him – and now we have to walk in His will and do His Kingdom work.

Page 29. Spending More Time with Open Ears

06:48

God talks through many ways. It has happened a few times that I've woken up with some a song lyric playing inside, though I may not be knowing the full song. And to hear the lyric or a particular verse once is one thing, but when it keeps repeating like it did today, I take it as a sign to look it up as it is drawing up my attention again and again. At times, I would just focus on the particular verse being repeated or highlighted and try to understand how it applies to my situation. But it just occurred to me that I should actually be praying for me to receive more revelation regarding the verse/lyric instead of forming my own conclusions.

I did pray, but the kind of prayer I prayed would be like asking a question once or twice and then letting it go irrespective of whether I received an answer or not.

But I want to now switch to what Adele was talking about. Sitting for long, perhaps an hour with my ears open to God while keeping my attention fixed on Him. It will also help me in learning not being so easily distracted and keeping my gaze fixed on God.

I want to write here the English meaning of the lyrics of a Hindi song that, I woke up playing in my head a few days back, and, kept recurring to me that day throughout. I shared the song with my younger brother and an Aunt as well who had come to visit me.

The lyrics describe our state and how we're fallen and how God makes a way. The words from man I've highlighted in red and black, the words from God in red and white. The song: Aye Khuda \(Lyrics\)

What sort of hollowness has taken residence in the heart.

O God,
I've fallen, I've fallen.

As I got separated away from you
I was looted, I was looted. (Context- It was like being looted of everything)

What sort of hollowness has taken residence in the heart.
Now to sin has become the second nature.
I only am the one who fell out of blessings. (Context - when I was in heaven)

O God,
I've fallen, I've fallen.

As I got separated away from you
I was looted, I was looted. (Context- It was like being looted of everything)

O God.. O God... (Context - groaning in emotional pain)

What a huge amount of sin you've taken along to walk with
As if wealth alone is your God.

Every second you spend like it's nothing,
In the shadow of sin you kept walking

(Unstoppable) like a flowing ocean,
You kept walking in your own ways.
Your own will you fulfilled every time.
You are your own culprit.

Chorus: (context - painful emotional groaning)

O God,
I've fallen, I've fallen.

As I got separated away from you
I was looted, I was looted. (Context- It was like being looted of everything)

Stanza 1:
Why do you attach yourself to this world?
One day it's going to pass.
Whatever you gather here,

The Secret Place Revelations

From your fist is going to slip.

Each person is made of dust
And in dust alone everyone returned.
Know that this is the reality
Why do you turn your face away from the truth.

No matter what desire you fulfil
Your inner drive won't come to a still. (Context - you need to stop running after your desires, and pursue Me, because no matter what you gain you would want more because of this inner nature you've. So, put an end to this now itself and look at Me.)

Your being will be erased
But you won't be able to fulfill the desires of this heart. (Context - because human heart always wants more. So, come to me not heeding the desires you gained from and in this world. Even when you die fulfilling the desires of your heart, your heart still won't be fulfilled)

Chorus: (context - painful emotional groaning)

O God,
I've fallen, I've fallen.

As I got separated away from you
I was looted, I was looted. (Context- It was like being looted of everything)

Stanza 2:

If you think that you're fallen
Take My hand, and get up.
I'm standing at the door of your heart
Let Me in and in your life. (Context - Make Me your own).

You say that you're surrounded by darkness,
Of your path I'm the light.
I took your sins on Me,
In My eyes innocent you're.

Show Me a face,
Have Me meet a person,
Have Me hear from a heart,
Which didn't receive a wound.

The Secret Place Revelations

Chorus: (context - painful emotional groaning)

O God,
I've fallen, I've fallen.

As I got separated away from you

22:37

Jesus - the KING of GLORY – all glory belongs to HIM alone!!!

So, is what I happened to understand yesterday a coincidence.

God always plans first and His Word definitely comes to fruition, nothing is ever a coincidence with Him!

Jesus is the King of Glory and the three times I've seen God, once as Father in my dream that I wrote about before, and twice as Jesus in a vision and in real, all the three times God was dressed in red and white.

I had a vision in the previous PG where I saw Jesus walking forward. As always, it wasn't expected. Then in this PG, once when I was walking back and forth on the roof, as I turned the other way, I saw a figure dressed the same as I had seen in my vision - Jesus, fully dressed from head to toe in white with a red drape on one shoulder, while God the Father was dressed modern and walking in swag.

And as I was about to march towards Him, He disappeared. This was a few months back.

23:14

Ways in which God communicates are many times literal. Note the one time attire of God the Father that I saw in my dream. I wasn't expecting that the same would repeat in a different dream from a few months back some of the events of which have already come true in the same order it was shown to me.

After my meeting with Auntie where I was showing her the bracelet with a heart and was eating with a table in front of me, I had gotten up, started walking to my left leaving the scene behind, and had entered a room that looked like a gathering of people and then I too had become a part of it. I can roughly recall I was wearing the blue floral kurta in that gathering. The next thing that I can recall that happened after the gathering is what I've already written about before and I was wearing different set of clothes, that I've already described before, in this next event that was shown.

I am feeling like a foolish person who has been trying to make come true one event of all that were shown to her, by revealing info here and there, not really focusing on the fact that the rest of the events that already came true did so on their own without any special efforts from her side and that there's an underlying order that needs to be followed by the events!! I need to rest in God.

It seems foolish because one doesn't try to force make come true something that is supposed to have been revealed by God, because one can rest being assured that the Word of God accomplishes what it set out for, and that what He has spoken indeed comes to pass with 100% certainty. So, to reveal related info to related people and try to manifest the Word sent by God would of course seem foolish, because it alters the definition of prophecy.

If someone sees a certain event coming to pass at a certain time involving certain people, but then the person tells or reveals to the people related to the event the things that are to be done, and in what manner and at what time, and they do as was told to them, is it still a prophecy then? Perhaps it is, but seems like a manufactured one. That's why I feel foolish!!!

But then the prior events happened without me trying for anything, so it makes me think that perhaps God already had it planned for me to reveal the info in various different ways like the symbol in the previous room I was staying in that I happened to make and it just happened to represent three different things at the same time. And then I kept seeing a rose's impression above my temple in this new room, and it kept recurring to me and kept interrupting me when I was sitting, working or doing other things. So, I made that too. Now, in this new setting of the room after we shifted the furniture around, that rose has now become a hidden rose. It's gonna come across as quite unexpected when the almirahs are gonna be moved.

The Secret Place Revelations

All these things that I happened to make, I was prompted from within to make, and it was only in the case of the symbol in my previous room on this floor that I realized much later that it actually represented an event from the dream I have been writing about here on this page and previously on other pages too. And then, the rose too was a result of persistent prompting. All these things are sort of unexpected for me because in that dream God just showed me what He did and I have since then been witnessing things unfold, some events already having been come true, and one being confirmed through these various different altars sort of that I've made. Seems as if this event is of major significance in the entire dream as this is the one that was manifested as the impression on the wall in that other room when I wasn't even intending to make anything similar. I was just going with the flow while making it without any particular form in mind, and as it started to grow, I thought I would end the impression by making it look like a fist which in my mind represented the 'fist of God', or could also represent the power that fist of God has, as to make a fist of God would be like making an idol which is prohibited and is a sin. And, again in this room, I happened to make a rose on the wall as I kept seeing it again and again, and therefore took it as an instruction to be followed and this too relates with the event that the symbol in that other room represents.

I couldn't have thought for myself such an event, but it's the grace and goodness of God because of which He wants and has spoken things to be in a certain way and therefore that's how they're bound to happen irrespective of my own thoughts about my worthiness. Plus, narcs keep trying to instill thoughts of unworthiness in you as they're led by demons and don't want you to receive God's best for you.

I've learnt some important things from my own walk with God by far and the bible study program I've been following.

And the most important one is to have unshakeable faith in God irrespective of how things may look on the outside. I realized that I still had the tendency to lose heart on seeing things around in the natural as quite different from how I expected them to be according to my own reasoning and what God had shown me. But, a few minutes back today I realized that it's God here we're talking about and who's the author of everything and He can be trusted with 100% confidence. This made me joyful again!! I don't want to be like Sarah or Hagar who didn't trust God and take Him for His word but went into despair, like Sarah who ended up making some foolish decisions in order to 'help' God bring His promise to fruition.

I rejoice in the Word of God and His nature and will not let my human reasoning and how things look on the outside affect my inner state.

I learnt this today.

The Hebrew calendar is based on the lunar cycle. The first evening the new moon of each cycle can be observed in the sky denotes the beginning of a new month on the Hebrew calendar.

Somewhere in the beginning of this year, I had a vision wherein I saw a huge silver-colored metallic '2' with a small blue and a small silver star engraved at the top curve of 2. I didn't really understand what it meant. I prayed and the only thing that I could think of was '2 blue stars', '2 silver stars', '2 stars'. And I couldn't get to a concrete conclusion.

Somewhere within the past two months, I went on the roof to dry my clothes during day and as I was hanging them, I saw in front of me in the far distance a blue star-shaped balloon flying high as it rose above the tree at front. Then came from beneath and behind the tree a silver-colored star-shaped one (I don't actually recall the exact order, that if it was the blue one first or the silver one but from my recollection, it could be the blue one that I saw first. I'm not sure though). And then came another blue balloon. And in that moment, I understood what the vision stood for. It really made my day!!

Sometimes God will show us sweet little things just to establish our faith strongly in Him - that whatever He says or has shown will definitely come to pass in His own timing. It was such a sweet surprise from God in the sense of interpretation of that vision.

Page 35. Why We Need to Live Up to a Standard in Holiness?

14 May 2022

God is the one who set the standard for His people to live up to – His righteous ways that lead to the way He wants us to live our lives and be a part of His kingdom.

The Secret Place Revelations

We can't use cultural norms and standards as an excuse to not live according to the standards of God, and in the end, everyone is going to be held accountable for 'his or her' own conduct.

If one is not living up to what one is supposed to, God removes that person from the position he was previously accorded after a certain period of grace. If God is mindful of His people living to a certain standard according to the role accorded to them, we should also be mindful of our own conduct and whether we're living according to the righteous standards of God.

In this world of devil, we see exploiters, molesters, and chronic sinners accorded with honor despite the shameful deeds they do. And they will accuse us of being too judgmental and picky or rejecting people for 'mild' or 'no' reasons when you have a huge valid reason to exercise strong boundaries with them. And then they try to justify their evil deeds by statements like 'you shouldn't expect the best'. But, this is not the case with God. Though initially, we may have been sinners, after we know Christ and are saved by His sacrifice, we've to live right and Holy.

God judges people according to their conduct and expects them to live up to the standard of what they're called for. If they don't do so, God will remove that person from that previous position and give it to someone who can steward it better. The right conduct, qualities, and character are necessary in our walk with God. So should we too learn to change our minds, and try our best to live up to the expected standards.

Though the world cherishes wickedness and sin, we're not called to degrade our own conduct. We've to be holy and righteous in the sight of our Holy God. Our situations and problems are not an excuse for us to resort to idols (things other than God) to make ourselves feel better. Though the situation you're facing may be very much difficult for you to mentally tarry through, you still are to live denying your flesh. This is what I have been struggling with as I found comfort in food to cope with and to distract myself from the prevailing situation.

We've to heed a deaf ear to those who excuse an ungodly way of living with the phrase 'no one is perfect'. God has His eyes on His own people first whom He has chosen to go out in the world for a specific purpose. If they aren't able to perform well, God gives grace and helps and strengthens too but if He sees that you're not able to fulfill very well what's needed, He will give you what you 'can' do amidst your circumstances.

Since we know the living God for real, we should be very much concerned about our conduct and state of heart in our walk with God. The world neither knows God nor likes His ways. It only hates Him and His precepts. We're not called to be a part of it.

And the above certainly is a proof and an answer to those who make claims like God allows disobedience and a lack of character unlimitedly for we're justified by His blood and therefore can live as we want. No, we can't. The above is a proof that God has standards set in place and will act and make decisions according to His perfect judgment and wisdom. Though at some point in time, one may have been strong or desirable for a certain role, but if that person fails to perform beyond a certain period of grace, he's going to be removed from that role. And this is how it should rightly be!

A few days back I went to a farewell party meant for my Juniors and had iced water and other soft drinks there. It reminded me of the vision I had a few weeks back the meaning of which I hadn't understood back then. The aura looked like that of 'celebration' by the way an ice cube fell into a glass of water. I thought what would I celebrate with a cold glass of iced water, or why would I party at all. But after that night, it makes sense.

All glory to God. God is not a liar and is faithful.

Also, recently I had an incident that showed me that I was supposed to be eating all this time because had I not, that incident wouldn't have happened and it hadn't made the required impact it made on that person that it meant to. 'No More Eating' holds for the times to come, then, just like the phrase 'The Servant Girl' does. Though I still am a servant of God but am purging my mind of the world and learning to coexist without getting myself stained from the world and hope to be quick in action in the coming future while being led by the Holy Spirit.

The Secret Place Revelations

The supposed 'Assignment' that I talked about in some of the first pages is related to a dream that I had during my time at home somewhere between 2020 and the time I shifted back to this city in March 2021. God revealed it to one or some of my fellow brothers and sisters too (as I got to know). And I just happened to call it an 'assignment' (though it may not be called that), because this is the first dream that I had regarding something God will have me doing for the kingdom of God. It had me laying hands publicly on the head of a short man on his sick bed and praying for his healing as I was standing behind him with my hands on his head. And after a while as he didn't get healed, I whispered something (a particular phrase) in his ear (let's see how it goes after that in the real moment). Though I know the outcome, I don't want to reveal it and I only revealed up to the point those fellow brethren know. But this is the first 'kingdom work' dream I had, so I happened to call it an assignment.

But amidst all of this, understanding this dream taught me patience and forgiveness because though things may look one way at a certain time, they've a purpose for the times to come. I learnt that the fulfillment of this particular dream plays a huge part in my own sanctification as I am learning to not be angry and unforgiving to people who're doing me wrong - that's how you get sanctified, when you don't get angry by your wrongdoers but are able to forgive them as you understand why you went through what you did. The understanding of it melted my heart today and I didn't feel any more hatred and anger inside of me.

In that dream, after I whispered that phrase in his ear, the screen to my right now had a change, while previously I had prayed verbally, then looked at the screen, then prayed in tongues, and looked again, but there was no change. After the screen changed showing the motions of a normal person, he got up from the hospital bed which was laid in open, and got down from it, and I was smiling as he was healed and now up. Then I moved towards him to my right, while he was looking straight. Amidst all this, I heard the sound of a girl's voice that said a few times, "Is se shaadi honi thi" (She was to be married to him). When I stood close to him, he looked away to his right with an expressionless face and then walked away in front of me. And then I turned to the other side, walked a few steps ahead and said to the people present there - 'God did this', after which the dream ended.

The Secret Place Revelations

I whispered in his left ear, “Jesus Loves You”, after which the machine to my right showed a normal variation of whatever it was measuring. I felt prompted to write this here now. And when I was about to write the above, I recalled that I had bought that t-shirt imprinted with the phrase ‘Jesus Loves You’ long back in A-16. But when I had bought it... I can’t really recall why I chose that particular t-shirt. I was looking to buy some Christian t-shirts and liked that only on Amazon back then – out of all the Women Christian t-shirts I happened to take a look at. Though now, there are many more styles available that I like.

While I wrote the above, I had a vision in which I saw Glory wailing silently with an open mouth. And then his upper body came close to me and kissed me. Please don’t cry.

Now I can understand why he walked away after he got healed, seeing the voices that said, “Isse shaadi honi thi” “Isse shaadi honi thi”.. He walked away because he was already set in his mind by that time that he will not look back as he must have already left me. And I had perhaps become a full-time worker of God by then who was now healing others through His Spirit (because I didn’t see Glory around in that dream). So, if they now want to chop my hand(s), keep in mind that I had both my hands intact in this dream because I saw them placed on his head. Perhaps they will want to chop them after I perform the act. This will only, again, show their selfishness and cowardice.

While I was writing the above, I heard in my Spirit the following lines from this song I’ve posted later in this book.

“If I happen to be separated (from you for some reason)
Never Mourn For Me..

Recalling my love (for you),
Don't Wet Your Eyes..

If You Look Back Turning Your Head
You'll Find my Presence There..

On every step you place your foot on,
My presence will accompany you..”

For Me...mp4

The Secret Place Revelations

God's gift of healing is given and meant for everyone and not just for one person.

19th May 2023 (Friday)

Later these lines were also highlighted to me.

The grief of my loss has been present in your sadness and grief..
The grief of my loss has been present in your sadness and grief..

My love has given accompaniment to you in every birth..

If you even take a birth..
My presence will be with you..

On every step you place your foot on,
My presence will accompany you

My Presence.. My Presence..

These lyrics too go along with the event above. Because not only the above event is like a birth for him, but even his spiritual rebirth will have my presence as well.

Page 39. No Substitute for Prayer and Fasting

21:34

With slowly getting on with my routine of food fasting and consuming only liquids, while also having been sitting for hours praying and trying to focus, I realized there was no substitute for this. This is something that we need to do if we have to get on our walk with God as He wants it and as we are supposed to.

I had never spent a lot of time in prayer before, but now I'm learning to pray with focus and also to identify the faults in my own thinking when it comes to God, like how we are to see ourselves - that we are not self-sufficient beings that can take our own decisions but we are reliant on God for everything like little children and therefore we need to be thankful for everything.

I was trying to wrap my brain around how great God was, how glorious and marvelous, and the extent of His power, and who 'I' was - a 'created' being, created by HIM, and who is UNABLE to create anything except which God has already given me the means and power to. God created everything out of nothing and we are nothing but His created beings, powerless in ourselves and though some may boast about some of the things about themselves, they are nothing, literally nothing without and before God.

We need to know who we are, not individual humans but created beings reliant on God for everything but Whom people have chosen to neglect and have chosen to make their own illusive bubble of reality.

Without prayer time and asking and seeking God to change and humble you and open your eyes to His ways and your ears to His Voice – where you sat for hours without hearing but yet still seeking and praying – you can't really get the extent of the real reality that nowhere resembles what the world looks like on the outside.

I am excited to see how I change with time. Because, today, as I was sitting at my seat at the workplace, I got a temporary mindset of, how it was to be completely on the side of God where you had no doubt in your mind, and no ill will, and no resisting thoughts because of spiritual warfare. And you clearly see where you don't want to go mentally as it would be wrong, the state of being in total control of your mind because you know that God sees everything and searches the bones and marrow of the human heart. I want to purify my heart and mind to that extent. Currently, it's stained because of the evil narcs I have been facing whose behavior was tending to make me think evil things out of a vindictive heart but I didn't want to have those thoughts. It's really the refiner's fire, where you go through undeserved abuse by the morally stinking wretched, yet you are able to keep a forgiving heart while not expecting them to change, and knowing in your heart that it's for God and His love for you that you don't want to be like the narcs that are hurting you. When someone abuses you for long for no reason, it is only human to hate them and try to take your own revenge to make things even, or become hard-hearted oneself, but not so for the children of God. God uses difficult circumstances to refine His children. And then I think of the words of the disciples of Jesus who while they were persecuted prayed to God to forgive their persecutors as those people didn't know what they were doing – that's something we as children of God and disciples of Jesus can learn from.

The Secret Place Revelations

God already showed me the extent to which these evil people will stoop, so I already know and can prepare my heart in advance and resolve to not let it affect me negatively and be like them but continue in my walk with God with the fruits of His Spirit. That's my goal for myself. I am not anyone's judge who will sentence them at the end – it is God. I can judge their actions, though, mentally, if they're right or wrong, and pray accordingly, but to give a sentence for the same is God's job. And I will not bow down to these people who are led by devil, and that's what God's Will is. Jesus' disciples faced a lot of difficult and trying times, but they didn't succumb to the pressure or persecution, rather they endured the beating until their death and that's how we are supposed to be – let God use the persecution inflicted by the enemy for our own refinement and (teach us to) not succumb to the demands of the devil. We obey the Most High God, not disgusting satan and his minions.

There's no substitute for prayer and fasting in crucifying one's flesh and developing a relationship with God.

Something off-topic for a while now - in the fulfillment of a prophecy, all the parties involved have their own roles to play – like I know mine, and if the others understand and get to know theirs, they should also prepare accordingly and take those steps that "God" wants them to take as THAT is His Will for them to do – like His Will is for me to go about a certain way and not any other way. Likewise, others when they've known and understood "their" roles – they should take heed and do that which is needed. Because he will perish without doing the Will of God if he knows what it is. Instead of going about the thing in a way one thinks is right in one's eyes and expecting the other person to follow in that, we've to follow how 'God' wants a certain thing done.

18:48

Today for the first time I actually understood the meaning of the helmet of salvation as a suit-piece in spiritual warfare.

Like in a war, the head of a person is the most important part to be protected than other parts as any severe injury can lead to blackout or death, so our souls too need to be protected in order for us to not be killed immediately which would be equivalent of eternal death in Hell.

The Secret Place Revelations

By wearing the helmet, we protect our main body part responsible for keeping us alive, and our firm belief in the salvation through the blood of Jesus Christ equates to our soul being protected from eternal death as it is covered under the blood of Jesus. Though our physical body may die, our soul can't die (end up in hell) if we are wearing our spiritual helmet. Apparently, spiritually, you can be killed mainly if you're not wearing the helmet and not otherwise. If you're not wearing your breastplate of righteousness, or carrying the sword of Spirit, or wearing the boots of peace, or the belt of truth, or not carrying the shield of faith, it leads to you facing many other difficulties as you – fall into traps of devil, get tempted or fall into sin as your heart is open (for 'attacks') without the breastplate, can't fight the lies of devil without the Sword of Spirit (Word of God), get unstable in your walk without the peace given by the Gospel (as you know where you're heading towards - eternity with God in heaven), get shamed without the belt of truth as your clothes don't stay firmly in place, and can't deflect the lies and other attacks of the enemy without the shield of faith. Therefore, the absence of each piece causes a lot of strife in the spiritual war we face daily. However, you can be taken out completely if you're not wearing the helmet (because if you don't have the salvation of Christ, and if you die in your physical body – you're spiritually dead too).

And I would just like to add a little bit more about the dream I had after I had made the house of the Lord in which God appeared to me as Father God as an old man -

How I comprehended that the old man walking in many many garlands was Father God was because He resembled an actor famous for his 'Father' dialogue in which He says that He is our Father in relation, and His name is King of kings, and I thought how true that statement is!! God is our King of kings and He is also our Heavenly Father!!!

14th May 2023

I wrote the above as I was led to after I saw a person – dressed in a red V-neck t-shirt – who resembled Glory to a great extent, riding a bike on the other side of the road, as he looked at me with lips perched in the shape of a kiss.

20:48

Some months back, when my Sabbath was about to be over, and I had rested the entire day, I saw a brief vision that told me that keeping the Sabbath was like obeying the ways of the Lord in Love. And whenever I think about it, it reminds me of His goodness and His nature – who He truly is and how He really judges the hearts of people. No one is as good as our GOD!!! He is a Righteous judge of everything and everyone, and deserves a HOLY church, because HE is Holy!!! I see this vision after I had kept the Sabbath as my reward for it, and I still cherish it and will ALWAYS!!!

Therefore, I would encourage the keeping of the Sabbath; though Jesus is our Sabbath and our eternal rest, it pleases the heart of the Lord when we keep His commandments. However, if one is led by the Spirit to work or do a certain thing on the Sabbath, one should go ahead and do it. And if one is led to rest in the Lord with focus on Him and do nothing else, then one should rest alone. Jesus fulfilled the Sabbath for us and He is our resting place, but He loves it too when we keep it.

Page 42. Y - My Testimony

00:59

It was towards the end of 2020 when I was watching a YouTube video on 'missing stars' and other things suggested by a friend. The video had caught my interest because of its seemingly scientific bent and the idea of missing stars just seemed hard to believe at first. But then I searched about it and found that what that lady was mentioning had indeed happened and there was no explanation found for it.

Somewhere in the middle of watching that video, I started seeing a white 'Y' on a white disk, and the 'Y' was glowing in soothing radium Pink in a dark background. I didn't understand at first what that meant. My first thoughts were: it may stand for God's name Yahweh or Yahusha. But after a few weeks, I found out as I watched more videos on the matter that it actually meant 'Nail' in the Hebrew that the Bible was originally written in. The Hebrew name of God used in the Bible, even way before Jesus came, consisted of 4 letters which are read from right to left and mean 'Hand Behold Nail Behold'. Even the name of Father God that they used bore witness to His future coming as Jesus when His hands would be pierced by nails. This is the way He chose for Himself to sacrifice Himself for our sins.

God took the judgment of our sins upon Himself by coming into this flesh-system as fully God and fully Man - Jesus. His sacrifice was an expression of His LOVE for us as He wanted us to be guilt-free before Him. He forgave our sins and still stood as the righteous Judge by suffering for our iniquities in return, so we can have eternal life with Him in Heaven in our 'new glorified bodies'.

01:12

After my belief in the Messiah (the God who saved us from judgment in Hell) was strong and I had proof for myself, I wanted to follow Him and His ways as much as I could. The same friend of mine shared once about 'Sabbath' with me in 2020. I hadn't yet read the Ten Commandments or even the New Testament completely, but I was on my way. I started keeping Sabbaths seriously from the point in time I got to know how they were kept and that they were given as one of the Ten Commandments.

The Secret Place Revelations

Towards the end of one of my Sabbaths, I thought of calling on the name of God and seeing if something happened (it was during the year 2020 itself). I started calling on the name 'Yahuah' repeatedly and continued for a while after which I started seeing a rotating globe covered completely with black serpents wherein the rotation was from left to right. And then fire streaks started going around that globe as if it was being destroyed. The vision ended there. I didn't know what it meant until I came across the ministry of Brother Jonathan Kleck on YouTube in the middle of 2021 - again suggested by the same sister and friend.

After watching his ministry, I understood what my globe vision had meant. The earth is home to the serpent race (or devil's race) and this system is not of the One Most High God who is above it all - the creator of everything. This system is headed towards destruction by fire at the end.

Well, I had to start working out (because of something God had shown me). And because I resumed it after many months, the next day I couldn't even move because of muscle cramps, though after that the following day I was better and could resume the workout routine. But because I wasn't eating anything but consuming only drinks, I started having pain in my legs and therefore couldn't walk properly for the next one or two days. Afterward, I noticed yesterday that though I had resumed working out, my muscles had started loosening and that's why I had started feeling weak and had even difficulty walking. Yesterday I felt as if my legs had become sticks with no substance as I felt weakness. So I ate yesterday and didn't feel bad about it. And today as well. I will start consuming protein-rich drinks so I can continue working out. I am trying to maintain a balance between physical work and eating, eating at instances when I feel like I should so that I can go on. But it's definitely quite constricted as it seems to me.

Anyway. I am glad I made progress in reading the Word and will soon be completing Exodus and moving on to Leviticus. Though I am going slow, taking the time to think about the Word and how it reveals the different aspects of God's nature and also looking at the notes that I have from the DA course helps in having an engaging and quite revealing experience of reading it. If I were just to read it in one go, it wouldn't be as much rewarding as it is when I am writing my own understanding and also going carefully through Adele's notes. It is certainly an extensive program.

Page 45. God uses His Body to correct itself too.

God will sometimes lead you to people in the body of Christ to witness with your own eyes how to deal with a situation that you're struggling with and how they're doing it better than you. God can tell you what you need to do directly too when it's the thing that would work with you. But sometimes He would lead you to actually watch what you need to do happening as someone else is doing the same thing that you are struggling with. In this manner, God uses His body of true believers who are strong in one area to correct and help those who are struggling in that area.

I learned from two ministries that 'instructions of the Lord are fluid and that we are called to be fluid' according to how God wants to use us in a certain situation. After I listened to some videos and had this 'fluid' statement stuck in my mind, I set out to do as I felt I was prompted and led one day in accordance with a vision I had previously. I had a certain outcome in mind when I set out, but as it progressed, some unexpected things came in between, and then I was prompted to go a different way and now had to act in accordance with those things. After experiencing it in my own life, I understood what the 'fluid' statement meant as I now had experience with it. And today as I was listening to another brother, he also testified of how God asked him to do something quite hectic which he couldn't believe at first (what was being asked of him to do), but he did it.

Now, for the sheep, who mostly only listen to the messengers while sometimes being led by the Spirit themselves too, the lessons such as above wouldn't be there, but lessons of a different sort are meant to feed their Spirit. We all learn things and listen to others as is required by our calling and purpose and according to the character God wants to develop in us in order to fulfill through us what He wants. I was struggling with how to deal with those who insult or hurt people to their faces without feeling any remorse or guilt but actually see it as something prideful. I was feeling a lot of contempt for such people because they did it intentionally without any regard for whether they were doing the right thing or were wrongly hurting others. But then I happened to watch a video in which I saw someone face a similar situation and his reaction to it just blew my mind and answered my dilemma and then I knew how I was to see the situation. Therefore in this manner, God taught me what I was struggling with and changed my character to an extent. If we keep rejecting others because we think we don't want to heap a lot of teachers, we may miss out on a chance to have our questions answered in a straightforward way that was meant for us and that God wanted us to witness as He knew that that is what would have really affected and changed us. Yes, we shouldn't heap teachers unto ourselves out of itching ears, but we shouldn't reject others too because we are too prideful and think we don't need to learn from anyone because we will be taught directly by God. Yes, God teaches and answers directly too, but at times He would lead you to those who are doing better than you, shed light on your shortcomings, and therefore answer exactly what you need to change. Don't reject such chances and corrections of the Lord. So we need to divide the Word of God correctly when it comes to 2 Timothy 4:3.

I learned an aspect of the Love of God directly from watching a fellow believer practicing it when even in the face of humiliation he maintained his demeanor and showed them the truth about their actions. I am glad I watched that video. We should always keep an open heart when it comes to the betterment of our own character and becoming Christ-like. And often God will use other people and experiences to bring about necessary changes in us. On the other hand, we also have to watch ourselves and make sure that we don't tear others down with our false perceptions and judgments of them. When we do this, we hurt those we are judging, and quick false judgment is not an act of love but of self-righteousness.

As I have been following some ministries, not only I have grown by listening to them, but I have also witnessed their own growth as well and how they correct themselves when they understand something about their past behavior, and it truly blesses my heart to witness that as well. It also leads to the development of a love-filled bond between the members of the body as they learn from each other and from God. The body is supposed to edify itself as different parts of it receive different impartations and revelations from the Spirit.

Page 46. What does it mean that the Kingdom of God is within us?

Believers well advanced in their walk with God may know and understand this well. But I'm writing this here for those who are at a stage in their understanding that I was at some time back as I was still learning to see things differently and how God, though being the creator of everything and King over all creation, is hidden from the knowledge of most people, and yet there are those who walk in close fellowship with Him and follow and obey Him.

The Secret Place Revelations

The Kingdom of God is not apparent when you look at the world with eyes of logic and rationality and when you think along the lines of you being nothing more than a mere mortal who will live for a hundred or so years and then die. Though yes, we are mortals when it comes to being in our flesh bodies, our inner being is eternal. So how is the Kingdom of God seen in this world which is running after more and more and higher and higher worldly status of one form or another?

The Kingdom of God is made manifest to us more and more when we receive God's Holy Spirit inside of us. It is the most intimate form of union God formulated for His children to be led by Him, and that's also part of the reason that it is written that blasphemy against the Spirit of God won't be forgiven (Mark 3:29 - but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will never be forgiven; they are guilty of an eternal sin. "). Through the sacrifice of Jesus, it was made possible that we receive a part of God inside of us - His Spirit, which wasn't there in us when we did not believe. After we believed, we entered into a covenant with God and He gave us his Spirit to dwell inside of us as His mark of possession of us, which also marked us for redemption from this world (Ephesians 1:13-14 13 And you also were included in Christ when you heard the message of truth, the gospel of your salvation. When you believed, you were marked in him with a seal, the promised Holy Spirit, 14 who is a deposit guaranteeing our inheritance until the redemption of those who are God's possession—to the praise of his glory. Ephesians 4:30 - 30 And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with whom you were sealed for the day of redemption.). When we received the Spirit of God, we were marked as citizens of God's kingdom in Heaven in our new glorified bodies (Philippians 3:20-21 - 20 But our citizenship is in heaven. And we eagerly await a Savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ, 21 who, by the power that enables him to bring everything under his control, will transform our lowly bodies so that they will be like his glorious body.)

Because of God's Spirit that dwells in us who believed in Jesus as our savior from this dying world, we now witness the spiritual gifts of the Spirit, which allow us to experience God in this place and follow His instructions communicated in different ways - dreams, visions, promptings of the Holy Spirit or even the voice of God heard through His Spirit. (1 Corinthians 12:4-11 - 4 There are different kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit distributes them. 5 There are different kinds of service, but the same Lord. 6 There are different kinds of working, but in all of them and in everyone it is the same God at work. 7 Now to each one the manifestation of the Spirit is given for the common good. 8 To one there is given through the Spirit a message of wisdom, to another a message of knowledge by means of the same Spirit, 9 to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by that one Spirit, 10 to another miraculous powers, to another prophecy, to another distinguishing between spirits, to another speaking in different kinds of tongues,^[a] and to still another the interpretation of tongues.^[b] 11 All these are the work of one and the same Spirit, and he distributes them to each one, just as he determines.)

In this way, those who listen to the Spirit as it manifests in different ways, and follow in obedience, are living their lives in communion with God while they walk on this earth. But those who are lost and only look at the outside, don't know the work of the Spirit in those who have it inside them. The lost ones, therefore, are blind to the Kingdom of God and they only think with a worldly perspective and look at things without the knowledge of God.

Those who walk with the Spirit of God keep going on their journeys as they're told and the Will of God manifests in their lives. Sometimes, their walk may have very much apparent miracles that can be 'seen' by eyes, but the work of the Spirit is not always visual and is mostly internal, though the Spirit performs many miracles too through His people according to God's Will and purpose. The Spirit of God is not seen with eyes, and therefore those who don't have it don't believe in it either because they don't see it (1 Corinthians 1:18 - For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.). But those who have the Spirit inside of them, not only hear from it and follow it, but also cherish it as they know it makes them belong to God and marks them for eternity with Him.

In this way, the Kingdom of God lies inside of us while we are on Earth, as we are not of this Earth but sojourners, each walking out His own calling as laid by God for the edification of His Kingdom.

Matthew 13:9 - Whoever has ears, let them hear."

Matthew 13:1-8 - The Parable of the Sower 13 That same day Jesus went out of the house and sat by the lake. 2 Such large crowds gathered around him that he got into a boat and sat in it, while all the people stood on the shore. 3 Then he told them many things in parables, saying: "A farmer went out to sow his seed. 4 As he was scattering the seed, some fell along the path, and the birds came and ate it up. 5 Some fell on rocky places, where it did not have much soil. It sprang up quickly, because the soil was shallow. 6 But when the sun came up, the plants were scorched, and they withered because they had no root. 7 Other seed fell among thorns, which grew up and choked the plants. 8 Still other seed fell on good soil, where it produced a crop—a hundred, sixty or thirty times what was sown.

Matthew 13:17-23 -17 For truly I tell you, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it.

18 “Listen then to what the parable of the sower means: 19 When anyone hears the message about the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what was sown in their heart. This is the seed sown along the path. 20 The seed falling on rocky ground refers to someone who hears the word and at once receives it with joy. 21 But since they have no root, they last only a short time. When trouble or persecution comes because of the word, they quickly fall away. 22 The seed falling among the thorns refers to someone who hears the word, but the worries of this life and the deceitfulness of wealth choke the word, making it unfruitful. 23 But the seed falling on good soil refers to someone who hears the word and understands it. This is the one who produces a crop, yielding a hundred, sixty or thirty times what was sown.”

Page 47. Jesus calls for Indian hearts to Love Him

Jesus is looking for hearts that Love Him because He is their God and creator (and not because of how good or bad their living conditions or circumstances are), and because they understand His good nature and why He created them (to Love and obey Him and His commands).

(Matthew 22:37 (NIV) 37 Jesus replied: “Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.”^[a];

Mark 12:30 (NIV) 30 Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.”^[a]

1 John 4:7-8 (KJV) 7 Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. 8 He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ygmVW99liOw>

It's hard to understand from our human perspective what Godly perfection is because of our fallen nature/understanding of right and wrong, but God is our standard to examine and measure our hearts.

A perfect God is calling for imperfect people to Love Him with all their hearts, mind, and strength, and He wants to make them perfect in His eyes through his blood sacrifice on the cross for their sins, and then later on work on their hearts to make them holier with time as His Spirit works on their hearts. (Once a sinner is not always a sinner in God's Kingdom, we can choose to stop sinning and become Holier as we get to know God more in our walk with Him.)

Hebrews 2:10 (NIV) 10 In bringing many sons and daughters to glory, it was fitting that God, for whom and through whom everything exists, should make the pioneer of their salvation perfect through what he suffered.

However, we are also called to be perfect as our God is perfect. This is to say that we shouldn't willingly sin and avoid sinning as much as we can, and run away from it. Matthew 5:48 (NIV) 48 Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

But when we do fall, God gives us grace and as we repent with our entire heart, He forgives us.

2 Corinthians 12:9 (NIV) 9 But he said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness." Therefore I will boast all the more gladly about my weaknesses, so that Christ's power may rest on me.

God is calling the lost for His free salvation through Christ's sacrifice who was resurrected from being dead three days after His burial. where in those marked by the indwelling of His Spirit shall be resurrected like Christ. (Romans 8:11 (NIV) And if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, he who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies because of [a] his Spirit who lives in you.)

The Secret Place Revelations

1 Corinthians 6:14 (NIV) 14 By his power God raised the Lord from the dead, and he will raise us also.

Earth is not the place where we live our true lives, but it's a temporary abode we stay at because we left heaven (as angels) and came into this system. Our true lives are set after earthly death, to be spent in one of the two places - Heaven or Hell.

Jesus is the 'only' way back to Heaven, because our sins are forgiven through His sacrifice, and when it's time we'll get resurrected through the power of His Spirit, in the same manner He was resurrected back to life through the same Spirit of God after His death on the cross. He came here to get the lost back to Himself to spend eternity with Him in Heaven.

Every soul that walks on Earth came from heaven and needs Jesus to get back there.

Acts 4:12 (NIV) 12 Salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to mankind by which we must be saved."

John 11:25-26 (NIV) 25 Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die; 26 and whoever lives by believing in me will never die. Do you believe this?"

John 3:36 (NIV) Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life, but whoever rejects the Son will not see life, for God's wrath remains on them.

1 John 2:23 (NIV) 23 No one who denies the Son has the Father; whoever acknowledges the Son has the Father also.

John 8:24 (NIV) I told you that you would die in your sins; if you do not believe that I am he, you will indeed die in your sins."

John 5:23 (New International Version) that all may honor the Son just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father, who sent him.

The Secret Place Revelations

1 Timothy 2:5 (NIV) 5 For there is one God and one mediator between God and mankind, the man Christ Jesus,

John 10:25-30 (NIV) 25 Jesus answered, "I did tell you, but you do not believe. The works I do in my Father's name testify about me, 26 but you do not believe because you are not my sheep. 27 My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me. 28 I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; no one will snatch them out of my hand. 29 My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all[c]; no one can snatch them out of my Father's hand. 30 I and the Father are one."

Isaiah 44:6 (NIV) The Lord, Not Idols

6 "This is what the Lord says—
Israel's King and Redeemer, the Lord Almighty:
I am the first and I am the last;
apart from me there is no God.

Romans 10:9 (NIV) If you declare with your mouth, "Jesus is Lord," and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.

Our belief in Jesus' sacrifice on the cross for our sins saves us from the judgment in Hellfire, which is reserved for devil and his angels who refuse to have their creator God as their 'Master' but want to do as they will without any consideration for if it's in compliance with the moral law and Will of the Creator Lord God.

Matthew 25:41 (NIV) 41 "Then he will say to those on his left, 'Depart from me, you who are cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels.

(Vision)

A few months back when I was in the other room, I had a sudden vision that showed my face on its side lying on bed with my eyes closed and having red eyeliner on the lower lid (Edit: I assumed it was mine though it looked very different because... who else could it be, and also because the complexion matched mine). I couldn't believe it at first. Because I've hated vanity after a certain time in my life. And I kept the vision aside, waiting for further revelation. Within a period of a few days, I happened to listen to the version of a song that had a girl with her lower lid colored red. The version is given below.

[\[Nightcore\] → Innocence - \(Nathan Wagner\)](#)

So, it was the confirmation for me. Still, I wasn't ready to go ahead with it because the idea just repelled me.

But certain things kept recurring to me within the past few days, and now it seemed to me that I had to go ahead with what God had shown me. Also, God brought some lines of a few songs to my attention again and again and kept bringing them up again and again for many days to make a point and make me understand the different ways something can impact others. So, I went ahead and ordered it (because I didn't want to stick to my way but His way). Today, I remembered suddenly what I had read in my bible study notes some days back – that God needs to have blood in His eyes to see through for us to come in His presence because of our sinful nature. And it made further sense to me, and it actually made me excited about symbolically putting the blood of Jesus in my eyes.

I received the eyeliner today and put it on. Though the first time that I had seen the vision, it was quite unsettling for me, now I feel okay with it, though I'm having a slight burning sensation in my eyes.

I just can't believe how can people put vain stuff on their faces and bodies - it's a form of self-worship. And the more someone had put shiny/sparkling stuff on them, the more repulsive I used to find them. Though I always tried not to judge them as I talked to them I knew that if I were to go ahead and act according to my true persona, I would definitely hate it. The friend that I made on the very first day of college many years back was because of the reason that she didn't look vain at all but authentic (only later on I would find her true colors and character - that she was an emotionally abusive psychopath).

A while back I remembered how God told Hosea to go and marry a harlot and bear children because that's what Israel had become (a philandering harlot) whoring after other gods, and so God told His prophet to go ahead and do an unholy thing that would represent Israel's broken relationship with God. So, I could attach some meaning to my case as well (but it is supposed to work in more ways I guess).

God told Hosea to do what He did because of His anger with Israel, but for Him to put the blood of Jesus in His eyes represents His reconciliation with mankind – Him shedding His blood on the cross as His way of reconciling with us by forgiving our sins and accepting us in His Kingdom. God looks at those who believe in His sacrifice through His blood that He shed on the cross.

Now would be a good time to cross-refer to some of the things I've written in the past. And also, it goes along with the Word given below. We're building on our God-given assignments which are like building an ark, for us, like Noah. The dream that I wrote about on Page 10 now makes sense. In that dream, I was inside a structure with animals of different kinds, wherein I saw some of them approaching me in pairs (which had me scared). Below is the Word that may be helpful for others as well who are called to build according to their own purpose.

Like Noah, You Can Build The "Ark" God Gives You Even If You Build It Alone - YouTube

The Secret Place Revelations

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=cGWP7D7c5JM>

For me, I know in which direction I've to build currently, and it's related to the promise God gave me; the fasting may be meant for both the promise and the assignment, but it's definitely for building up my Spirit Man (the more you deny your flesh, the stronger your Spirit Man grows - What Does the Bible Say About Flesh Vs Spirit? - https://www.openbible.info/topics/flesh_vs_spirit). When I'm done with building the recent revelation, God will reveal the next part, like He's been doing. He so far revealed three things that would help me prepare for my promised land (we need to remember that Israelites had to meet God's conditions and follow in obedience before they entered their promised land). The three things were revealed at different times and the last one was revealed when I had successfully incorporated the 2nd revelation as a part of my life. Now I'm working on the 3rd condition I need to meet. I incorporated the 1st revelation in my life at the very last though, when I realized what they meant (talked about on Page 48).

Anyway, I'm working on building my own ark and I hope it's going as God wants because I have only received good signs and confirmations from Him.

I hope my brothers and sisters will be encouraged by the video, and also by knowing the fact that they're strong enough to stand strong in the face of the enemy (satan), and keep building what God has given them.

Also, I've now successfully learned fasting from food for longer durations and living on eggs and drinks alone (it goes along with Pages 2 and 16).

The first of the three revelations mentioned above is described on Page 48. At that time, I didn't understand what it meant, so I kept it aside. In the second revelation, God showed me that with beautiful feet I stepped on the border/boundary of my promised land. It was relatively easier to understand. So after I understood it, I tried to make them beautiful as much as it was possible according to godly standards and with the tools God provided. I used 'godly' instead of 'worldly' in the last sentence because, in the vision, the feet shown were not 'decorated' but very much clean as they stepped on the border. It was much before the bloody incident that took place with my middle brother who is now much better and working a job with a lot of mental stability. When I went home to meet him after the incident, I also happened to find the tools there needed to attain what was shown in the second revelation. And I felt a strong urge to keep them with me but I didn't understand why I was feeling so as I was sifting things out to throw and keep while organizing his room. (Edit: Even the bloody incident with my brother was a move meant to push me forward in God's plan. Romans 8:28 (AMP) - And we know [with great confidence] that God [who is deeply concerned about us] causes all things to work together [as a plan] for good for those who love God, to those who are called according to His plan and purpose. – the verse was highlighted in this context by a brother) I only kept the one I liked the most and threw the rest. After I had returned to my place, within a few days (or weeks) I correlated the silicon socks I had thrown with the vision I had long back. So I ordered more, as I only had one.

The third revelation I don't want to write here. The first revelation meant that with red eyes, my promised land would be drawn closer to me, because the vision was close to my face as I laid with my eyes closed. Only I understood it later - a few days back, and it also represents the blood of Jesus as was revealed and confirmed by the Bible Study notes. The Bible Study program that I am following is also used by God to confirm things to me and tell me that I'm on track as I often find exactly in it the things I have understood within the past few days or just a day back or even the same day. However, sometimes one understands many days later the context of things one has read or seen and relates them with other things one has seen. And that's what happened with the first revelation in my case. I had the vision and the confirming song first. Many months later I came across the line - "God needs blood in His eyes". And some days back, I understood that the vision was related to it and that therefore I needed to buy it and put it on.

And yeah, threats from the enemy (satan) are as always persistent, but we as children of God are called to walk in the Will of God and build according to what He shows us. Satan comes to steal, kill, and destroy (John 10:10), and he keeps confirming his nature again and again.

He keeps threatening that your entire family will be killed, or this will be done or that will be done - but we're not afraid of him as children of God because though our flesh may die, our souls are saved by the blood of Jesus and will get to go back to Him after we die in flesh bodies. We already know that stealing and murder are what satan does, he doesn't need to remind us of that. We also know who God is, that's what we need to keep reminding ourselves of.

Apparently, the unfolding of the testimony of my journey to my promised land is also a part of my service/ministry to the kingdom of God. There's a HUGE miracle associated with the end of it which will fulfill what I shared with Blue (well, it seems huge to me but it is not so for God).

One evening I was thinking about God's promise, and then God showed me what was going to unfold, and seeing His timing of showing me that, I could understand that He was showing me that in that moment in order to tell me that if I really wanted it and was willing to go ahead with it, then what He showed me would be the definite end of it - wherein I would protect God's promise (to me) and leave this place (and in this way fulfill my promise to God in return - it goes along with the video on Page 11). And I accepted it at that moment without a thought, and God saw my heart. I was happy about it. It's a part of God's plan and purpose and would bring Him glory. Now I've understood that accepting that vision is my promise to God in return, after carefully watching that video on Page 11 again. Previously I was too overwhelmed by it, so I couldn't really watch it properly or understand it properly while relating to my case.

Things will happen at their appointed pace. There'll be a time when I would be out on my foot alone on road too, telling people about Jesus, and following the same is when what I wrote about my healing dream on Page 37 would come to pass.

Page 50. Standing with Jesus and Butterfly sitting on the White Ball of the Light of the Holy Spirit

The Secret Place Revelations

Many months back when I was still in that other room in this PG (D4), I had two visions nearby in time. In one of them, I saw the common orange and black butterfly sitting on a ball of white light while flapping its wings. I understood the white light as the Holy Spirit. And the butterfly I understood represented me. After some time (days), the other vision had me actually standing facing Jesus where I had two fairy wings, and both of us were dressed in white. Then the face of Jesus momentarily changed to someone else's and then back to Jesus. Later on, I related the two visions.

I just went back and surfed through the initial pages of this notebook and found that I had written about these visions previously on Page 8. I could recall roughly that I had written about them somewhere before, so I went to my Facebook account and looked if I had a post written about it. And though I didn't find these visions written there, I found the post where I had written my understanding of the two visions as Jesus wanting and willing me to come to Him 'Freely' and not out of fear or obligation. Later on, I had a third revelation (which is mentioned on Page 8 only), and then these visions made more sense to me. And now I can understand them even better.

Well, I will first write about this event from my school, from when I was still in class 1 or 2, which kept coming to my mind again and again and which – now makes complete sense. The vision from my memory of a girl named 'Sakshi' who was dressed as a 'fairy' wherein she was saying that 'I am a fairy.' kept coming to my mind. This memory was from a fancy dress competition in school when I was still in class 1. Her name 'Sakshi' means 'witness'. God created us as angels (fairies). So her saying that she was a fairy actually represents who we truly are in our inner essence - angels/fairies trapped in flesh. To be one with Jesus, we need to convert back to our original nature of being. This goes with the vision where I had two fairy wings flapping and I was standing facing Jesus. Previously I didn't understand why was I seeing Sakshi standing dressed as a fairy again and again wherein she was saying she was a fairy. But recently I connected the dots and recalled my previous visions from many months back and understood the context. She was 'witnessing' that she was a fairy.

(And in that fancy dress competition, there was a boy named Abhishek who was dressed as a tree and saying out "I am a Tree". This was also highlighted to me though I didn't write about it.)

The way to convert back to our original nature is through the guidance of Jesus Himself as we follow Him and in His Will in obedience, and at the end of our lives

The Secret Place Revelations

we will be resurrected back to eternal life with Him in our new glorified bodies in Heaven.

Apparently, this process of being one with Jesus in spirit is accompanied by the physical manifestation of me changing to looking like a fairy in the physical world where 'Glory (name of my promised land)' represents Jesus, which goes with the second vision in which the face of Jesus changed to that of 'Glory' momentarily and then back to Jesus'. This represents that when I have sufficiently become like a fairy in the physical world, this would also mark me coming closer to Jesus represented by 'Glory' (Jesus is also called the King of Glory and Grace).

Jesus has been showing me stuff one after the other in His proper timing about the things I need to do and the changes I need to make and also revealing to me in advance the events that are 'Nearby' in time, so that I would prepare according to those 'Nearby' events.

Anyway. Though I have made some changes in my looks which may not look 'Holy' to some people as the changes are glittery and sparkling, but everything I bought came with a spiritual significance. The red eyeliner/Kajal represented the blood of Jesus that I as His daughter, servant, and prophet has to put in her eyes out of my Love for Him and to represent Him and How He puts His blood in His eyes to look at us and forgive us of our sins. In the evening of the first day that I went to work with the red eyeliner on my lower lid, as I was lying on my bed, I had a quick vision wherein I saw a sparkling green eyeliner on the top of my eyes put in a winged manner. I could not believe God showed me that and if I really had to go ahead with it. Because I had never been a make-up person for I felt it took our focus off our inner selves. So the idea repelled me. But it was from God, therefore I still kept it in my mind and waited for further revelation as was with the red eyeliner. Then on the day of Raksha Bandhan when I was relaxing in bed in my home at Omaxe, I was happy as my dressing scheme resembled a tree, and I had now become comfortable with the red eyeliner and actually enjoyed putting it on as it represented the blood of Jesus and therefore also made me feel closer to Him because putting it on meant that I was representing Him. So I thought at that moment that perhaps I could go ahead with the green eyeliner too which I had seen in another vision. Also, I didn't want to repeat the delay I made with the red one because I hadn't understood the spiritual significance yet. So I went ahead and ordered the green one that day. After some days, I was listening to one of Sis Adele's videos in which I heard that Jesus was the Olive tree and we were branches grafted in Him. This made me recall that the sparkling eyeliner that I had ordered was also Olive green and therefore the sparkling green colour I saw on my top eyelid now made sense. It also goes along with the third revelation I wrote about on Page 8 where a green and black butterfly is approaching a cute baby who's blushing as she does so.

God's ways are higher than ours. And He is the King of all wisdom. Though in this phase of my life, religious people may judge me by calling me a hypocrite as they say that a servant of God is putting all this make-up on while she is supposed to go and do the Kingdom work of God in His service, I know that there's going to be a time when I would be out walking on roads/streets dressed in my long pink cardigan and with my yellow shawl as a head wrap when I would tell people about Jesus, and in the same outfit what I wrote on Page 37 would come to pass.

So, this temporary apparent outer fairy business doesn't seem long-lasting to me. In this phase of my life, sure this is what I am supposed to do and this is the sweet Will of God for me. But in the days ahead, there are other things that would take place. There's going to be healing of the sick and I think during that time period I would most probably be without any make-up as I saw myself dressed in pink and yellow and walking on roads in my flip-flops. I had been thinking that being a part of the healing ministry of God would actually complete my representation as a fairy of Jesus wherein I will perform miracles through the Holy Spirit of God. I know that if God has shown something to me (the visions of the butterfly on White light and that of standing facing Jesus), it is of much importance and that I've to take it seriously. Jesus has connected my walk with Him in the Spirit with a physical counterpart of my walk with 'Glory'. I mean He relates Him and I being together in Spirit in different ways by swapping Himself with His promised person to me in the physical realm.

While being half asleep this morning, I had yet another vision that made me understand further what the vision with the orange-black butterfly meant.

[Edit: I was thinking that even these changes that I made in my looks were equivalent to me giving way to God's righteousness and not my own, as I did things that I wouldn't otherwise do because I was repelled by them and didn't see any beauty in them. It is also a test for me if I would go against my own notions of right and wrong and go ahead with God's Will. When I saw the red outfit (that I am wearing today) lying on the bed this noon (I had put it there), I noticed what was written on the tag behind – Rebel Mode. I hadn't noticed it before. As I was thinking about it, I understood what it meant and how it related to the coming phase in my life as I thought about the event which He had shown me was 'Nearby'. He showed it to me so that I would go ahead with it in His Grace because I by myself otherwise would not have been okay with it as it would go against the statutes of God, though I would eventually be in a covenant.

The Secret Place Revelations

Then last night He kept bringing this song to my mind which stood for how quick the coming phase (covenant or otherwise – whether spent in a covenant with a human or being with God alone) was going to pass (good or bad) and that I was to live it to the fullest in the short time we would be having here, which would also be a testimony of how God can work in one's life, and then I would leave this place and go back to Jesus.

Religious people often think that it's only about what we 'do' for God. But more than that, it's about how much our hearts desire Him and His presence and Love, and how we cherish in that. That's why He didn't make it just about healing others during my short time here on earth. He made it about sharing a loving bond with another person as well. Though I love my fellow brothers and sisters in Christ, God wanted the world to see the physical counterpart of the union of Him (His Glory) with His church (the bride of Jesus), so that they know that God is about Love and is a Healer and also a warrior and protector, peacemaker and longsuffering in Love reflected by us being His 'Ambassadors in Christ' as we suffer in this place.]

Just checking in to write about yet another miracle that happened more than an hour back. I had received my set of black eyeliners today which I had ordered because of yet another vision in room no. D4. I could see a lady with a sleek and apparently bony face sleeping with black liner at the top and red smudged one at the bottom. So I thought that I should go ahead and order that as well since I took a lot of time to get the red one. And I chose the brand 'Blue Heaven' because it reminded me of me always looking at the sky above beyond which my God's heaven lies. It seemed to have a spiritual significance too, and it was there in the vision. I don't think I have to sleep with it on me every day, because that may not be good for my eyes, but I will definitely do it once (apparently today). Or I will see according to how God responds or instructs me further. But I tried it today because I thought I would get to practice applying it a little bit because I had never applied any by my own self until today. In my lifetime as an adult, I have done makeup only a few times, and that too others did it for me.

The miracle that happened was this: After two failed attempts, I could successfully apply the black eyeliner to the upper lid of my right eye. But when I moved on the left, I knew I couldn't use my left hand and with my right one, it seemed too difficult because of its positioning. Miraculously, as I started to apply it, after a thin application at the base, I could tell I won't be able to do it well. But my hand moved on its own and in two quick strokes, the liner was applied with the same thickness as that of the right eye. I just had to do the minor finishing details afterward. But the movement of my hand (or rather fingers) was so abrupt, that it amazed me. It was literally a miracle to witness my hand move on its own quickly and finish the job in two strokes for the eye it was supposed to be uncomfortable with. This was also a confirmation that it was God's Will for me to apply it, so He took care of it because He could see that I wouldn't be able to do it.

Around a week back, God showed me the top vision of a sky blue shoe and its buckle being tied. At first, it looked like a school shoe but in an unusual color. The vision was only until the front end of my foot joint, so I didn't know how it looked at the back. I forgot after a while how it looked exactly and went ahead and searched online for blue flats with a buckle closure at the back. I didn't find the color I had seen, though I found many other colors in a style similar to what I remembered from the vision. So I went ahead and ordered a grey flat ballerina as it resembled sky blue under certain lighting conditions. Then a few days back, I was thinking that if God has shown me something certain, I should go for that only, and not what 'looks' similar to it. So I searched more for the buckled flat. Also, the closest in color and style had gone out of stock in my size on a shopping site. I had it in my cart to buy later. I thought I messed it up and bought the wrong product and that what I was supposed to buy was now unavailable. But then the last time as I was about to start working out, after I had again surfed for what I remembered I had seen, God showed me the side view of the footwear, and then I knew that I had been looking for the wrong product all this time, and that it was indeed the school shoe I had first seen (because school shoes are round at the front instead of pointed), but in color - blocked sky blue with a block heel and a golden buckle fastening with the same blue strap. Then I recalled seeing a similar product on one of the websites and me brushing the thought aside that that was the product God had shown me, as back then I hadn't seen the side view but only the top view, that too incomplete.

I was thinking whether because I put the effort in looking for it, He showed me properly how it looked. I am hoping I will find it in God's proper timing. But because He repeated and showed it to me more clearly the second time, I can tell it is important. Well, I may not want it for me. But God wants it for me. So, I will go ahead and look for it later and I know I will find it when it's time. I was thinking that God is so good and peculiar about things He wants us to have, and in His eyes, those things are what would suit us the best. I found that such shoes were called 'Character shoes' by some brands, and by others as 'Dance shoes', and as 'Ballet Heels' by yet others. God is SO SO peculiar and choosy. Wow. He doesn't just choose anything for their children.

Others may also be having such shoes, but for me, they are meant for a certain purpose I suppose, which only God knows currently.

Page 52. God Touches My Heart Every Time with His Revelations as I Understand them

The vision of an orange-black butterfly hovering/sitting on a white ball while flapping its wings made sense to me after God gave me yet another vision which I hinted at on page 50, and after understanding what it meant I was so touched by God allowing me such an extent of closeness with Him in Spirit. I had the second vision related to the first butterfly one as I was lying in bed during the morning of 19th August. It may seem quite late in our own timeline as we may tend to think: why is God revealing the meaning after these many months? But each one of His revelations has a purpose and is well-timed according to His infinite wisdom. The vision focused on my lower face where the texture of the wings of the orange-black butterfly I had seen in the vision appeared on my lips which made me understand that my lips are the butterfly wings as the butterfly is hovering on the ball of light (Holy Spirit) and then we can understand how the vision relates to the physical counterpart as God replaces Himself with the Promised Land every time He gives a related revelation. Prior to that a few days back, as I was bathing in the washroom, I saw the upper lid of my light purple soap holder start flapping slowly on its own (it was quite unusual, it had never done that before), and I was quite shocked to see that. It resembled the flapping of butterfly wings and I knew that God was communicating something to me through it. Afterward, as I had the second vision I mentioned above, I put everything together.

And in the vision in which I was standing facing Jesus, I was wearing a white sleeveless gown and my hair were tied in a bun (the vision only had three-fourths of our bodies), and Jesus was fully dressed in white. I had two medium-sized wings that were flapping and both of us had our forearms stretched towards each other as we were standing close caressing each other's forearms lightly. The vision had my back in front of my vision, so I couldn't see the front of my face but I did see a blurry face of Jesus as it was in my vision's sight and I could tell that we both were happy and smiling at each other. And then suddenly Jesus was replaced momentarily with someone else. I understand that God has been showing me all these things because He wants me to understand that I have to treat the promised land in a similar manner as I do Him in heart and spirit, and that's why He shows me a parallel between my relationship with Him and how it is supposed to be with the Promise. This vision may not pertain to the present but will hold true for the near future as I become the fairy Jesus wants and is leading me to become (of course a Holy Fairy).

People don't usually think of God as someone who would be so enmeshed in and concerned about our lives, and even more so give us revelations in such beautiful and creative ways which may be hard for religious people to understand and accept. But God knows the way in which we would understand things that we otherwise may not have (understood). It also shows that our lives hold immense meaning to God as He uses us to fulfill His purpose and reveal to the world who He truly is – not an orthodox God who can be put in a box. His wisdom and understanding are infinite and His thoughts and ways much higher than ours. So, sometimes we have to put our human emotions aside as we rely fully on God's sight of our situation and how He wants to use it for good.

There's one more experience with God I had that I felt was quite personal and intimate and therefore I didn't write about it anywhere until now. But I think His children need to know the creativity of God and how He loves us, and the incident has been recurring to me for some time to be written about as well. Once as I was lying in bed, I suddenly heard a sound of a burst of balloon and saw the sparkling white burst of His Spirit over my head as it sunk inside my forehead. I guess God was so pleased with my character that He expressed it in a way perhaps humans would understand the best. I could tell right then that I had something special with God because it was Him who had been observant of my thoughts and who I am (not me of Him) and He was pleased with what He saw though I didn't know about it. I only knew the things about Him that He showed me or let me know. But He knew 'everything' about me and He loved me. God is our Creator who has loved us unconditionally. And it is for a reason it is written in the Word that Humans/Man looks on the outside but God looks at the heart. This experience with God is still another testimony – that God cannot be boxed in and is infinitely creative.

And this evening I gained further understanding of the vision with Jesus I have written about above on this page. The vision where I was standing with Jesus with our forearms together, the background was all sky blue and flowy, and nothing else was visible. And now I understand after further revelation that it represented me using the washroom as I bath during these times with only my arms exposed and the white gown that I was wearing was skinny and sparkling which again represents the same scenario as does the sky blue background. And then I saw the upper lid of the light purple soap case flap slowly some days back while bathing and it gave me a sense of wings and I didn't understand what it meant.

But this evening, I understood that God was pointing to the vision wherein my wings were flapping as I was standing with Him (apparently in water). Wow. God is so great. I feel so strengthened that I have not been alone but Jesus has been with me all this time there covering me on one side. (Edit: I actually now look forward to using the washroom as I know Jesus is there strengthening me with His presence.) It also goes with yet another experience I had when I was in Room No. D4. Again, as I was bathing I happened to touch a piece of clothing to the left of the tap unit. I was shocked. I ran my hand at that place again but could only feel the tiles. Back then I used to bath with the light turned off. But I knew for sure that I had touched a piece of cloth where there should only be tiles and that someone was indeed there (through the tiles? - well, God can do anything). It reminded me of the incident of the woman with the issue of blood, who touched Jesus' robe in faith and was healed of her sickness. I felt so grateful that God gave me the opportunity to touch His clothes (though it was accidental and I didn't mean to but He orchestrated it). I almost felt like He was making the Bible alive for me as I was going through similar experiences written in it. And then in the same room, I had yet another vision after I was done bathing and was putting on clothes, and as I was doing so, I was thinking that my love for God is not real love if I only love Him when my circumstances are ideal, and that I will not let this situation affect my bond with Him. Right then, I saw Jesus looking down from above with a serious expression as He had stood from His throne some steps behind Him. He was listening to my thoughts and paid careful attention to them. And when I started employing boundaries while bathing as I used my denim skirt, I saw Him giving me a thumbs up in a very humble manner which told me that this is what I was supposed to do. And besides that, I have had a lot of other experiences with Him. I took a photo of the spot on the roof where I had seen Him standing as I had turned to that side. He showed Himself up just for two or three seconds and then disappeared. Pray without ceasing means to be in continuous remembrance of Him as we keep Him in our hearts and keep an open ear to what He is saying to us and not ignore it.

Then yesterday early morning, as I was half asleep but had my earphones on and a certain song started playing, I felt something sink inside my heart starting near the end of my throat. It was internal and I knew it was God. It was SO real that it woke me up temporarily and I feel that it's very much important to be written about because most people don't really know who God is and they are only living in religion and grey areas. And later on, I understood that it represented this lyric in the song that had the person singing: 'I have sunken down in your heart'. It made a lot of sense to me as God/Jesus has given us believers His Holy Spirit to live inside our hearts. But God made the experience alive for me. It only shows His goodness and Love and How close He wants to be with us whom He has created with LOVE.

I pray over this text in Jesus' name. Amen (Indeed).

00:58

I was refraining from writing the aspects of my personal walk with God that I did above because I know the polluted and dirty minds of people and how they pervert everything pure, and I didn't want the aspects of my walk with God to be perverted and thought of in an ungodly way by those who are far distant from Him and don't want to have to do anything with Him. But it's not just about how I would feel if some people degrade in their minds what's pure, but it's about the truth about God being written and those who have the right ears will hear the right message.

The burst of the Holy Spirit was so bright white that it left me blinded for a few seconds as it covered my entire vision in the spirit and covered most part of my forehead. God can demonstrate His Love and how He is pleased with you in various different ways. And the way He chooses is often for a reason. But we as humans with our corrupt minds degrade and pervert the real outlook or perception of a certain situation instead of looking at and understanding the meaning intended.

The Secret Place Revelations

Within the past two days, I had a very disturbing dream at night, but I knew it was prophetic because there were a few events that matched what the Holy Spirit had already shown me. As that dream ended, I woke up sharply at 3 am.

I won't write everything because I know that I saw in parts and if I try to write everything I saw, it would seem quite disconnected because the dream was a shortened version of an extended time duration, like two other prophetic dreams, one of which contains the event contained in The Prophetic Symbol (Page 26) pertaining to my wedding.

1. Standing Against devil and Deflecting the Demon Insect Army

The other dream had me in an arc with animals towards the end of which I went to a congregation of people where I saw someone I perhaps facially knew and he was sitting on a chair while the rest of the people were either standing or sitting on the floor. There, I learned to operate a weapon that formed a round wall of fire. The weapon represents praying in Spirit as a part of Spiritual warfare. As this other dream progressed, I saw myself standing outside a building at the top of a supposed mountain hill where all the people I previously saw were locked inside safely while I was out with the weapon I had learnt to use and was using it against an army of flying insects that were approaching the entrance. They were deflecting away from their trajectory towards me because of the weapon and right in front of me I saw half of the face of a huge serpent peeking above the mountain cliff; it seemed as if he was hiding in war because of the weapon that I was operating. Well the person sitting on the chair of that building, if I think about it, most closely resembled a pastor I met last year in that other PG. And that building should be his church (according to my understanding), because where else would I learn to pray that strongly.

2. Dream Regarding Difficult Times Ahead In My Life

Coming back to the dream from within the past two days, I saw many events in it that will seem disconnected if I try to write them. But I indeed witnessed open bloodshed (slaughter). And towards the end of the dream, I saw someone come looking for me (don't know who it represented but he was not 'very' old), and I was going through the streets seeking shelter and was turning away from the homes that had a thumb sticking at front. As I moved further and above the streets, I found homes that did not have a thumb sticking out like the previous ones. And finally, I saw a lady dressed in a white saree sitting in a home with a middle-aged man and a woman, one on each side. Apparently, it must be their home. The woman was dressed in a checkered orange and black saree (as was discerned from the distance I was watching the scene as a third person) and the man in full-sleeved shirt and pants. The entire balcony was blocked by a thick and long aquarium of green water (don't exactly know what it represents), as the three of us were sitting behind that green aquarium (whatever it represents) with the lady (in white) in the middle with whose words said in a grave manner in silence the dream ended. She was saying that she had to pay a huge price for 'destruction' (and I am not sure whose destruction she was referring to), and then she said that he left and went away, after which I saw a wooden chair hanging above (could mean someone died).

[Edit (10th Dec 2022): Somewhere within that dream, I laid hands on top of a woman who was behaving arrogantly and out of her mind. I talked to her and said a few things to her as she moved about haphazardly with me moving along with her with my hands/palms still on her head. (Edit (9/2/2022): I put my hands on her head and said, "Tujhe pta hai? ki bhagwan ne mujhe dusro par hath rakh ke unhe theek karne ki shakti di hai." Somehow this line was being highlighted to me so I wrote it here.) After a while, she was smiling and was restored to normal. I (the one watching the dream) understood that this was the case of demon possession. She looked at me with love and gratefulness, and to show the same offered me some things in her palm - perhaps those were the only things she had. I looked at them and then at her, and saw how happy and at peace she was after being delivered, and then I took those things from her palm. So I know how I need to proceed when I come across this situation. There's a time your gifts get activated according to God's plan and you kickstart in your path of progressing the Kingdom of God.]

It's so confusing. But then the other dreams had seemingly disconnected events and were confusing too. And the one dream that I have been following and keeping a track of (apart from other events) only made sense as the events I saw passed in time in the same order I saw them. So things I see aren't always clear but as they come to pass as I follow the nudges of the Spirit, their meaning becomes clear.

3. A Word About Fornication

Anyway. Just want to write a few words about what constitutes fornication according to God's standards. Apparently, He showed me that I was guilty of fornicating with my roommate because she is an ungodly person who belongs to the world and I was being honest with her trying to make grounds for honesty which I shouldn't have. According to God, I have fornicated with her through my conduct. (Edit: In my dream, I was lying on top her and 'pleasing' her using my 'hands' which would imply my 'actions', and I was doing it during most of the duration of the dream, while she did it very scarcely and not continuously like me.) So I repented and have now changed my attitude. And then this is something related to the person He promised me. When I was in D4, God showed me in a dream that a white camel that somewhat resembled the promised person was lying looking half dead and thirsty with no movement whenever I looked down.

The Secret Place Revelations

And when I understood it and received further revelation (after I had shifted to this room) from God which I took as instruction, I went rushing to the building I thought I had to go to. Then sometime later, I saw a vision repeated twice (and many times afterwards) where I saw a tall man lying on top of a short-heighted woman. From my understanding, God wouldn't show me a random person doing this kind of thing, He would only show me someone who is related to me in some way. So I understood that He was referring to the promised person here because I didn't get to see their faces but the top view. I didn't know back then if God was showing me a present or a future scenario or something that would come to pass after the promise has been fulfilled, but I took it as it came from Him. But then according to God's standards, I was also guilty of fornication with my roommate though I never actually did anything with her and my thoughts are also in check with people, and whenever I abruptly get an ungodly thought which I know I don't wanna have, I take it as coming from the enemy and I rebuke it. So I can say this about the promised person that he is guilty of fornication in God's eyes - whether he is really doing stuff or not. And even if he is fornicating for real, he is accountable to God for the same. God has forgiven me of everything, so I don't keep any unforgiveness in my heart because that's what I am called by Him to do, and also it's not that God is unfaithful to me. Only God is called good and faithful and that's why He keeps His promises and though we sin and fall during the journey, He still has to be true to His Word because He is God and is perfect- that's the perspective we need to have. And also it's not that I have to find perfect love in this place (though previously I would have been hurt by it, now I have learned God's perspective as I found perfect love in God). Only God is perfect and we all fall short, and He gave me the promise that He gave me for a reason – a story that would make a testimony and draw people to God. I am looking forward to my real home in heaven with God because He is the one who died for me and is faithful.

We are called to not be a part of the world and not expect it to understand us or try to form a bond with it. I think I was trying to do all this with my roommate showing only my good side regardless of her behavior, knowing that she belongs to the world. When God showed me fornicating with her while calling out her name expecting her to be right and true in return, I was SHOCKED. I thought I would NEVER do such a thing and go against His statutes and am not even attracted to her (because I don't get drawn towards people in a sinful way, but keep a check on my dealings with them according to my bond with them and what would be the right thing to do). But it wasn't the act but the accepting attitude towards who she was and treating her like a righteous person which she was not – and that's how I fornicated and that's how it looks to God when we act as if the unrighteous, lying, gossiping ones are righteous when we ignore what they're doing at other times and we act as if they're all so good!! It told me more about how much I needed to change my perception and attitude when dealing with ungodly people because I don't want to be fornicating in God's eyes. My eternal bond is with Him, and I won't let anyone (even if it's the promised person) cause me to have a hard heart or a heart of unforgiveness which will cause a blockage between me and God. Since I found God, I have been feeling that I found ALL that I needed, and to know Him for real is such a joy knowing that He created me from scratch and even came into this system to get me back to Him and Has a place prepared for me in Heaven. And when I worship and sing songs to Him in my heart, He's so happy and I've seen Him dancing (in a Holy and graceful way – moves that are actually meaningful as He understands my heart for Him.) I think it's for a reason He gave me 'His version' of experiences with Him that I will be having with the promised person later. Because He is the first love of everyone and He made sure that I got attached to Him first before any other human, that's why He showed me and did what He did. He did it so that I would enter the promised land without a heart of idolatry being already strongly grounded in my identity in HIM and How HE has loved me.

4. Fornication With My Roommate

Dream (Room D1, Mid 2022): I saw myself lying naked on my roommate on her bed with us lying on the opposite side of the bed, with our faces below the fan. I was kissing her calling out her name and was using one of my hands to rub her genitalia to please her. She laid down below me and used her hand on mine too while calling out my name but with a lower frequency than mine. I was the one doing it most of the time.

5. Tall Man Short Woman

Vision (Mid 2022): A taller man lying on top of a short-heighted, short--blunt haired woman who had her legs spread, and moving.

People may think the moves of God that I wrote about on Page 52 as evil and unholy. But it is because they have not understood the proper meaning and context. The fact that I happened to touch Jesus' clothing when I was in the washroom doesn't reflect an obscene situation – in response to some people who did not take it quite well as I could tell from their response (in my real life, not the online one). We have to keep in my mind the fact that Jesus is our creator and God, and is perfect and HOLY and has NO sin in Him. It's devil who is full of sin and rebellion.

The Secret Place Revelations

Jesus was there to not only show me that He was with me as God and my creator but it was also a test. Even if I had not touched His clothing, God is still omnipresent and knows and sees everyone wherever they are - washroom, restroom etc. He sees everything and knows all our deeds and even our thoughts. The fact that I did happen to touch His clothing there only reflects the fact that He wanted 'Me' to know and remember that He was with me in my situation (as my God in whose will I follow) and that I should not lose my heart because of what I was going through. It was also a test in the sense if I would be angry at God for showing up unexpectedly in that space. But we need to keep in mind that He made sure that He showed up in a way that did not make me feel ashamed or embarrassed as the light was off and I couldn't see anything or anyone. However, if the washroom was well lit, I am sure He wouldn't have shown up. Perhaps He could see that I needed some strength to go through that situation. He knows the support we need and the places we are hurting better than any human. (Edit: Perhaps through the vision of me standing with Him alone with fairy wings, He was making home the point that I am not a prostitute that the people who have sent cameras to my personal place are treating me like, but that I am a fairy of Jesus and that that's how I should see myself, and that's what He was reminding me of by flapping the upper lid of my soap case when I happened to look at it.)

Even His expressions of a butterfly hovering on a ball of light and the burst of Holy Spirit on my head were 'Pure' out of 'Godly Love' unlike the fleshly sinful expressions that human minds are accustomed to. I can understand what God was conveying through those expressions. He could have used those expressions with a man as well to show His Love. But it would have depended on how well the person who is receiving revelations from God receives them.

A godly fleshly expression has two parts - the flesh which is used to communicate the expression and the intended abstract meaning or emotion. God is not flesh. God communicates directly the intended meaning or emotion. (Though sometimes He can use fleshly expressions too like I once had the sensation of a kiss emerge on my left cheek when I was very sad and at perhaps the lowest moment of my life - this was most probably somewhere in 2017). If someone is used to use fleshly expressions for fleshly gratifications alone, he or she is most likely to relate all fleshly expressions with sinful fleshly gratification. However, a person who is used to and understands the abstract part of the emotion or the heart intended, that person is going to look at the same fleshly expression with a different lens which is not sinful. Most of the times, it's our eyes that need correction. If God had given an ungodly person (man or woman) the same vision of a butterfly hovering on His Spirit, it would not have been received well and the ungodly person would not have understood it at all to any extent. So why would God use such expressions with those who will not see and understand His pure heart intended and will only insult Him in return? I love God and therefore I understand Him. People who don't love God will see even His pure expressions of Love and joy for us as evil. His burst of Holy Spirit on my head was also His pure expression of His Love for me, like the expression of His Spirit sinking in my heart. He wants a deep relationship with His created children and can use a number of ways to show His love to them according to how they understand things.

I heard two people around me in real life curse Jesus because of what I wrote on Page 52. We are sons and daughters of God, not His brothers and sisters. He has created us. The children of God are brothers and sisters among themselves and are supposed to treat each other like that but they make an open mockery of it. He doesn't promote fornication or adultery in any way, shape or form. However, devil is the king of lies and lust, and tempts people into sin.

This is for unbelievers who don't know Jesus - Everyone (man or woman) who has the Holy Spirit of Jesus inside them constitutes a part of His church. The collective body of the church is called the Bride of Christ. We can discern His character from the fact that He calls the entire church as ONE body as His bride and not many bodies like the false gods of false religions do. He calls the spiritual body of His Church as His bride because He is her 'provider' and is in a blood covenant with her to forgive her of her sins and has given her His Spirit so that she can be resurrected to eternal life in Heaven after she dies in flesh. In Heaven, there's no such thing as marriage as there – we would be like angels, and angels do not marry or fornicate or reproduce. They have glorified bodies. He bought the church to Heaven with His blood shed on the cross – when He has shed His HOLY and precious blood in such a painful manner and has formed a covenant with believers through it and given them His Spirit, He can call the collective spiritual body as His 'bride' whom He loves and therefore gave His life for.

I had to write this page because people around me were having false impressions of who Jesus is and they misunderstood my experiences with Him. My experiences are deep and intimate but not sinful and sexual in nature. Ungodly and shallow people of the world do not understand real things therefore they see filth even in a pure situation.

Don't Burn the Letters.

24 August 2022

19:57

Within the past few days, I had a vision, where I saw Glory in black (black t-shirt and black trousers) throw some pages that were in his hands into a round metal vessel below which had a fire with some other stuff burning in it. I didn't know what it meant, but if I look at a song that has been highlighted to me a number of times now, I understand that those pages were letters (I felt a deep sense of heartache). Don't burn what's true unless you're fully in truth and are not being misled by what you see in front of your eyes. We don't walk by what we see because often it's not the full reality. We walk by faith and we believe in what we don't see, being the children of God that we are.

(Everything won't make sense to everyone. But he who needs to hear what's needed will know what is being said.)

Fornication is not always being sexually involved with someone you're not supposed to be involved with. How God sees fornication revolves around trying to 'please' someone you're not supposed to be pleasing. For e.g.: when people worship idols instead of God, they are not indulging in any sexual activity, but still, God has called idolatry as being equivalent to fornicating with other (false) gods. This is so because, in their act of idolatry, people try to 'please' those other objects or idols that they treat as 'God'. Fornication in God's terminology stands for pleasing someone/something whom/which you're not supposed to be pleasing (not necessarily in an actual sexual way). We are not supposed to please demons and devil by worshipping them. If people do so, they fornicate against God (Jesus in Flesh). The sexual act of pleasing someone you're not supposed to be pleasing is 'one' form of fornication, and doesn't constitute the entirety of the definition.

That's why in God's eyes I fornicated with my roommate, because through what He was showing me, He was conveying that I was trying to 'please' her when I was supposed to not have anything to do with her because most of her traits are ungodly. Sometimes it can take a while or a number of expressions given by God to understand what He's trying to convey. In yet another e.g. of a vision from last year where He showed me a 'light' being of white color standing but whose tongue was flesh and was sticking out quite big and moving in a swirling manner which gave a sense of anger (as if something not so pleasing was being said), after watching a Word, I understood that it meant that I was 'judging' how the Holy Spirit was working. That was the 'tongue of judgment' which He represented by a literal expression though the act was mental. Likewise, me trying to make peace with my ungodly roommate was represented by Him as me 'literally' fornicating with her which had the implication of me trying to 'please' her.

We should therefore be very careful that we don't fornicate in any way with people or things, trying to please others in one or the other way when we are not supposed to.

I had found a word similar to the 'A' word that I talked about on Page 3. It was in one of Brother Jonathan's videos some months back. But I did not write about it in any of the pages here. Now he's released another video with two 'A' words in its title. The second word Aletheuo (Strong's 226) is the one that most closely resembles the word I saw written in the e-sword app in my dream. And Alethes (strong's 227) seems to be the Word that I saw because of the way it is pronounced (al-ay-thace').

aléthés: true.

Original Word: ἀληθής, ἐς

Part of Speech: Adjective

Transliteration: aléthés

Phonetic Spelling: (al-ay-thace')

Definition: TRUE

Usage: unconcealed, true, true in fact, worthy of credit, truthful.

After I returned from work, I could sense that it was not going to be a workout day. Later in the evening, that's how it turned out as I didn't feel a nudge to work out today (or move further in my journey towards the promise made by God). He too wanted me to rest with Him and spend quality time with Him, worshipping Him in my heart and Spirit. If during my time with Him, I happen to come across worldly people who don't know Him or more so don't want to know Him, I ignore them, as it disturbs the tone of my time with Him. Besides there's nothing worthwhile to talk about with those people, and God listens to our conversations. So I stay away from worthless chatter.

I learnt partly today to shut the world out while being watched, and be alone in the presence of God. It would have been effortless in the absence of these cameras and if I had known God before this 'camera situation' in my life. But God understands my situation and therefore helps me in developing the right attitude slowly to be still in His presence where the world is shut out and though I'm being watched, it's redundant and both of us are alone.

I often think that had I known God before I met those emotional abusers in my life, I perhaps would've had a stronger bond with Him because then I would've gotten to know Him before I faced all this stress and the unfavorable external circumstances I'm facing, and therefore would've known Him with a freer mind and would be definitely happier. But then I remind myself that God's love is supposed to work as an antidote to the mental stress I'm going through and that's why He showed me the things that He did – so that I would be strengthened during this situation because of His love. Though things may seem to get better for a while, they will get worse, and he showed me the coming painful times as I wrote on Page 53 (the revelation is given in His proper timing) like He showed me the future good times when I was in D4, and those times haven't yet come to pass (I looked thin in that dream). So, I can tell that the worse things yet to come are still far away in time. But He showed them to me so I may be ready and my heart is prepared in time, like He prepared my heart for the good times by showing stuff to me at His appropriate instants.

At the end of it all, I am so looking forward to seeing Him face to face, when He'll step down from the golden staircase and stand in front me in the same manner that He showed me in the vision in which I had two wings flapping. (Vision) The staircase vision was another vision that I had when I was standing on the roof during winter and was getting some sun. I was still in D4 back then. I was standing with my face towards the sun, and back – resting against the wall. Then suddenly I saw a golden staircase at the top of which Jesus was standing and I was at the bottom. He had His forearms stretched towards me and was waiting for me to walk upstairs. But I wasn't doing so (I don't know why, though). Perhaps I was reluctant because it was 'God' who was standing with His forearms stretched towards me. Then His arms stretched further and his hands reached down to where I was. But I still didn't hold them. Then finally, I saw that He Himself had come downstairs and that both of us were standing with our forearms together and He was smiling and seemed happier than I was. I was looking more towards the expressionless side though my happiness was slightly visible. And the vision ended there. I understood that the vision pertained to me meeting Him after I've left this place (sandbox of devil). At the end of it all, it's going to be worth it. The journey to heaven is going to be bittersweet.

Page 58. 'Nearby' : The Unbuttoned Unzipped Black Denim; Naked Open Thighs and a Small White Cow; The Promised Person in Orange and Black; The Pearl, The Watery Distance, The Glass and The Man; The Research Model Diagram

I am feeling a bit awkward writing these revelations from the past few weeks that I've not yet written about anywhere. But there needs to be a record because God wants it to be told as a story of love that people will watch, read, or listen to and be drawn to Him as a result. Many people know that Jesus Christ was crucified but they refuse to believe that He was and is God and is still living and that He is 'Love' and is filled with grace and mercy. People get bored by scriptures as they sound like bogus religious words to their ears because they are failing to grasp the underlying message of God's Love and only looking at it with specs of religious 'do's and don'ts'.

The Secret Place Revelations

So I will now write about the new revelations that God gave me and how I responded and what I did regarding them and how the state of things are as was shown to me today in a dream during the day when I was sleeping.

It was a non-Sabbath but still, I was drawn to rest with God that day in my PG accommodation. It could be two to three weeks back.

1. 'Nearby': The Unbuttoned Unzipped Black Denim

Vision (Room D1, Aug 2022): An unbuttoned black denim jeans with its zip open as explained below.

I was half asleep and I had a vision where I saw the part around the belt of a black denim jeans. The vision contained just the front upper portion of the jeans and nothing else could be seen. The button was open and on it was written 'Nearby'. The vision started with its focus on the button and as it moved away from it, the front part of the jeans came into the picture.

I woke up and I knew that it pertained to me and that I had to prepare according to this event. I knew that I would be nudged and led by the Holy Spirit when it would be the time. So I didn't just hurry and went along with B-Wax. I was waiting for more revelation(s) related to it. Nevertheless, I refrained from wearing those jeans until I was ready.

After some days (perhaps a week), I had yet another vision which was quite unexpected and disappointing as well at first.

2. Naked Open Thighs and a Small White Cow

Vision (Room D1, Aug 2022): I saw a vision that had huge animated thighs of a woman who was sitting with them open. The vision focused only on the lower half of her body and was parallel in sight to her thighs (the animated vision had clean legs with no hair). In the place of her bikini area was green animated grass. It was quite confusing to me at first. But I kept watching as was being shown to me. That woman kept sitting in that position and after a while, a small white cow came out of nowhere walking in between her thighs near to her bikini area, stood there for a while and started grazing (the size of that cow was quite small compared to the woman). The animated vision ended there.

I did not really understand in that moment what it could mean. But the succeeding day I understood what it meant. God was showing me how the minds of people work and what would draw the 'cow' out and towards the 'grass'. When I understood it, I couldn't believe that I had to put 'grass' in order for the 'cow' to show up. I recalled my past times with my ex-best friend and thought I never needed to be shown grass for me to show up. If I love and admire someone, I just go casually and spend my time with them and I don't play the bait game. I was starting to think why was the promised land so cheap that I would have to put grass in front for the cow to show up. Why can't the cow just come out and show up on its own as I looked forward to spending time with some people in my life in the past – solely for the reason that I wanted to spend time with them and I never tried to manipulate or deceive them. I was quite open and honest.

After this vision, I knew that I had to go and get waxed and put grass in front. But I still waited for more revelation as I knew that I would be led to do so at the right time by the Holy Spirit. I kept the vision to a side inside my mind.

3. The Promised Person in Orange and Black

Afterward, I had a quick vision where I saw the promised person show up in a light orange t-shirt and black jeans resembling those that I have. He looked at me with expectant eyes in the vision. This told me that it was me who was supposed to be wearing those clothes when I would see the promised person next. In some of the past events from a prophetic dream that took place in real life, I saw the promised person wearing clothes in an order that was shown to me in the dream that has the event contained in 'The Prophetic symbol' (written about on Page 26). In that dream, he just showed up out of nowhere at my right side twice in two particular sets of clothes as I kept walking forward as if I was on a journey in time. In both appearances in the dream, he was looking at me. Though during the real events, we never really looked at each other. This was a slight detour from what I intended to write on this page, but I wrote it to describe how literal the reality God shows to me is. In this vision, where he was dressed in orange and black, again, it seemed as if he had shown himself up out of nowhere and it looked unexpected and the vision was momentary. So now I knew the clothes that I was to wear. I had already told the Salon's aunty that I would be coming to her within a few days to get waxed.

Yesterday, because of an unexpected function adjacent to my PG where I was supposed to be meeting Glory, I went ahead with the Bikini waxing part (because of the 'Nearby' vision above) when I went to the Salon to get my parcel which was delivered there. I covered my face because of the cameras and was feeling quite embarrassed afterward (because of being telecasted live by the evil bullies) and though I didn't have any emotional reactions while the Salon Aunty was waxing me, I was teary-eyed later.

Yesterday, nothing of the sort that I was expecting happened. (Edit: However, when I went out wearing my set of light orange and black clothes at night, I came across what was shown to me in that momentary vision of the promised person showing up in light orange and black, though the 'button' vision I wrote about didn't come to pass and I could tell later that it was also not the time because of the surroundings and aura of the environment.) But today, when I was sleeping, God showed me in a dream the current state of the situation.

4. The Pearl, The Watery Distance, The Glass and The Man

Dream: In this dream, there was a huge shell of a pearl (the size of a chair perhaps) inside which instead of a pearl was a woman's genitalia (Edit: God compared it to a pearl because He saw it pure in His sight as the woman didn't just go throwing herself off on random people and had strict boundaries in her life which she knew she would only give up for a person worthy in character with whom she would share a lasting bond, and God saw it and loved her for the same). In my vision in that dream, to the left of that 'symbolic pearl' stood a man slightly bent on the pearl with his head and hands inside the open shell (Edit: The man was wearing a white striped shirt and what looked like grey pants as bottoms). There was a side narration being voiced out in a serious tone alongside it. The voice said that the man was supposed to stay close to the pearl (as was being shown). In the dream, the man then got (forced) drawn away as the space between him and the pearl got filled with bubbles and water and a glass wall appeared separating the waters and the man. The man was sticking to the glass and looking inside, and as the separation happened the voice said that the man was forced out because of degradation of mind, and pride (which led to him being unable to access the pearl and only being able to watch it from a distance). This made sense to me later during the day.

Anyway. Writing all of it is also a part of the process. It's as intriguing and baffling as the scene in the movie 'The Matrix' where Neo goes to meet the Oracle and she tells him to not worry about the vase (which he was about to break), but because of Oracle's mention of the vase, he ends up looking at it and breaking it. The Oracle then asks him if he was wondering how she knew that he was going to break it and that the more important question was if he had still broken it had she not mentioned it. In the same sense, if God didn't give me the revelations that He did, which made me take certain steps that in turn led to the fulfillment of what He had shown me, would the things He had shown me still have manifested? This is how God works, beyond our comprehension. Actually, He already knows the choices we are going to make as He foresees the future and therefore reveals things to us according to His infinite wisdom and foresightedness.

Additional Comments:

It's already 1:08 am (the new day is already here). I was practicing applying winged eyeliner on my eyes today as I want to be quick when I have to go to work. I successfully did the job but it took more than easily 30 minutes. But when I tried later this night after the workout, I was quicker (10-15 minutes or so). I will be even cleaner and quicker in applying it the next time as I've learned some helpful strategies.

The Secret Place Revelations

5. The Research Model Diagram

Also, I completed the Model Diagram for my paper on Friday, and it, and something I read somewhere else (on Thursday), made me realize that even making the model diagram was prophetic, as according to what God has shown me, an event will happen when a certain condition is met. (Edit: I referred to it on Page 44 as the reason for having to start to work out and implement 'No More Eating'. Though I eat sometimes, it's quite lesser than before. But I have been eating properly for a day after the waxing accident. Now that I feel better, I can resume the 'No More Eating' regime. I interpreted it later as No 'More' Eating, where I don't have to eat more but can eat only reasonable amounts. Also, for a few days, I have been thinking that it goes along with 'Resource Budgeting' - my paper's model. I have to make a body model based on the budgeting of resource. All of it fits together.) The vision that He showed me was much like a 'model's' schematic of the middle body in X-Ray vision. Now I have the schematic that I have to create in real life. (Edit: If He showed it to me, I am certain that it will manifest as I continue working towards it.) Like I have created the model diagram in my research work, I have to complete the model diagram of how I am supposed to look in my life too, without which He is not going to pass me into the event He showed me. Creating the 'model' diagram is necessary to pass the review (need to work out consistently for that and lose a substantial amount of weight). How prophetic and similar the situation. I will complete the diagram in His proper and appointed timing.

Page 59. When Jesus Placed His Hand On My Knee

20:36

On the night of the 30th of this month (yesterday), I was having a dream where I was alone in a room and it was almost dark, and I could feel a demonic presence there - the same sensation that I always had whenever I sensed it previously - filled with mental heaviness where it is difficult even to breathe and also to pray. I began trying to pray, and it was hard to utter out words in that dream. I saw a figure in white flash twice as it moved around quite quickly in the dream. I knew it was Jesus. As I said, "Father Yahuah" as the beginning part of my prayer, I felt a hand come from beneath as it placed itself on my knee near the end of the bed towards the House of the Lord, and it woke me up. That particular night I had my orange exercise mat laid on the floor in front of the House of the Lord as I had thought I would work out in the morning. In that dream, I was filled with fear, and seeing the figure passing by quickly in that dream reassured me that Jesus was near. But I knew I had to pray if I had to fight the demonic presence or oppression. As I started praying and had just finished uttering with much difficulty "Father Yahuah", I felt someone place three-fourth of the length of their fingers (pressed together) on my knee which woke me up and as I gained consciousness out of that dream, I could still feel the hand as I was making the transition from the spiritual dream to the physical tangible world. The hand was there for some milliseconds further after I had woken up which told me that the touch was real. It led me out of the dream and made itself known to me.

I didn't understand the meaning and significance of it at that moment. But today I did as I read the Verse of the Day (in my email). It often delivers to me what I need to hear and know and something that relates to my situation. The Verse was this: "Come, let us worship and bow down. Let us kneel before the Lord our maker, for he is our God. We are the people he watches over, the flock under his care. If only you would listen to his voice today!" I understood that Jesus was telling me to bow down and pray as He called my knee to the orange mat that was spread on the floor. It was like the touch of a hand whose fingers reached you from below. So I understood today that He was communicating to me that He was there on the mat and that that's where I am supposed to sit, and be on my knees and pray. If I had understood this yesterday, I would have done it. But after I was woken up by the touch of that hand, I tried to fall asleep again. After a while, I saw the fire flickering in the House of the Lord which made me curious to look inside and when I did, the entire base of the candle holder was on fire and it was reaching out high. I made a video of it until it died down and then I read a chapter in Leviticus. When I woke up, I was still feeling a bit scared, but after watching the fire in the House of the Lord and reading the Word laying on the mat I felt good and suddenly felt sleepy as I finished that part of Leviticus. I knew then that that was what I was supposed to do as I was now suddenly sleepy while previously I couldn't sleep, and was thinking about what should I do as I couldn't sleep. Because reading that part of Leviticus kept recurring to me, I went ahead and read it while being on the orange mat, and when I was done, sleep suddenly took over me, and I went to bed.

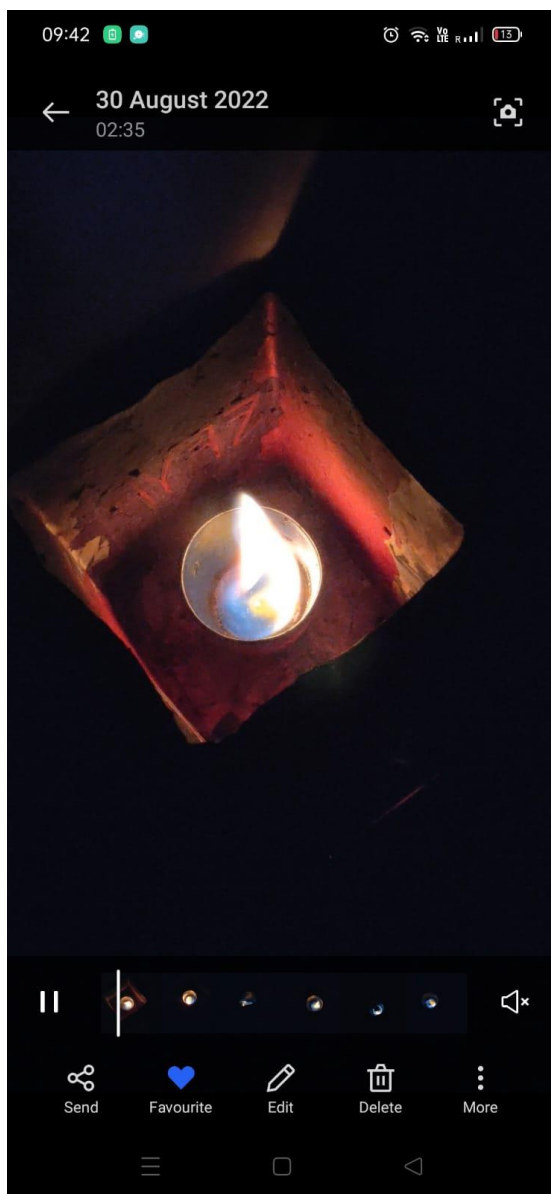

Today as I understood the meaning of the touch of that hand, I was so touched by God's presence and the ways He shows up to His children and cares for them.

Page 60. God Sees the Heart and is Graceful but He Doesn't Make Exceptions

03 September 2022

16:57

A few days back, a scene from a movie was flashed to me which had the actress spray some liquid on the actor because he was asking her to do something immoral publicly. I did not really understand at that moment that why was that scene being highlighted to me. Yesterday, someone () behaved in a certain manner in my real life. Still, I did not understand it. Today a scene from a Hindi song was being highlighted to me repeatedly along with a phrase being said by someone, and the phrase had the same immoral thing that the girl in the first scene mentioned on this page was told to do. It was then that I understood what it all meant, and I was wondering if I was really supposed to do that. I knew it wasn't Godly and also that it wasn't God telling me to do that thing but the Spirit was revealing to me things of another mind as the middle man. As I was thinking about the act in the Hindi song and the phrase, after a while, the Holy Spirit highlighted to me the spray vision again. This told me that that was what I was supposed to do if confronted with such a situation. However, when I was watching the Hindi song, I had a worship song playing along with – 'He Will Hold Me Fast'.

The two videos below were added on Oct 27th, 2024:

Shane & Shane: He Will Hold Me Fast

The Secret Place Revelations

This reminded me of yet another vision with Jesus that went along with the lyrics (and we have to keep in mind that Jesus replaces Himself with the promised person when He is revealing something to me). (Edit: In that vision, I was dressed in orange and black.) And then came to my mind the dream written about on Page 58 which had a person drawn away from the symbolic pearl because of 'degradation of mind, and pride'. Everything is now connected. When a person who was supposed to be close to the symbolic pearl and 'hold the other person fast' behaves in an immoral manner like in the spray movie scene, then the other person (me) can respond in a similar manner as the girl did using the spray, or rather – the one with a degraded mind, and pride, would be drawn (forced) away (situationally, circumstantially, or literally too – if God wants to display His Glory too apparently) with a wall of water (goes together with the spray in the movie scene highlighted in the vision) as was shown in the dream.

I have to be fairy-like, while the promised person has to be Jesus-like. Of course, both of us are going to be missing the mark, but God's grace catches us and keeps us firm in His hands. (I have to be Jesus-like too because I am part of His body and am bought by His blood, but the fairy wings vision tells us the areas we need to focus on specifically individually. Resembling fairy looks is a part of my journey towards the promised land, while resembling the character of Jesus constitutes the walk of the promised person.)

This is a journey of transformation, and I am going to record it here.

Page 61. Why I started Writing Here

18:13

When I was in D1, I had a quick vision where I saw a short line being typed in what looked like the Notebook App. I was able to identify the App because I had used it previously as a part of self-healing and expression after I had a 'what seemed devastating at that moment' experience with a reprobate who worshipped devil (back in those days, I used to be an atheist).

Anyway, the line that I saw being written went along with 'not feeling well' (can't recall exactly). I couldn't understand the meaning of that vision. But then after some days, because I was reminded of the Notebook App and because of me having walked further ahead with God, I thought it would be good to write about some things. I can remember writing a page (I deleted some of its contents afterward) where I had written how I wasn't feeling well at all and that that day I felt pain in my entire body. After I had written most of what I had to, I recalled the vision and understood that that page was what the vision meant. I was supposed to be writing that. Additionally, in that vision, the line that was typed was deleted right afterward – exactly what happened too. I wrote how I was not feeling well, and after writing a long related paragraph, I deleted the entire thing because I found it too negative and soul-sucking. So, I understood that vision later on.

The second vision that followed some weeks later related to Notebook had 'I love you.' being typed on it and the line stayed there and the vision ended. And today, suddenly, I had further revelation related to that second vision. When we write our true feelings about God, it is like writing a letter of love to Him. That's why He showed me the second vision. Though the first vision had me writing and complaining about my own suffering, the writing developed later in the direction of who God is and how I got to know Him and have loved Him (and the ways He has revealed Himself to me). When I had that vision, I understood that God wanted me to write it here, in response to which I wrote my own version of it towards the end of Page 19.

The line in the first vision was 'I can't take it anymore..', and right after it was written, it was deleted. And this line was what I wrote on that page also adding more details with it, and after I had written a long page, I deleted that entire thing.

Anyway. The third revelation I was talking about before leaving has Sis Adele in it. But first I need to write an incident from my past in middle school. For the past few years, I had been quite heartbroken and angry at myself for hurting a past ex-friend long back in School whose Hindi name meant 'Worship' in English. After the experience with that reprobate I mentioned at the beginning of this page, I understood how Worship felt after I left her because I couldn't say 'No' to some other girl who came crying to me asking me to sit with her because her best friend had broken up with her. I didn't want to leave Worship but I felt a lot of pressure as that other girl was the popular girl and most people obeyed her as she was a bit on the narcissistic and controlling spectrum (yet she was respected by the elite people of the school because she was consistently one of the toppers). I couldn't tell her a 'No' because she came crying to me (it was back in perhaps 6th or 7th class in middle school). I took my bag from my seat where I was sitting with Worship and went with this other girl to sit with her as she had chosen me as her new best friend by herself (circumstantially though). I looked back at Worship sitting at our bench towards the end of the class and there she was with her head down on the desk and I could tell that she was crying. I felt terrible. I didn't think much about it after some days as I was now forming a bond with this new girl. But still, whenever I happened to come across Worship, she wouldn't even look at me (not because she was mad but because she was deeply hurt), and another friend of mine (Monica) often told me that though I may have found a new best friend in that popular girl, Worship still considered me alone as her best friend. This was the situation even after a few years had passed since I had left Worship. Though I was told of her situation by Monica, I always brushed it aside and thought that why couldn't just worship be happy and focus on her work and the things she has to do? Why is she thinking about me and wasting her time? Why can't she just let it go like I have? I never had the guts to tell her that I didn't want to leave her but did so under pressure, while she was hurting and had me alone set up at the place of her best friend in her mind. I saw it as a valuable thing that she had given me but at the same time, I used to think that she shouldn't be just 'that' committed (in a sense) to me. I let go of her. And then in 2016, when I was repeating some Masters' papers, I met the reprobate and was left suddenly out of nowhere and wasn't given any explanation. In my mourning process, I was reminded of Worship and I finally understood her pain. She had that (quality) in her even when she was that young. I saw how I had left her suddenly and didn't give her any explanations, and how she suffered for years and only saw me alone as her best friend. I was heartbroken when I understood what I had done to her. One late evening, as I was returning from work and was in a common cab, I remember thinking of her and how she was crying alone with her head down on that desk with no one to comfort her. And I couldn't hold back my tears. I wept and wept. I asked God for forgiveness. I knew that God had judged me rightly through that reprobate (though he wasn't a child in 6th class, he was a full-grown man).

Though I had repented before God of how I treated Worship, I still carried a burden of it somewhere in my heart. I just couldn't make myself forgive me. I saw how similar our situations were, mine and Worship's. Worship had lost her father long back when she was still a toddler and lived with her mother and brother. She even took me to her home once after school as we often returned together after it was over. She did not share a close friendly bond with any other person besides me and her family, and I didn't understand it during my time with her. I was special to her. When I met the reprobate, I had spent many years feeling like living in the absence of a mother (never had a good bonding with my step-mother), and had only a few people as my friends. I gave him the 'special' spot like Worship had given me. When I was left abruptly, it was much like what she went through. Both of us formed a bond with another person (Worship with me, and I with that reprobate) in a sense of depth that was a result of our lack in some other area, and when that person failed to act according to the requirements of that spot, it wasn't the bond that was shattered, but the source that gave rise to that depth was wounded.

The Secret Place Revelations

I couldn't just happen to forgive myself for not understanding Worship at that moment (but then I was also a middle schooler and didn't understand the way she got attached to me because of her nature and family situation). Then it was one of those (moonlit) nights that I was going out at the same time to receive God's promise (I didn't know back then that I wouldn't be receiving it at that time but that I was making spiritual grounds for receiving it in the future). That night, I had returned after making some rounds on the street around my PG, and I was sitting on my bed. I then had a vision where I saw Sis Adele dressed in a Green Indian Kurta and she was performing the act of 'worship'. The vision was repeated to me many times. I did not understand what it meant, again. But today I suddenly received more revelation about it. God was telling me that He has not only forgiven me but also has someone in the body of Christ who actually worships the 'One True God' and that she is my new version of the lost friend in Worship. So I can let go of the Worship that I hurt and lost in class 6th. Also, Worship was a good person but she followed the false religion followed by her family and worshipped a form of devil. And God was reassuring me that I am now with people who actually worship Him and that now I know them. I think He may have represented Worship by a certain member of the body of Christ because He wanted it to be personal and therefore give me the healing I needed so that I could forgive myself, and also because Sis Adele's ministry is what I have been following diligently for some years now and have happened to be boosted in my walk with God because of it. God healed that spot in my heart and I no longer have to carry that burden.

19:48

Interestingly, the name of the girl who came to me crying relates to excellence and beauty, while the name of her best friend who left her meant 'Glory'. Glory left 'beauty and excellence' which made her come to me crying, because of which I left Worship and got separated from the one who truly loved me. Isn't this the same as what happened to us? God of (Glory) cast devil (who was once known for his beauty and excellence) out of heaven, and devil made us leave Worship (of our Self-Existent Eternal Creator – the one who has loved us truly and perfectly). devil lost his glory and, in turn, made us leave Worship (our True Love - Beloved God).

--> My Heart is touched; the weather is changed and Everything seems Beautiful.

Whenever God's Heart is touched by something that I'm thinking, or have said, or a certain way in which I've behaved, He plays these lines to me. I understood it after a while. The first time He played them to me was many months back.

He was touched when I stopped being compliant with my roommate's devices and was direct and straightforward.

The message is that it touches God's heart when we follow in His ways of righteousness and in alignment with His Will.

Page 63. Vision of a Demonic Army

21:33

I had this vision last year before I shifted to this PG and was still staying in the adjacent one in a small single-seater room. It was around a year back. I've been reminded of this vision many times now for a few days. When I had this vision, I was still quite new in my walk with God and hadn't yet started writing anything related to it.

Vision: I saw a demonic army with short and tall demons of different types, not just carrying weapons but they were also armored (wearing helmets, breastplates and other protective devices - implying a strong and prepared demonic army).

Also, for two days, this song has been coming to me whose lyrics go like this - "Be careful that life doesn't give itself over to death. Peace is getting lost and the country (kingdom or body of Christ on Earth) is in difficulties (danger). Revive the (pleasing) desire to get beheaded in your hearts, my dear friends."

I will definitely food fast now because of this, and pray, and try going even without drinks if I am able to.

Page 64. When Ungodly People Shipwreck Our Faith

11 September 2022
00:04

The Secret Place Revelations

Somewhere within the past month, I had this dream where I was inside a ship that had other people in it too, though they were not in the same chamber as mine but were kept separate.

There was another ship at a distance and I could see some people on the deck. I saw one of them throw something towards our ship, which left a hole in it making water gush in. I and another fellow then started working towards fixing that hole. After a while, another blow was thrown at us leaving more holes. I was then talking with that (or a different) guy in my ship and asking him about others who were there in the other chamber(s) of the ship - that they should be kept safe.

The person in that other ship resembled one of the bullies in my real life. He was there in that other ship with his own group of people. I did not understand the dream the same day, but after watching one of Sis Adele's videos in which she briefly talked about how devil shipwrecks our faith, I understood it better, and I think that now would be a good time to write about it.

The people in that other ship represent those who have been sent with an assignment to cause problems in our journey in our ship of faith.

We don't journey alone in our ship. There are others too in our ship for whom we are responsible. The guy on the other ship throwing bombs at us leaving holes in our ship, or actually shipwrecking us, represents the lies and doubts that ungodly people instill in our minds which shake our faith (or shipwrecks us as was shown literally in that dream). The attacks from the other side are quite real and put us at risk. However, not everyone sees the attacks and the places where holes have been made (as most people were kept safe at a different place on the ship), while we (I and one or two more fellows) were outside witnessing what was actually going around, and were responsible for keeping things safe and in check.

We've to be on the lookout for such attacks or bombs, and not let the doubts infiltrate our minds that the enemy is throwing at us in the form of lies, false rebukes, or misleading us using deception.

I wrote three different pages on the same day. I didn't write them together because I wanted them to be written separately as they have different and apparently unrelated info.

09:22

I have been now reminded of this many times for a few days now – back in the days of High school, I was reading one of the main characters of a novel (forgotten the name of it) having breakfast at a gathering, and though there were many delicacies around to relish, she was having bun with milk. For some days, God has been pointing towards it, and the fact that I too love having bun(s) with milk. In a way, He was pointing out the prophetic relevance of some parts of that novel.

And He's been also reminding me of another one that I read around the same time I read the above one, in which a girl recorded her journey through difficult times and war in a diary, which was then many years later found by someone else which led him to know the truth about the place. The name of this one I remember because I had wanted to own it someday - The Diary of Pelly D.

This Notebook is much like a diary that will serve as an ark for others and will sail them in faith safely over troubled waters as things get worse in this sandbox of devil.

Made me feel like God was almost preparing me my whole life so far for what I'm going through now.

(In 'The diary of Pelly D.', the storyline revolves around the rivalry between a few families that hold the best gene pool. And it reminded me how it represents the condition of narcs.

For power-hungry, wicked and evil narcs, it's all about the genes as they want the best gene pool in their line. But, the Kingdom of God is about Love, as genes don't matter in glorified bodies and we understand that it's God who allows us to do certain special things - in fact, everything that we are able to do.)

Page 66. Logicians Call You Unscientific, Believers try/Want to Look Smarter or More Scientific; Word of Correction - What Do You See?; Pink Correction Pen; Do Not Judge Another Believer's Walk with, Love for, or Worship of God

1. Be Godly, not Logical or Blindly Believing. Faith is different from Superstition or Blind Belief.

As a person who grew up without the knowledge of the existence of God, and who kept a skeptical approach towards most things, I now know how logicians or scientific atheists view those who are believers. Whenever I approach a non-believer and start sharing the truth about this world with them, they look at me with biased eyes. They think that I am promoting a specific religion and that because I am too enmeshed in it (as is apparent by the expression of my inner countenance), I am irrational and orthodox too. They think that the right mindset is that of encouraging all routes of thought when it comes to God, and most liberals attribute 'dumb acceptance of unproven beliefs' to religion and therefore reject the notion of religion itself - like I once used to be.

Why am I writing this here and not repeating the truth of salvation through the sacrifice of Jesus Christ? Because God knows the hearts (of people) and beliefs (that they carry), and the ways people think, and that they are more likely to relate with someone at a personal level first before they come to accept the truth which to them seems strange at first. If I write things in a religious sense in a preachfull way, it only shows arrogance and unfriendliness - one of the reasons perhaps why God appointed me for this – because I make things personal, and therefore rightly point out their true relevance and importance. How do you draw the hearts of people towards their Creator? It's not by preaching. It's by leading with example, where your own weaknesses are at the front too, and people see you fall and yet repent and get up again and start again as you follow God.

Coming to the title of this page, when I listen to believers talk about things trying to make a point that they can be scientific and smart too like the people in the field, it makes me witness how they are neglecting the fact that God didn't love us because of how full of knowledge or understanding we are, or how well we are able to grasp difficult concepts. His love is unconditional and the same for His children whom He bought to Himself with His blood. Sometimes, while listening to believers, I get the feeling that they are trying too hard to look scientific or smart to a mark. And this attitude arises more in response to a situation where they see a believer who is in the field of logic. I just want to clear out the fact that it is irrelevant what our individual professions are. I am not good at many things, but when I see others being good at things that I am not as good at, I don't try to dilute their skill but accept it rationally. I have heard one or two refer to my work as false science, because of their own reservations. I wasn't offended but was rather pointed towards the state of their hearts that made them say so.

On the other hand, those who are fully convinced of their atheism and creation-out-of-nothing mindset see me as being too much of an irrational acceptor of beliefs, and therefore as someone who is not so fit for scientific work.

I did not write the above because I am negatively affected by either of the sides, but because I want to point out the error in thought on both sides.

2. What Do You See?

And this is a word of correction for those who strip people with their eyes and minds and then are also quick to point out their perception of how a person could be dressed more modestly. The hypocrisy of such people will be their own trap (leading) to a degraded mind and a spotted soul. Yesterday, I witnessed some people stopping in their tracks to have a good gaze at another person standing at a distance. They were making the point that whether they are drawn to sin is dependent on how that other person looks. But I want to add here that there are two factors at play here. One is how that other person is dressing, and another is your own inner countenance. When you look at a fully or modestly dressed person, do you strip them with your eyes, and then later go and insult those who are not so modest in their dressing sense, or do you maintain your grounds despite the outer surroundings? The latter part is called being Christ-like in one's inner self. Dressing modestly should be inspired by one's inner good character, and not by a will to just 'look characterful' outwardly while one is out doing all kinds of immoral things but putting on outer garments of righteousness to fool and deceive and mingle along with the righteous. Such are called the wolves in sheep's clothing.

3. Pink Correction Pen

The Secret Place Revelations

Some months back, I was drawn to buy a correction pen with a pink-colored body. I understood then that the Holy Spirit was leading me to buy that pen as I couldn't take my eyes off it and was looking continuously at the pink-colored one though I wasn't in an urgent need of it. I received an instant revelation as I was looking at it – the point being emphasized was that correction has to be made in love and not anger, spiteful rebuke, hidden sarcasm, snide comments, or direct or indirect taunts.

4. Do Not Judge Another Believer's, Walk with, Love for, or Worship of God

I see some people judging one of the lovers of God expressing love in a personal form of Worship. They call it false worship and they not just think that, they want you to know that that's what they think. This is not a Godly thing to do - to judge another person's loving bond with God and call it false. When God is rejoicing in the love and worship of that person, and is pleased by it, it is quite evil and judgemental to call something pure as false. Yes, we shouldn't be hypocritical in our praise and worship of God, but neither should we try to challenge the bond of another person with God because of our lack of understanding or perception of their case. How would we feel if others whom we see as loving brothers and sisters call out our true heart-felt worship as 'little' false worship? God is not pleased with such false inter-judgements going around within His body.

And lastly, I see worldly smart people around who see themselves as 'wicked-smart' and think that their ways are higher as they work and get them what they want most of the times, I see them thinking of the sheep of God as being gullible or too simple-minded. They not just think it, they say it too to the sheep. Well, as the sheep of God, we're called to be innocent as dove and not have any ill-will, and have agape for our enemies though hating what is evil - these traits are not a mark of gullibility but being a child of God. Without them, you won't qualify to be a part of His Kingdom. His Kingdom is not for people who say one thing but mean another, or those who deceive others, or who constantly frame false situations to trap the innocent. His Kingdom is for the pure-hearted, whose outer conduct resonates with their pure inner self, and not for the ravenous wolves who think rape and murder with a fake smile on their face and see this ungodly duality as part of being smart.

Before the Throne of God

--> 'Before the Throne of God Above'

Lyrics:

Before the throne of God above
I have a strong and perfect plea
A great High Priest, whose name is Love
Who ever lives and pleads for me

My name is graven on His hands
My name is written on His heart
I know that while in heaven He stands
No tongue can bid me thence depart
No tongue can bid me thence depart

When Satan tempts me to despair
And tells me of the guilt within Upward I look, and see Him there
Who made an end of all my sin

Because a sinless Savior died
My sinful soul is counted free
For God, the Just, is satisfied
To look on Him and pardon me
To look on Him and pardon me

Hallelujah! Hallelujah!
Praise the One
Risen Son of God!

The Secret Place Revelations

Behold Him there, the risen Lamb
My perfect, spotless righteousness
The great unchangeable I Am
The King of glory and of grace

One in Himself, I cannot die
My soul is purchased by His blood
My life is hid with Christ on high
With Christ, my Savior and my God
With Christ, my Savior and my God

Hallelujah! Hallelujah!
Praise the One
Risen Son of God!
Hallelujah! Hallelujah!
Praise the One
Risen Son of God!

Hallelujah! Hallelujah!
Praise the One
Risen Son of God!
Hallelujah! Hallelujah!
Praise the One
Risen Son of God!

12 September 2022

When God wants me to work out, He plays the line 'Life Goes By Fast' – this plays at the beginning of the workout video I follow.

The Secret Place Revelations

Previously I didn't know why this line was being highlighted by the Holy Spirit to me again and again. Later on, I recalled and realized that it is a part of that workout video and when the Holy Spirit plays it in my heart is when I am supposed to do workout according to God's Will. Like a few minutes back I was planning to change clothes and sleep after perhaps praying for a while, but just after I had taken my night clothes out of the wardrobe, the Spirit played the line 'Life Goes By Fast' to me, so I knew that I had to obey.

Interestingly, the outfit of the trainer in that video constitutes of two garments colored red and white. I realized this too later.

So, I took my workout trousers out of the wardrobe instead, and though it's going to be easily more than 1.5 hours task of working out and then clean the self up, I am all set for it because I love God (Jesus). While I was on the roof praying to God recalling all the nice and sweet things He had acted in response to my love and worship of Him, I was feeling too touched by His gestures. I was thinking that I would do anything I have to on this earth to get to Him in Heaven at last for real, and this workout is a part of that – obeying and walking in His Will, though it may not be comfortable for me, it's what He wants me to do, and because I love Him, it seems to me a good thing to do.

I had been following this workout video since last year when I was in that other PG. Then I stopped for a while, but now God highlighted this particular video only for me to follow. Nevertheless, after I am done with it, I usually follow up with some additional short exercises, and sometimes a relaxing procedure.

Revelation 20:4 (New Living Translation)

4 Then I saw thrones, and the people sitting on them had been given the authority to judge. And I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for their testimony about Jesus and for proclaiming the word of God. They had not worshiped the beast or his statue, nor accepted his mark on their foreheads or their hands. They all came to life again, and they reigned with Christ for a thousand years.

From <https://www.biblegateway.com/passage/?search=Revelation+20%3A4&version=NLT>

An event that is to come to pass in time is often marked by the earlier passing by of a similar event that serves as a prologue or a confirming marker of what is to come. Near the end of the days, the bride of Christ (the body of true believers) will be beheaded for her faith in Her God and her refusal to be a part of the beast system and worship it. What I wrote towards the end of Page 49 is the confirming event that is to take place at the end of my life. As the body of Christ gets beheaded, she will stand in the arms of her savior and God (Jesus) - this is why the Holy Spirit gave me the vision where I was standing face to face with Jesus (vision written towards the end of Page 57); the vision pertained to what I would be facing right after I would leave this place.

Many centuries before Jesus was crucified as our Passover Lamb (through whom we 'pass' from Earth to Heaven), the Israelites had to slaughter a Passover lamb (as instructed by God) when they left Egypt.

Exodus 12:21-23 (NIV)

21 Then Moses summoned all the elders of Israel and said to them, "Go at once and select the animals for your families and slaughter the Passover lamb. 22 Take a bunch of hyssop, dip it into the blood in the basin and put some of the blood on the top and on both sides of the doorframe. None of you shall go out of the door of your house until morning. 23 When the Lord goes through the land to strike down the

The Secret Place Revelations

Egyptians, he will see the blood on the top and sides of the doorframe and will pass over that doorway, and he will not permit the destroyer to enter your houses and strike you down.

From <<https://www.biblegateway.com/passage/?search=Exodus%2012&version=NIV>>

Isaiah 53:7

He was oppressed and He was afflicted,
Yet He did not open His mouth;
Like a lamb that is led to slaughter,
And like a sheep that is silent before its shearers,
So He did not open His mouth.

Source: <https://bible.knowing-jesus.com/topics/Passover-Lamb>).

Likewise, before the body of true believers (the remnant) faces persecution in this system during the end of days and is beheaded (which in itself would be a precursor for her to be with her Loving, Eternal, Perfect and Holy God), there's going to be a precursive beheading as the bride would walk towards the Glory of God (God's promise to me) as she would refuse to be compliant with the system (or the opposing enemy) and this would be the marking precursor to the beheading of true believers at the end of days.

Page 69. Holy Spirit - The Ever-Present Comforter

19 September 2022

19:33

Around 5-10 minutes back while I was surfing YouTube, I felt this nudge to listen to the song 'I Cry' by Westlife, or rather the song was being highlighted to me. I thought why would I want to listen to this song? I definitely didn't want to cry, and was feeling okay. And then after a few minutes, I went in the direction of thinking about something and ended up tearing up, after which the instance of the song being highlighted to me was highlighted to me. I knew then that God was pointing to what was coming, and not what was at that particular moment when He highlighted that song to me.

Instead of writing the above in the comments section of the song itself, I thought I would record it here, as this also marks one of the ways I (we) relate with the Holy Spirit. We develop a strong and intimate bond with the Holy Spirit of God with time, as it not only knows our future moments of being low in the heart but also comforts us and leads us to come out of it.

On my way back from work, I happened to suddenly glance briefly with extreme focus at a Doritos packet in a basket hanging outside a shop. As I passed by it, I knew that it was being highlighted to me by the Holy Spirit and the next thing I thought was to buy it though I don't like the texture of Doritos very much (I find it okayish). I didn't even feel like eating it, but I understood that it was for a reason that it was being highlighted to me. So I asked the old Uncle at the shop for it. As I was paying for it, I happened to look at yet another Doritos packet hanging right in front of me (a smaller one). And I knew again that this too was being highlighted to me by the Holy Spirit. So I went ahead and bought it too and put them both inside my bag.

After I reached my PG, I had some snacks, and took the packets out later to empty my bag. After a while, I happened to pick one up not with the intention to eat it but just to look at it. The first thing my eyes went to was the place where was written 'Call of Duty' on the upper right corner of the packet. Also, there was a picture of a ghost-persona on the packet and beside it was written – Ghost. When I had read the phrase 'Call of Duty', I understood that God was communicating to me that I was called to my 'duty' by Him. It's our duty to serve in the kingdom of God. As I read 'Ghost' written below, it didn't make a lot of sense to me but I moved on to the second packet I had bought nevertheless to look at it. There also, I found 'Call of Duty' written on the top right corner, but below was the image of a woman dressed in a war suit and beside it was written 'Outrider'. I put the two packets side by side and together they said - 'Ghost Outrider'.

For two days I've been watching short videos from the movie Ghost Rider where the Ghost rider makes the unrepentant (evil) souls feel the pain they put others through and sends them to Hell. I could sense during the past few days that it was not by my own will that I was watching those videos but because I was being led to them and that a message was being highlighted to me.

We who have the Holy Ghost inside of us are called by God to perform our 'Duty'. It's our duty to perform the Will of God on Earth. We are the 'Holy Ghost' carriers who are out riding along the path the Holy Ghost takes us on as we perform the Will of God.

Additionally, this early morning I had a dream where I saw a follower of God was beaten brutally to an extent that he was not able to stand up. Later I saw him lying at a place where other followers of God were, and God dropped by there and looked at the beaten follower who was still lying and was unable to stand up. He said that it was normal as He walked by Him and left the place. That's how we are supposed to see our persecution in this place. Because God Himself was brutally and unfairly treated in this satanic (beast) system and He already said in His word that we should expect to be treated like He was or even worse because a servant is not greater than His master. It gave me a lot of encouragement and strength to know that it was normal in God's eyes for His REAL followers to suffer as a result of their non-compliance with the system and their walk with Him.

Psalm 55:3 (NLT)

3 My enemies shout at me, making loud and wicked threats.
They bring trouble on me and angrily hunt me down.

Who are the evil dumb? They're the ones blinded to the reality of their evil actions - who without a reason hunt the innocent or rally with those who are after the innocent.

God will judge them in His timing. They think they can hide in the beast system because it supports evil like them, but not so when the King pours down His righteous judgment upon them.

The evil dumb are always smiling, hiding their goop-like character using their smiling skin mask. They shout lies when confronted with the truth, and act in violent ways to prove their false innocence.

They are not willing to admit their folly publicly, and they think it makes them clever and superior. But they don't know that admitting one's guilt is the first step toward God. Without it, you can't begin to repent before Him.

The evil dumb think their cleverness and deceptive ways are higher than the pure conduct of a child of God. They not only frame God's children into unpleasant situations but also mock them by refuting the existence of God or mocking God Himself.

Is there any hope for such when the time for judgment is near? Nope - unless they admit their guilt before guilt, really realize their folly, and turn away from their past ways.

They think of their deceptive ways as being higher, and bring God down to a level of apathetic observant inactivity. But God sees all and everything, and sees their evil hearts and has already rejected them. So they can only marvel in their wicked ways during their short time here on earth as God's righteous judgment awaits them.

The Secret Place Revelations

I pray to God to bring upon me the same that I brought upon others so I may realize my folly and repent of it and bring a change in me and be what He wants me to be. The evil dumb never pray to God and think that the harm they put others through will never fall on them. They're wrong. Because they're unaware of who God is, and His plan for His children.

The evil dumb are the goop of this earth - the agents of satan who carry out His will as they don't care if what they do is morally right or wrong in God's eyes. They don't see themselves in evil light as they think that what they do is the norm and therefore feel protected in this satanic system. Their consciences have gone numb and they've turned to being reprobates - unable to repent and change their evil ways.

Everything that comes out of their mouth is without character, and they can't hold their tongue from speaking ungodly things, lies, and illegitimate insults about the innocent children of God. They openly insult or mock the ways of God and admit with their mouth that they don't want to change. This will be to their own destruction at the end.

Ecclesiastes 3:17 (NIIV)

Psalm 53 (New Living Translation)

- 1 Only fools say in their hearts,
“There is no God.”
They are corrupt, and their actions are evil;
not one of them does good!
- 2 God looks down from heaven
on the entire human race;
he looks to see if anyone is truly wise,
if anyone seeks God.
- 3 But no, all have turned away;
all have become corrupt.^[b]
No one does good,
not a single one!
- 4 Will those who do evil never learn?
They eat up my people like bread and wouldn’t think of praying to God.
- 5 Terror will grip them, terror like they have never known before.
God will scatter the bones of your enemies.
You will put them to shame, for God has rejected them.
- 6 Who will come from Mount Zion to rescue Israel?
When God restores his people,
Jacob will shout with joy, and Israel will rejoice.

The evil dumb when called out for their behavior change or upgrade their tactics in order to look even cleverer in their own eyes, but they are still the evil dumb in God's eyes who have chosen to neglect the ways of God but go further in hiding their deceptive ways and manipulations in order that those who see them for who they really are, find it difficult to call out their upgraded evil tactics out of the fear of looking foolish or like an overthinker. However, God sees the intention of the heart and knows the thoughts of one's mind. The upgraded tactics of the evil dumb are still seen by God and are still considered evil, filthy, wicked, and deplorable. The increased wickedness, cleverness, or subtlety of their tactics doesn't make them right. What they do is still wrong, and they fail to recognize it, or rather they don't want to. They choose to go further in the evil path they started on to be even better at being evil dumb - but they're only moving towards their eventual destruction.

There is nothing to be learned from the evil dumb. They will make you corrupt like they are in their hearts and minds. Stay away from the evil dumb and avoid looking at them for even the expressions on their faces reek of deception. Avoid hearing anything they happen to say around you, for all their words reek of deception. Avoid any conversations with them or listening to them, for they have nothing good to say as their hearts are filled with black goop - whatever lies in the heart comes out of the mouth.

Surround yourself with like-minded people of God who know and fear God and be always ready to help those who are new in their walk with God as God calls and leads you.

The evil dumb are the agents of satan who do his will on earth and have lost their own sense of right and wrong. Keep them out of your sphere.

Page 73. We're called to Hate What's Evil.

26 September 2022
20:01

Should we have a love for demons, the devil, his ways, and his kingdom? No. Should the fact that they are 'gods' of a kind and have power in their own realm enthrall us? No. Should ungodly people in power attract us? No.

The Secret Place Revelations

Hate what's evil from the bottom of your heart - as that's how God sees evil. And it would be apparent in how He is going to treat this serpent system towards the end of it - it will all be burned up in fire.

We're not called to love 'everyone', nor should we want to.

[Additive exploration on Oct 28th, 2024: Loving 8.2 billion people on Earth all-the-same is not plausible for a person with a limited mind such as a created human. However, we are called to love our enemies, love our neighbor as ourselves, and love our fellow brothers and sisters and possess a forgiving and loving heart – which doesn't mean that one is loving all the same, because to put tremendous effort in loving an unrepentant reprobate, who only saps one of useful life energy by his/her soul-sapping actions or behavior, leaves one feeling exhausted and depleted, while loving a reciprocating good person leaves one feeling energized and boosted. So, loving different people can have different effects on a person, and at times, it may be undesirable, unhealthy or destructive as the person begins to degrade in different physical and mental aspects. However, that is recompensable by the love of God and other healthy individuals being poured into that person. But should it mean that one should expect reciprocative compassionate bonding from apathetic reprobates..? And in the intentional absence of reciprocative compassionate bonding, will the love grow to something meaningful like it would peak with a compassionate person..? No. It won't. While one will continue possessing a loving heart as one is supposed to being a child of God, the reprobate parties aren't impacted by it but see it as a weakness, which is also why we pray: Father forgive them, for they know not what they do.

So, though one can possess a loving heart, it doesn't necessarily mean that one should put one's entire focus on unrepentant reprobates who have rejected God voluntarily and don't want to turn to him under any circumstance, for it robs one's soul and mind of being fed healthily by those who would love them rightly. You can still have Agape for them, but will you be able to have that strong bond based on compassion and companionship? That, you can't share with everyone in the world and therefore not everyone can be loved in that regard. Though everyone can be loved with a lens of Agape.

So, in a nutshell, where your focus stays is where you draw your energy and strength from. We are called to continually put our focus on Jesus and through that communion, love 'everyone' with 'His' form of love, but it doesn't mean that one will be able to form a reciprocative compassionate bond with those people which grows into a more beautiful and meaningful counterpart in time.

The Secret Place Revelations

Not loving everyone also has a slightly distant semblance with the notion of hating the world and loving God as the world is in rebellion with God or contradiction with Him. However, it doesn't imply being unkind, unmerciful, or even being condoning of other people's sins when it comes to loving them with God's love.

I can't love everyone with a meaningful mutually cherished bond, but I can love them with God's love that they may or may not receive based on the condition or state of their hearts and minds.

God's love is rooted in forgiveness based on repentance or being incognizant of what's truly conscientiously right or wrong. If one does wrong while he doesn't know that he is doing wrong, but later on learns about it and realizes his sin as a result, and therefore repents and changes his ways – he is forgivable in the eyes of God, and God is actually more pleased when such a person repents and turns away from his sin than He is because of a righteous person who doesn't need to repent.

Luke 15:7

7 I tell you that in the same way there will be more rejoicing in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who do not need to repent.

From <<https://www.biblegateway.com/passage/?search=Luke%2015&version=NIV>>

Luke 15:10

10 In the same way, I tell you, there is rejoicing in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

From <<https://www.biblegateway.com/passage/?search=Luke%2015&version=NIV>>

If one does wrong, not knowing one's wrong and never realizes it because one never received correction or never happened to understand how one was wrong in those aspects – it is still forgivable in God's eyes. God gives grace in such situations. These two types of sinners are whom God died for on the cross to take upon Himself the judgment of their sins in order that they may be guilt-free in His eyes and revel with Him in His kingdom realizing that He is their God and First Love. These two types of sinners have mouldable hearts and minds and have the capacity to be more righteous with correction and self-introspection made possible by the Holy Spirit in their lives. But, when one knows one is wrong, and still does wrong wilfully and enjoys in it and causes harm to others in the process, and never repents and is actually unwilling to ever repent but wants to keep continuing in the same sin - that's a part of being a reprobate and reprobates are rejected and hated by God which is also why He turns His face away from them though their record of sins is still being kept.

This third type of sinner is so hard-hearted that his hard heart didn't get molten even by the self-sacrificing act of God on the cross for his salvation. He wilfully rejected God as he doesn't like to be under authority and wants to live as he pleases doing every wrong thing under the sun in a discrete way keeping himself safe from being caught using clever means, power, or oppression. He has sold himself to devil and follows his ways and works as his agent. His fate is doomed. He will not be a part of the assembly of the righteous in the kingdom of God.

God's act of self-sacrifice was also a divisive act meant to separate good hearts that understand love from the evil hearts that don't care anything about it. If your heart doesn't change or melt at God's self-sacrifice out of His love for you, you don't deserve God and won't be with Him in Heaven – that's why He made it a condition for people to 'believe' in His sacrifice knowing that it was God who came in flesh and died for their sins, and repent and change their hearts towards Him, in order for them to be with Him in Heaven.

One should not expect to be on good terms with God when one lives a life coming closer each day to reprobacy, not receiving correction, and changing one's heart and ways.

What's even more deplorable about such people is how they 'act' righteous despite the things they do. If one is killing people or raping women in daily routine, and then later on goes outside and acts as if he or she is so righteous, acting as if he's so so good despite his sin, it is all the way more deplorable to God.

If one knows one is guilty of grave sins, one should not 'in principle' act like one is fully righteous. But in a fallen system, acting righteous and good is an inherent part of being deceptive and 'clever' and is considered good (while it is wickedness in God's eyes). Even the righteous know they are not perfect and yet they live in repentance and pray for forgiveness of sins unknown to them. The evil dumb however know how wicked they are and yet they see themselves as if they are pure gold, as if there's no one else like them, and they adore themselves like they're so unique and worthy of respect and honor. The evil dumb have a very high view of themselves, they're proud like a god and think no one (not even God) should be telling them what to do (or they don't receive correction from the Word of God). Will God accept proud wilful sinners who think they are the gods of their own lives seeing God as a hindrance who reminds them of their unrepented continual willful sins? In a fallen system, such people are revered and accepted - not so in the Kingdom of God.

The Secret Place Revelations

When one belongs to the dark side, one shouldn't 'in principle' be putting on a 'good' act as it further makes them deplorable and repulsive! But in a fallen system, it is considered a clever thing to be both wicked and yet have purity in some hidden corner of one's heart – that's an incorrect way of looking at things – a lie from the pit of hell. One can't be both wicked, and righteous. A righteous person hates evil and vice versa.

How disgusting it feels to look at a person who knows right from wrong and yet doesn't care about or even want any forgiveness for his continual sins? And when such a person acts as if he is pure gold, it makes him look even more aversive! Wilful evildoers who don't fear God are the black goop of this earth – not the treasure.

Don't have anything to do with such 'acting' hypocrites who will act like they are worthy of all the good things and yet their thoughts, behavior and character are equivalent to the dirtiest filth in the eyes of God.

These acting types observe carefully the children of God and copy their traits - not really embodying them but just putting them over themselves like a cloak while they remain the same filthy-in-character person on the inside. They are the ones who are called by God as wolves in sheep's clothing – they're deplorable wolves who go around acting like they're some sort of a celebrity and thus deserve to be obeyed and respected while their inner selves reek of abuse, oppression, slander, lies, deception, a readiness to cheat, betrayal and murder.

Do you take your thoughts and words lightly? Don't. You need to change from your inner core and become a new creation in Christ as the Holy Spirit works on you as you stay in repentance in all humbleness towards God.

(Morally dumb people are referred to as the evil dumb here.)

Luke 15

The Parable of the Lost Sheep

The Secret Place Revelations

15 Now the tax collectors and sinners were all gathering around to hear Jesus. 2 But the Pharisees and the teachers of the law muttered, "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them."

3 Then Jesus told them this parable: 4 "Suppose one of you has a hundred sheep and loses one of them. Doesn't he leave the ninety-nine in the open country and go after the lost sheep until he finds it? 5 And when he finds it, he joyfully puts it on his shoulders 6 and goes home. Then he calls his friends and neighbors together and says, 'Rejoice with me; I have found my lost sheep.' 7 I tell you that in the same way there will be more rejoicing in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who do not need to repent.

The Parable of the Lost Coin

8 "Or suppose a woman has ten silver coins^[a] and loses one. Doesn't she light a lamp, sweep the house and search carefully until she finds it? 9 And when she finds it, she calls her friends and neighbors together and says, 'Rejoice with me; I have found my lost coin.' 10 In the same way, I tell you, there is rejoicing in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

The Parable of the Lost Son

11 Jesus continued: "There was a man who had two sons. 12 The younger one said to his father, 'Father, give me my share of the estate.' So he divided his property between them.

13 "Not long after that, the younger son got together all he had, set off for a distant country and there squandered his wealth in wild living. 14 After he had spent everything, there was a severe famine in that whole country, and he began to be in need. 15 So he went and hired himself out to a citizen of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed pigs. 16 He longed to fill his stomach with the pods that the pigs were eating, but no one gave him anything.

17 "When he came to his senses, he said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have food to spare, and here I am starving to death! 18 I will set out and go back to my father and say to him: Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. 19 I am no longer worthy to be called your son; make me like one of your hired servants.' 20 So he got up and went to his father.

"But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion for him; he ran to his son, threw his arms around him and kissed him.

21 "The son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'

The Secret Place Revelations

22 "But the father said to his servants, 'Quick! Bring the best robe and put it on him. Put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. 23 Bring the fattened calf and kill it. Let's have a feast and celebrate. 24 For this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.' So they began to celebrate.

25 "Meanwhile, the older son was in the field. When he came near the house, he heard music and dancing. 26 So he called one of the servants and asked him what was going on. 27 'Your brother has come,' he replied, 'and your father has killed the fattened calf because he has him back safe and sound.'

28 "The older brother became angry and refused to go in. So his father went out and pleaded with him. 29 But he answered his father, 'Look! All these years I've been slaving for you and never disobeyed your orders. Yet you never gave me even a young goat so I could celebrate with my friends. 30 But when this son of yours who has squandered your property with prostitutes comes home, you kill the fattened calf for him!'

31 "'My son,' the father said, 'you are always with me, and everything I have is yours. 32 But we had to celebrate and be glad, because this brother of yours was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.'"

Page 74. The False Church and the World - Both are A Whorehouse

I found this video in my side YouTube suggestions today. Sister Marilee (Brother Andrew's wife) talks here about her dream in which God showed her the 'true' condition of the worldly 'church system' and what it really is.

Video: Sister Marilee talks here about her dream given by God regarding the condition of the worldly church.

I would now like to write my own dream from God about the situation of the city I live in. This dream is from many months back, but I have not written about it here anywhere. God showed me a residential locality. As I moved along the street, I saw that the ground floors of many homes of that locality had no doors but had transparent curtains through which one could see inside. It was night and what I saw was many people sleeping together and the scene looked like that of a whorehouse. God was comparing those residential homes with whorehouses as there were no boundaries between people and there was a subtle 'immoral liberty' in the air that one could sense, an open acceptance of people sleeping around with random people and being okay with it, and even doing group sleepovers. I was being flown around in that dream and didn't walk all the time. I felt quite unsafe in that locality and sat myself near the top of a very tall building where I couldn't be seen. However, when I happened to look inside that building through its window outside which I was sitting on the wedges of coming out of the wall, I saw a guy who said something to who seemed to be his parents, and then went inside his room (whose window I was peeking inside through), locked himself in, laid on his back on his bed and started fornicating with himself while looking at the screen of his phone which was in his other hand.

This dream was shocking to me as it showed me how rampant sexual immorality was in the place - to an extent where even the 'residential areas' were seen as whorehouses by God because of their openness to fornicate and not seeing it as a sin. People are called to be one flesh with their covenant partners and not hop around from one person to another. The scene of looking at many people sleeping together through transparent curtains was too disturbing. Those people had lost their sense of healthy and godly boundaries and didn't feel any shame in even covering themselves up by putting up doors. The transparent curtains symbolized that the fornication occurring within the locality was 'seen' or known by everyone and was accepted. People didn't want to hide that they were fornicating with many people at once because no one had a problem with it.

This is an ungodly condition of the worldly city I live in, and the city needs to repent of it. We are called to pray for our cities and nations, in order that they may repent before God and their hearts are changed as they get to know Him.

The world is likened to a whore by God, while the church is His bride. The bride is not to live by the ways of the world and thus be a part of the whorehouse.

The Secret Place Revelations

However, the worldly church system is so deeply embedded in sin that it itself was likened to a whorehouse by God as shown to Sister Marilee, and we are called to not be a part of it as it leads us away from the righteous way of living as we follow Jesus.

The true church of God constitutes those who have His Spirit inside of them and who live by the Spirit as they are led.

The Secret Place Revelations

Here it ComesPast
Obvious.mp4

(Most church members may already be well versed with such info) The spiritual reality manifests through people in our lives. I too have seen the devil staring right at me through people. How did I know it was the devil? I was once talking to my PhD supervisor in home with her sitting facing her in her home and suddenly her expression changed. Almost as if her facial features bulged out. There was an extremely apparent wickedness on her face (her eyes and entire face). The expression changed from being normal to a very wicked one and she had never looked like she was looking in that moment before. She was quickly swirling her tongue on her lips like a serpent as she was staring at me (she did it twice). I could tell that the entity staring at me through her was very wicked. Later on, I realized that the devil had entered inside her and was staring at me through her.

If you surround yourself with willful sinners and relish in their company, the devil will find a way in your life as well and eventually into your mind corrupting it and making you numb to sin and accepting of it. But if you resist the devil and the people he works through, he will flee as you don't give in to his ways and the temptations he is trying to lure you in. However, he will still try to have a grip of you and bring you into his clan. If you're continuously resisting him and keeping your mind in check, he may not be able to work through you in such a case, but he will work through others to create problems of different intensities for you in your life.

Devil the adversary of God and the children of God tries to lure the children of God through one or the other means or different temptations. If he is not bale to 'win' you to his clan, then he will use others to torture you in one or the other way - because he doesn't has any better work to do than to mislead and deceive the world as he is in constant rebellion against God, and this is his rebellious system that we are born into. We (the children of God carrying His Spirit) are like beacons of light in a world of darkness.

The fact that the main God of one of the false religions is also called a 'deceiver' is not a coincidence. Devil is the great deceiver of this world who keeps the world in the dark, away from the knowledge of God.

Devil has a plethora of false doctrines circulated in the world related to God. He himself created this 'system of a down' where two opposing sides are unequally yolked together in a body, and then he spread this false doctrine through his agents that one needs to balance one's good and bad deeds in order for one to find salvation - the Great lie of one of the false religions.

Why would one create a spiritual system where both good and bad sides exist in a person, and then make it a condition to balance their outputs or have more of the 'good' output than the bad which is not even possible because of the innate spiritual condition of the 'system of a down' in which the person is born? His lies have been made naked now.

God created angels to love and obey Him. He did not create the 'system of a down'.

27 September 2022
22:27

James 2:13 (English Standard Version) 13 For judgment is without mercy to one who has shown no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment.

By far I've talked mostly about the forgiving nature of God and how He gives us grace and how we (who will be saved by faith by grace at the end) often have unknown unrepented sins. And yes, forgiveness is indeed the great and the main aspect of God's nature. He would rather give you time to have you repent of your sins before Him and change your ways and turn to Him than to right away inflict judgment.

The Secret Place Revelations

But I also have written here about how God judged me for betraying my best friend 'Worship' more than a decade later that I had wronged her. I did not see my error, and did not repent of it, but what I had done was grievously wrong in God's eyes as I had caused her immense emotional pain. He was patient at first, but eventually, He inflicted on me the same emotional pain through someone else that made me realize how I had wronged her and led me to repent.

On Page 73, I wrote about the kind of sinners who unknowingly commit sins that they don't know are sins and are forgiven by God. But it's God who decides according to His perfect judgment the sins that one needs to repent of and the ones that need to be judged. My sin deserved judgment in His eyes, which led me to repentance. It was the case of His perfect earthly judgment – eye for an eye, tooth for a tooth.

Leviticus 24:19-20

New International Version

19 Anyone who injures their neighbor is to be injured in the same manner: 20 fracture for fracture, eye for eye, tooth for tooth. The one who has inflicted the injury must suffer the same injury.

From <<https://www.biblegateway.com/passage/?search=Leviticus%2024%3A19-20&version=NIV>>

However, He judged me to lead me to the realization of what I did wrong and therefore to repentance, to have me understand His nature of that of a Righteous Judge, and ultimately to have me turn to Him. Often He would refrain from earthly judgment on reprobates as it doesn't lead them to repentance and turn them to Him, though their end lies in the pit of Hell. At times, He does inflict His righteous judgment and wipes out cities at once (like He did with Sodom and Gomorrah). But the judgment of evil is certain, if not now on earth, then later in Hell.

He died for sinners who had the potential to turn away from their previous wicked ways and saved them from His wrath. Even they faced indirect judgment in the form of their sins being placed on their God Himself. How much more God must be angry towards those reprobates that inflict pain upon His sheep/children and try to lead them away from Him?

Another e.g. of God's righteous judgment (to consider) would be when one inflicts tremendous mental and emotional pain on an innocent person and does it willfully and is unrepentful and leads the tortured person to end their life. In God's eyes,

the right judgment for such a person would be to have him experience a heartache of an intensity that would make the guilty party want to end his life (thereby making him repent and making way for him to turn to God). (Edit: I didn't write this paragraph out of my own mind but according to what I had understood from two dreams I have written previously about.)

God has kept me alive and I'm happy because of His revelations and His work in my life. But He knows the impact the same hurtful situation would've had on me had I not known Him or wasn't close to Him. So He has His righteous judgment waiting for the oppressor(s) at His appointed timing - where they would end up doing what I would've done had God not been there for me. When they taste that, they would know that it was the work of God in their life and also that they deserved it in His eyes making them repent for their evil. (Edit: This is not a hateful paragraph. But it describes the situation for exactly what it is. God knows which one of His haters are redeemable because their hearts are still moldable. So He would rather make them go through situations that He knows would bring them to repentance and to Him.)

God showed me exactly how it would be for an evildoer when the work of God is openly brought to fruition. He showed it to me many months back. It would be equivalent to the top of his head being sliced off with the sword of the spirit thereby putting an end to his evil self.)

God is forgiving, as He showed in His act of self-sacrifice on the cross. But He is also the righteous judge who judges everyone and no one can escape His righteous judgment as it falls upon them. His judgment comes like an inescapable force that one can't avoid as it is 'forced' circumstantially upon the guilty party and they can't do anything to avoid it.

Hebrews 10:30-31

New Living Translation

For we know the one who said, "I will take revenge. I will pay them back." He also said, "The Lord will judge his own people." It is a terrible thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

The Secret Place Revelations

The righteous fear God and carefully watch their conduct, the wicked ones do not fear anyone and go without control along their evil schemes. They don't know God and say in their hearts Who is God to judge them?

Another e.g. of God's righteous judgment would be when one has spent his lifetime torturing daughters of other people, then God would have his own daughter face His judgment because of his refusal to change his ways and an unwillingness to repent. (Edit: This is evident in the way He struck the firstborns of Egypt as it was oppressing Israel whom He considered His own firstborn, and stopping it from leaving the land and worship their God.)

Numbers 14:18

New International Version

18 'The Lord is slow to anger, abounding in love and forgiving sin and rebellion. Yet he does not leave the guilty unpunished; he punishes the children for the sin of the parents to the third and fourth generation.'

We shouldn't feel bad when God judges guilty and wicked according to His perfect judgment. We should rejoice in His perfect nature and even pray for Him to judge our own unknown sins so that our limitations may be brought into the light and we can bring about change in ourselves.

1. God's Mercy is 'More' than the Sins of 'His' children. 'His' Enemies and the World are Reserved for His Judgment

Today as I was still lying on my bed as a part of complete fasting and rest, I had this Worship song play in my heart - ' His Mercy is More'.

Video Worship Song: His Mercy Is More

He forgives those whom He loves and puts their sins behind as He looks at them, and wants to bring them to have the right heart towards Him by putting them through different situations (sometimes extremely difficult).

We can pray that God has mercy on 'our' enemies, but 'His' enemies would be judged rightly by Him. Though many who once were His enemies are also brought into His kingdom as they repent and change their ways.

(I often pray that God would bring the wicked people in my sphere to repentance and make them turn to Him. But it's not something that's in our hands. God knows which one of them is redeemable and would eventually be a part of His Kingdom.)

We as children of God, who love Him and whom God loves, can rejoice knowing that His love and compassion-filled eyes watch over us as we walk in His Will.

What Love could remember,
No wrongs we have done;
Omniscient, all-knowing,
He counts not their sum.
Thrown into the sea,
Without bottom or shore...

Our sins they are many,
His Mercy is More.

What patience could wait,
As we constantly roam;
What Father So Tender,
Is calling us Home.
He welcomes the weakest,
The vilest, the poor..

Our sins they are many,
His Mercy is More.
Praise the Lord..
His Mercy is More..
Stronger than darkness,
New every morn'.
Our sins they are many,
His Mercy is More.

Praise the Lord..
His Mercy is More..

The Secret Place Revelations

Stronger than darkness,
New every morn'.
Our sins they are many,
His Mercy is More.

What riches of Kindness,
He lavished on us;
His Blood was the Payment,
His Life was the Cost.
We stood 'neath a debt,
We could never afford..

Our sins they are many,
His Mercy is More.

Praise the Lord..
His Mercy is More..
Stronger than darkness,
New every morn'.
Our sins they are many,
His Mercy is More.

Praise the Lord..
His Mercy is More..
Stronger than darkness,
New every morn'.
Our sins they are many,
His Mercy is More.
Our sins they are many,
His Mercy is More.

19:24

This one verse encapsulates the nature of God as being both merciful and the perfect righteous judge, and also captures the entirety of the two pages (76 and 77).

James 2:13

English Standard Version

The Secret Place Revelations

13 For judgment is without mercy to one who has shown no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment.

2. devil - The Master of Illusions

Devil is a master of illusions. He can come in front of you in various deceptive forms trying to look like someone he is not. His deception sharpens as he observes you more and thereafter comes across you with related new illusions.

People led by him act all the way the same as well. Their agenda is to deceive you and lead you out of your walk with Christ. Those agents of satan change their looks as they observe you more thinking that this will aid them in deceiving you.

This day they pretend to be one thing, the next day they pretend to be something entirely different. This is seen mainly in the way they dress as they observe you and want to embody the qualities they see in the way they dress. Even their dressing sense is meant to deceive you and doesn't reflect who they truly are.

Children of God don't feel the need to copy aspects from other people's personas in order to deceive them. This is a peculiar tactic used by the devil and his minions.

An ungodly person may dress in a certain way to highlight the non-existent aspects of their persona. I have observed people who hate me for no reason dress in a way to make the point that they are filled with a sense of deep love. But in that act, they are being deceptive, so how can they be deeply loving at the same time when they are putting an innocent person down for no reason?

Such is the hypocrisy and deception used by satan's agents.

We don't try to falsely highlight the non-existent parts of our beings or put others down if we feel secure in ourselves.

How can someone who insulted you for no reason once then, later on, make the claim that they love you when they haven't repented of their previous put-downs or don't even feel that they did anything wrong? It's all a sham that people led by the devil use to keep people confused and stuck in their trap. They want you to be there acting according to them irrespective of what they do to you, and when they do you wrong again, they want to be instantly forgiven without repentance only to repeat that same behavior again. They don't have godly love, my friends. If you tell them about the gospel, they feel annoyed. They don't care about the love of God but only want to ignorantly elevate the devil and themselves.

Jesus has called us to live authentic lives in Him without a trace of deception while keeping our hearts and minds guarded. Devil copies whatever God does but is never able to outdo Him, because he doesn't really have the qualities or character traits of God and is only putting up a show by putting them over him like a cloak to make a false impression.

That's how agents of devil (those led by him) rob the children of God of their space and identity when they happen to live with them - by falsely portraying themselves as having qualities they don't have. If anything, they are immensely good at very quickly catching the character traits you have which they then try to copy to come across as a better version of you when in reality their inner being is entirely different and rather bent on the vile side. Sometimes we need to stay with such people for a while, and it can be exhausting if our eyes are not focused on our God.

But if one's strong in one's identity in Christ, no deception will work on you or will be able to deceive you.

It may seem like a mild message or a message of no importance. But just think about how it is when people are constantly putting up an act to look like something they are not while revealing their true colours intermittently as their wickedness shows forth – this is one of the branches of what it is to be a wolf in sheep's clothing. Deception in any way is wicked.

Video: Choice Between Two Kingdoms
(30th September 2022)

Children of God are under the rule of their Rich King (Lord Jesus) who blesses them with heavenly riches though on earth they might be poor. The people from the other kingdom, however, are lured by earthly riches offered by the devil which deludes them into falling for evil practices as they follow their Poor King (satan/devil). Devil may look rich on earth, but he is poor, and can't resist his eventual fate of being judged in the lake of fire. The judgment will be forced on him and his followers despite what they may want for themselves.

Jesus was poor on earth (He became poor for us), but He is the King of kings and holds all authority and power over all creation. He sits at His throne in Heaven and looks down on His children with eyes of Love and Compassion, as they repent of their wickedness and evil ways, and follow Him.

Followers of satan, or those belonging to the kingdom of darkness, are blessed by satan with earthly riches but their fate lies with him as they chose to follow the enemy of God – the great deceiver who deceives the world and keeps them in darkness away from the knowledge of God, and keeps their minds shackled in the worldly system.

God wants us to understand the difference between real and false riches. Consider yourself rich if you are favored by God though you may not be rich in money or possessions. However, if you are rich in the earthly sense but God is far away from you – you're poor.

The Secret Place Revelations

No one can escape the judgment of God – rich or poor. But God shows mercy to a contrite heart.

Page 79. Beware of devil's Tests that You Don't Need to Pass

09 October 2022

00:57

It's not just God who sometimes tests our decisions as He puts us in certain situations, but devil also does the same by creating a fake situation using his agents. God tests you, though He already knows you and your heart, and He has the right to put you in different circumstances as your Creator. But devil tests you because he doesn't know you and wants to know more about you so that he can use the new information in his future plans against you.

Often devil also tries to guilt trip the children of God into lending help to a false situation. He does that to rob them of their resources when God has provided them with just enough. It's God who provides, be it through any resource. Some of the children of God, He trains them by providing for them on a daily or monthly basis where they don't have excess money in their bank accounts like the worldly people. God does this to rid them of the world and not rely on money for their survival but Him alone. He does this to build their trust in Him with time. But devil sends his agents to indirectly steal (in a sense) from the children of God by sending people to them to ask for resources.

The Secret Place Revelations

Holy Spirit is our guide. If God (the Holy Spirit) is not leading you to help someone though it may look like they need help, you don't have to help them. It is for a reason that He is not leading you to help them. devil's agents often come in the guise of needing help to test you and depending on your response they level up the next deception they plan to use on you. Beware of such tactics that can put you in a compromising or undesirable position that God doesn't want for you.

For e.g.: Let's say that God showed you in a dream or a vision that you were to do something using a possession that you have, or an event that will come to pass with certain things on or around you. So you go ahead and keep those things aside as you know that you would be needing them, or you buy other things that God showed you had in a dream (like I bought my red Relaxo flipflops) as you know that you would be using those things when those events come to pass. And suppose you make it known to a friend or share with a colleague what God showed you. After knowing God's plans for you, devil will try to disrupt them by using various tactics. And playing on your conscience is one of them. He may try to guilt trip you in handing over the things that God had you set aside for a future event, to his agent who comes in front of you as someone who needs help, or he may call yet another one of his agents to ask you for money for a social cause when God clearly provided just enough for you for that day or month. We may feel like giving out our resources in such cases out of a good conscience or because we don't want to feel the guilt of not helping a needy person, but we've to listen to the prompting of the Holy Spirit first instead of our own moral inclination in that situation. If you are being drawn away by the Holy Spirit from such people though they look needy, do so in obedience to God. We need to be prudent in helping others.

And remember, the burden of the world belongs to God, and we are called to walk in His will and do things that are in our capacity and that what He wants us to do. The above can also be understood as discerning between 'a good work and a God work' from how Sis Adele puts it. Additionally what may seem good work to you may as well be the devil's ploy to distract you from walking in God's Will. devil doesn't always come up front as an adversary but also as a falsely meek and needy person needing help – in whichever way he is able to engage you or get to you.

So, be aware. devil's tests are of no importance. We have to follow the promptings of the Holy Spirit and be led by it. God already knows our hearts though He still puts us in trying situations to develop character in us.

20:18

Within the past 2-3 months, I had a brief vision where I saw Jesus standing in His armour with a sword in one hand slightly lifted up to the side. It seemed as if He was ready to climb on the horse (to his right) and make war. As He was standing there, He was looking at me and the look in His eyes was of both joy and vengeance (over the serpent system as He is the Great Judge). He had a slight smile on His face as He was looking at me, and He looked glorious in His armour all ready to bring judgment. The vision was above my line of sight and I could see almost half of Him as He was looking down at me with a smile as He knew that this would be good news for His Church. Prior to this vision, I had another vision when I was in room D4, where I had seen Him standing beside His horse and He looked quite calm as He was smiling. The vision had only His upper half in my line of sight. Though He was dressed in His warrior armour, the expression on His face was that of a gentle and loving Creator.

He gives the same message to different people in different ways. He had brother Jonathan go to a place with a statue of Jesus on a horse with His sword lifted high.

Though I had mentioned this vision at other places on YouTube in comments, I had not written it down here.

He looks so beautiful even in His armour suit.

Then somewhere during the last year towards the end of it, when I was still in room D4, I had a vision where I saw a very fat sheep (looked animated) walking alone on a road towards me which was surrounded by heat and what looked like fire. The sheep looked quite happy as it was walking merrily in its own rhythm. But the surroundings looked unfavourable. God will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep.

Page 81. 'Perfect Inner Alignment' for the key to work; 'No More Eating'; Dream of 'First' Healing Miracle

1. 'Perfect Inner Alignment' for the key to work

I noticed that while working out, my gaze would often fixate on the keyhole of my almirah right in front of my eyes. I knew God was speaking something to me through it. Yesterday I happened to have the key to my almirah in PG. It hadn't worked previously in locking the almirah so I didn't bother to know its whereabouts. But I had been seeing it lying on the shared table for some time (placed there by my roommate) and thought of trying to use it again. But this time I tried a bit longer to find the related problem. I pulled the small inner metal slab a bit towards myself. It was a part of the lock attached to the base of one of the inner slabs of the almirah. The almirah didn't lock though the key was working otherwise and rotating fully through the keyhole when used with the almirah's door open. The problem wasn't with the key, but with the inner metal slab, I figured out. After shifting the lock's metal slab a bit, I tried to use the key with the door closed, but it still didn't work. I shifted the metal slab more towards myself and tried to lock the almirah, still the alignment wasn't right and it didn't get locked. I shifted the slab even more towards myself, and this time when I tried it, the door locked as the key worked. It took a few attempts to shift the slab further and further towards me which made the key work for its purpose. After the key had worked, I was reminded of the previous vision where God showed me a 'clean' X-Ray vision of a female's middle body wearing only a lingerie with a thin front which was also in X-Ray vision. It served as a model for me to achieve (the vision was first referred to on Page 44, and later on also towards the end of page 58 in a greater detail). As I looked at the X-Ray vision of the middle body, a translucent X-Ray image of inverted male genitalia appeared on top of the thin lingerie and started blinking (disappearing and reappearing). God made the point from that vision that that 'model' was the 'key' for the "key" to work. I also understood it as the "condition" set by Him. The incident yesterday with my almirah's key is representative of the same. I kept shifting the inner metal slab more and more towards myself and after a few attempts, the key worked and the door was able to be locked. Likewise, I will keep working out and shifting my protruding belly inside more and more (while taking care of my diet alongside), and after enough attempts, it would have the 'right' or the 'perfect' configuration needed to unlock the reality embedded in that vision.

The Secret Place Revelations

I could not have imagined that God would ask me to do such a thing. But as it is, we all have our different walks and tasks assigned by God which in the end work towards His 'greater' plan.

2. 'No More Eating'

Now regarding the 'No More Eating': if I consider the daily average of how I have been eating since I started to make efforts to implement the 'No More Eating' while trying to reduce weight, I can safely say that what I've been eating is almost half of how I used to eat. I have gone a duration of time without eating also, surviving only on drinks, and it was very difficult and I had a headache all the time. Then, I resumed eating a bit and now I eat in moderation because I started having blackouts as I stood up from a long duration of sitting or lying down. And I also changed my routine and am working to change it further so I am able to implement more of the things as the Holy Spirit leads me to. And I believe that the 'No "More" Eating' did not mean for me to not eat at all, but to not eat 'more' but healthy, and in moderation, in such a way that I am able to lose weight and achieve what was shown to me. Because without eating, I won't be able to keep muscle mass and do strength exercises which use body weight as weight, so definitely I have to eat but not 'more'. And I definitely don't eat like I used to – 3 full meals and snacks once and sometimes other things in between also. God's instruction for me is to consume 'eggs' during night as they don't have carbs but would fill me and would give nutrition. God opens doors and brings/reveals 'keys' to us to different closed doors in His own timing, and not ours, so that we don't "run ahead" of Him and His timing. Like I had the key since the beginning, but what I needed to do for the key to work in locking the Almirah was revealed to me months later.

Some people may ask why is God requiring me to change my looks? Isn't love unconditional, or not so much about looks? But, I have understood the reason behind what He showed me to do in two ways. First, when we come in the presence of God, we've to apply the blood of Jesus, or else we are despicable in His sight because of our sins, or we can also be despicable in His sight because of an unrepentant heart. Second, most people have an ideal of how they want their partner to look. Though one may fall in love with another fellow who doesn't look like his/her ideal, if that other person made efforts to achieve that ideal or looked like it, it would lead to things being even better between the people involved. Jesus first showed His not-so-groomed and very humbled version to me, so I would know that He's not about vanity. Later on, He showed Himself shining as the glorious King, and also in His armor suit with straight shiny hair. He looked amazing in both because His inner self shone the same in all His appearances. He looks immensely beautiful in anything He chooses to show Himself up in.

The Secret Place Revelations

3. Dream of 'First' Healing Miracle

I had yet another dream before I understood the meaning of the 'fairy' vision with Jesus I previously wrote about. In that (other) dream, I was bringing first aid to someone who needed it as she had a localized skin condition. I was then asked to 'try' to heal it, and then I laid my hands on her and prayed to God in the name of Jesus and I saw it getting healed, and then I moved away quickly saying with a feeling of relief that I was a fairy of Jesus – this comment that I made right after the healing in the dream didn't make sense to me until I had understood the fairy vision in real life and had written about its meaning here. After understanding the vision with Jesus, I also understood why I said that statement in my dream.

Edit:

4th Dec, 2022

12:41

After that healing incident, I found myself standing with some guys who were talking very nicely to me and I felt that someone was making brief appearances behind my back as I could sense some movement.

Page 82. devil Deceives, but the Holy Spirit Reveals

12:41

I now often see people (both men and women) I encounter in the world mimicking what they got to know through the revelations of the Holy Spirit written here by me. If God has given you revelations about something, the devil and his minions work together to make it fail. In my case, men led by devil will copy the revelations which relate to the promise made to me by God, while women will copy my own (good) traits and the advices given to me by God for 'me' to follow in obedience, or they may exaggerate themselves in a manner to make people stumble from their God-ordained trajectory. In this manner, the devil targets both me and God's promise as they try to lure us away from God's trajectory for us. And I can see that these people are only copying those things as they catch my attention because they resemble the 'content' of the revelations.

I observe them for a while thinking why would they present themselves before me in that manner? Are they making a (specific) point? If so, then what is it? And then, later, I find out that often it's all a deceiving 'test' meant to judge my response or reaction. But even when they perform these tests, they are subject to making false judgments because they can't know my thoughts while I happen to observe something because it resembles the revelations given to me. In this manner, though the devil tries to hinder in God's Will, he is not in the leading role because he only forms his plans and next moves according to what he observes, and his observations may be wrong as well because his mind works in an ungodly manner, and will definitely fail when you keep your breastplate of righteousness on because of which even when you are not falling for his tactics, he is still inclined to perceive your behavior falsely and therefore form a doomed-to-fail future move.

But, the revelations given by the Holy Spirit are exact and accurate and perfectly describe the way that things actually are. There is no room for misunderstanding or deception in a clearly communicated revelation. In a sudden revelation when I was still staying in Room D4 with my first roommate who was quite ungodly and worldly, the Holy Spirit showed me that she was standing at a distance of a few meters from the promised person. She then showed him her flat belly by lifting her top, and his face lit up and he looked quite enticed and happy as he nodded to her bending his head quickly to both sides. At that moment, God hadn't given me the revelation talked about on Page 44. But still, this revelation didn't quite make sense to me, because she and the promised person didn't know each other and the revelation was unexpected. That girl used abusive language 'all' the time, she not only talked crap using foul language with her boyfriend but also went out at nights with other men, about which even one of her friends staying in the PG once rebuked her, to which she gave a casual reply that it was fine and her boyfriend was ok with it. That girl was very emotionally abusive and made snide comments about me for no reason and was very harsh and unempathetic to people who are genuinely good, but was 'apparently' good to those who were just like her - abusive and worldly. However, she was slim and fair.

[Edit (11th Nov 2022): 'She was revealed to me by the Holy Spirit as being a white blue-blooded alien – the other race. She was not God's sheep. Perhaps I wrote about it previously as well. That was the first revelation I received about her. And the later revelation was what I wrote above.]

So God previously made the above point to me to make me understand the importance of getting a flat belly which I otherwise wouldn't have stressed on. And many months later, He revealed to me the 'key' in the revelation first mentioned on Page 44. Some time (weeks or months) after that revelation, He also showed me yet another animated vision, where only the middle bodies of a group of women walking in bikinis could be seen and all of them had flat bellies though slightly bony. And they were walking in a glamorous manner swinging like a pendulum. And the next thought that the Holy Spirit revealed to me was someone thinking 'Fairies' in his mind. And I understood again why I 'had' to do what God had told me.

From the above paragraphs, we understand that devil's tactics fail as his tests will fail if you're wearing your breastplate of righteousness which will make him misunderstand or misinterpret your reaction or response. However, the revelations given by the Holy Spirit represent the truth meant to help and guide us along the way.

As devil's minions get to know more of God's revelations, they copy and try to entice and seduce you by using the tactics they think will work according to their understanding of the revelations. But if someone's wearing the breastplate of righteousness, it won't work on him or her.

No righteous or godly person tries to lure or seduce someone whom God has ordained for another, but there are devil's minions with 'NO' sense of right or wrong who are fools enough to poke their nose into God's plan (like my roommate – who can be very insulting and condescending at times for no reason but can also put up a show of being nice. If she was righteous, she wouldn't poke her nose in my business, but here she was, copying everything – me and God's revelations for some time now).

Vision (Room D1, Mid 2022): Boat filled with many people. (This notebook is an Ark of faith that will sail many through rough waters and to the Kingdom of God). The boat vision is related to the dream (will write about it later) ending with a HUGE golden building with 'BARUK HABA' written on it.

2. The Pearl Path

Vision (Room D1, Sept/Oct 2022): Beautiful dark blue night path going backwards with white shining blobs on very fine-branched bushes on the sides of the track.

The Secret Place Revelations

The scene then changed to 'Love' being written in pearl white on the same colored (dark blue) night background and immediately changed to 'Loved', thereby ending the vision. (Goes together with two revelations of the Holy Spirit – one where God was so pleased that I had a burst of Holy Spirit on my head, and another vision within the past one or two months where I saw a drop fall on my head. When the period of being pleased is over, the person leaves you, and you go further forward in the next things God wants you to do.)

3. The Short Light Brown Camel

Dream (Room D4, Oct-Dec 2021): Towards the end of the dream, I went inside a home with some people amidst volatile outer environment as it didn't seem safe. I then found myself sleeping on a mattress on the floor inside the room right behind the main door of the supposed home, and my youngest brother was there too but he was sleeping on a different mattress on the floor. The surroundings looked quite organized and clean. We could hear the intermittent sounds of the volatile environment coming from outside. To the right of the door was a pane of many glass windows that covered a large part of the wall. There was a knock on the door after a while. Instead of opening the door, I opened one of the windows and saw the bodily puffed-up character from CID named 'Daya' ('Kindness' in English) peeking through the window to talk to me. He said, "My wife's daughter... my mom's daughter Divya is sleeping. Have to meet her." As I was listening to him, I was smiling inside as I looked at him. Perhaps he didn't recognize me. I then turned back and walked forward towards the end of the room and then turned right into a room that looked very much messed up and like a zoo as it had birds flying and animals walking openly. I walked to my right and saw a wary light brownish short camel passing by in front of me (the color did not represent the skin color of a person, but we can understand how it is related to the context of the situation if we read further). The room supposedly represented an ark as there were animals and birds moving in a ruckus and no longer being caged like they were in the first ark dream. As I continued walking in that direction, I found two people (a short-heighted guy standing with a short-heighted girl) standing there and asked them if 'Divya' was there. And they nodded their heads as they were smiling and pointed to a niche in a supposed book rack towards their right. The niche was filled with stubble. I took it out and found the small head with very sparse and thin hair of a sleeping infant peeking out of the niche. The dream then ended. (I don't know whose child it was but the fact that it laid behind that stubble to me represented that it was being formed separately in an unconventional manner). This is the second ark dream that I was referring to on Page 10 (Jesus Saves; Dream of an Ark).

The Secret Place Revelations

4. Jesus Dancing with His Bride

Vision (Room D4, Oct 2021): Far-sighted vision of Jesus in a close slow duet with His bride alone in a HUGE room decorated with flowers.

5. Dancing with Jesus Amidst Bright Sunlight

Vision (At my sitting place in the Dept, Sept/Oct 2022): At-a-distance vision of Jesus's huge left arm (hiding most of the wall behind) dressed in full-sleeved off-white cotton and moving slowly, as if in a duet, inside a room filled with soothing yellow light coming through the window behind His arm. I had this vision while listening to a Worship song. Oh, how His presence is filled with deep peace, and you feel truly and deeply loved!!

6. Jesus Lifting Up His Child In His Arms

Vision (Room D4,): Jesus quickly rushing towards me (and He was very huge in size compared to me), and the next thing I saw was Him lifting a fat infant (who represented me) up high in His hands and pampering her. He did this in response to my thoughts going towards being idolatrous as I was tending to (about to) put my whole heart in one direction. So, He immediately rushed towards me and lifted me up high as His child because He is the one who is supposed to have my (our) whole heart as He is my (our) Creator. He was smiling hugely and looked SO SO beautiful as He looked at me as His child in both His hands.

7. The Jealous Lion

Vision (2021): A jealous lion landing fiercely with a thud on top of the Bonnet of the car that I was in with Glory right in front of us. I again was going into an idolatrous mode focusing entirely on Glory in that vision and about to create an isolated reality of love devoid of Him. So, He came right in and reminded me who He is to me!!

8. The Crowned Fat Cat

Vision (Room D1, Sept/Oct 2022): I had this vision a few days after I scratched a tiffin's cover lying in the kitchen with the image of a cartoonish cat and 'Hello Kitty' written on it. In that vision, an innocent-looking fat and light brownish cat was standing on its back legs wearing a crown with straight forelegs (looked as if she was standing like a human). By far, the Holy Spirit has shown me four visions related to the thoughts of this child of God since 2020, and one healing dream which will come to pass and which is not a thought (the assignment in pink and yellow).

Related dreams and visions by far

1. A Naked Fat Infant

Vision (2020): A naked fat demonic infant (with completely black eyes) lying in a dark background. It may imply the person being heavily demonically influenced and not necessarily demonically possessed because he was still represented by the image of an infant by the Holy Spirit which would mean utter inner innocence shadowed over by demonic influences. It represented his 'spiritual' state and not the physical one.

2. The Striped Green Dress

Vision (2020): Animated vision of the upper body of a woman with straight hair dressed in a green dress with very thin shoulder strips;

3. The Whisper & the Healing

Part of a dream (2020): The Assignment of Healing in Pink & Yellow (Page 37)

4. Vision (2021): Guy dressed in a white shirt and black pants falling in an endless-in-sight vertical pit – representing a deep fall;

5. Part of a dream (2021): Inside the ark represented by a room

6. 'Dream-vision' (2021): A short-heighted guy dressed in a black and white striped prison suit sitting to my right over legs folded behind and staring at me as I was half asleep on my bed;

7. Part of a dream (2021): A short-heighted guy lying alone on bed and masturbating (with a speed I never thought was possible) while looking at the phone in his other hand ; (I was sitting outside near the room's window wearing my pink-striped white collared kurta with pyjama from school days – don't know why that particular outfit was shown though; additionally, I was sitting on the ledge in the Indian Toilet Style on both legs to balance myself).

8. Vision (2021): Representation by the character of a villain in the Hindi movie Dushman – the vision had his face burning in anger and jealousy looking at a rough background scene that had a woman serving something in a plate to another man.

9. Vision (Room D4, 2021): He was forcefully raping a woman on her knees (Edit on 19th Nov, 2022: It was a quite far-sighted but well-lit half-animated vision where one couldn't make out the features of the people involved, but the figures could be well discerned. It now looks to me him not actually raping the woman but that that's rather just his style of doing things, because if I pay close attention to the beginning of the vision, the vision had a naked tall exhausted woman fall on all fours as the lean shorter naked guy standing behind her started moving, and then the vision ended.)

10. Vision (Room D1, Aug/Sept/Oct 2022): Face of Death Conqueror colored with silver paint and making weird expressions.

11. Vision (Room D1, Sept/Oct 2022): Vision of neatly groomed eyebrows with forehead and blurry eyes that seemed to have no makeup.

12. Vision (Room D1, Sept/Oct 2022): Fat cat wearing a crown (described above)

13. Dream (Room D1, Late Oct/Early Nov 2022): Will write the details later but he behaved like a 'good boy' in that dream, and it was prophetic. It was an unexpected revelation because I had been preparing according to how God had been counselling me in my walk towards His promised person 'Glory'. But then He revealed to me in this dream a snippet of my time with the fat infant. It was a good revelation.

This guy whom God once characterized as having the character of the villain (of a Hindi movie Dushman) was represented by that character in that vision only and not any other. So I would think that he had acquired or incited those traits in that situation as negative emotions paved way for demons to whisper themselves in his ear. He will 'continue' to have this certain part of his character for a while (because of vision in the 8th revelation in the above list) though it will dampen (change) with time. This negative character trait will eventually change, and that's why he was shown to me as being inside the ark in #5: being inside the ark represents being 'saved'. Though currently, he may not be having 'all' the required traits, God is looking at the 'great' potential, and the fact that he was inside the ark implies that God's work on his heart will come to fruition. Though he is currently sinning, he is important to God and will be saved (after some events) as I've understood. God is working to 'save' him which will be the result of the change in his heart/character. God looks at the gold inside of a person and will go to any extent to bring that gold forth by helping that person bring about a change in his other negative character traits through different situations and circumstances.

9. 3 dreams related to things/events that are to take place prior to the event represented by the prophetic symbol in room D4 (a face, a fist, and a bouquet - together in one symbol). The prophetic symbol is the event that will come to pass when God will have me go out at night to search for it.

The Secret Place Revelations

10. Vision (March-June 2022): Huge 'LOVE' in 3D bold translucent capitals being on fire in a black background.

14th Nov 2022

1. Vision (Room D1, Mid 2022): A figure of a man on fire with no visible features who is burning in a fiery rectangular basin, and as he tries to get out of that fire, he falls back into it. He gets out and without completely getting out quickly gets himself back into the basin. There was no one else in that basin, but just fire, and the man was on fire - this is the nature of sinful indulgence where the sinner just burns for the sake of burning, and the 'basin' is practically empty being equivalent to 'just' being on fire – ungodly satanic indulgence which is worshipped by idolaters of the flesh system who idolize and worship human genitals. – present character of 'Glory'. And such idolaters not just worship satan's system, they make a public display of it as if their loveless acts are something to be proud of and a good thing to do. I prayed to God that I did not really like or want to follow in His Will for me with this ungodly person whom I have come to abhor, but I know that what He has spoken will unfold. And I also prayed to Him that my own will doesn't include being involved with two people at different times, but I would rather have only one to keep (the one previously sinner who turns to Him and has a pure heart) after His consideration, but again, I prayed and also know that it's His Will and not mine that be done in the end. Perhaps that's why He replaced this 'Glory' person in a few visions by Himself, because He knew that I won't otherwise be motivated to work out what I have to for His purpose to be filled here. Months after the dream that had the event which is symbolized in Room D4, this year He replaced Himself with that event as I was sitting on roof and was filled with love for Jesus, so that when the event comes to pass, I would know that it's Jesus instead of that person and so I would go along with it, without considering who is present in place of Him because considering the actual person would make me not want to walk in what I am supposed to be walking in. And the walk is equivalent of saying yes to Jesus as it would lead to the unfolding of events that are a part of God's Will and would lead me to my final abode in the end.

I would rather die for a sinner who has a pure heart and later repents and turns to God, instead of an ungodly and vain person. As I recall that vision mentioned first on Page 49 and relate it with the content on Pages 11 (Saber leaving for Avalon (Heaven) after completing her task) and 68 (beheading of the bride of Christ), what comes to my mind is that perhaps it was only about protecting that other person at the moment so that God is glorified through the miracle. But what God has spoken will unfold – He doesn't waste His breath (as said by Sis Adele).

In the dream, where I saw a huge white camel lying whenever I looked down, the camel was lying in front of a 'train' that was at rest and had its doors open. People were entering and leaving it, but the train was at rest. Almost as if the camel needed to be given water after which the train could leave. After seeing that white camel there for many times in the dream, as I kept going to the roof and looked down, I saw two girls walking towards me at my ground level. One had short kinda frizzy hair, and I pointed that camel to her, pointing his condition. I thought she may help him, because somehow I wasn't able to go down and give him water as there was no way, and also whenever I came across the scene of that camel from my level above, I wasn't carrying any water with me. That girl just stood there as she was giving me a shocked smile and the dream ended there.

Vision (Room D4, Late 2021/Early 2022): Hand of a raptor (green with three raptor-like fingers) over my side trying to (spiritually) muzzle me.

Page 84. The Place Where I Saw Jesus Standing Earlier This Year

08 November 2022

I was walking to and fro on my PG's roof at night earlier this year, and as I reached at the rail facing the road, I turned around and as I did so, I saw Jesus standing behind and near that shed. Seeing Him I couldn't decide for a while what should I do. As I decided that I would brisk walk towards Him instead of running, He disappeared. I was thinking of Him before and as my longing for Him became too intense, He showed up. This is how it has been Whenever I really want His presence or am too overwhelmed by who He is and can't hold it together, He makes a brief appearance in a vision or for real. His appearance on the roof was for real and not in a vision. Though I've seen Him appear in front in a vision momentarily when I was meditating on Him, thinking about Him as a part of growing closer to Him and developing a stronger bond. Your bond with God truly depends on the state of your heart towards Him.

I'm so grateful that He loves me enough to not let me fall into sin in the first place as He immediately makes a move and brings me into the right mind by showing up or via other means - like He prevented me from having an idolatrous mindset towards a person as I was approaching it and made an immediate move and reminded me of Him, and me as being His child.

I realized this while walking on the roof this evening - that there are people God never corrects as they are unsavable or rejected of Him (reprobates). Then there are some to whom He points out what they're doing wrong and therefore brings them on the right path, and then there are those whom He doesn't even let fall into sin and comes to their rescue at the right moment. I fall in the last two categories and so do all 'His' children. He corrects me on the things that I am already doing wrong, and at times prevents me beforehand from going into a sinful mindset. This is Love - where God will care enough to come to your rescue 'before' you sin as He doesn't want you to sin (He loves you enough to come rushing to you as His eyes are on you and what you do). At other times, He is patient and highlights the sin that you're already committing so that you can change it. How great He is. I am just amazed and enchanted by Him. My beautiful and Lovely King - praiseworthy and deserving of it all - all the Praise and Glory!!! Yes. I will give Him glory because I am His creation and He loves it when we do it out of our love for Him.

19:41

I had seen the close-up vision of the face of a woman lying on her side wearing a red eyeliner and it didn't resemble mine at all when I had the vision (Page 48). But I nevertheless took it as an instruction and incorporated it into my life after many months as I wasn't ok at first with it, and now after having lost almost 10 kgs of weight, I noticed today that my face resembles that vision. It looks very different than it used to when I was obese, so I couldn't have even fathomed back when I had the vision that the face was actually mine. But that vision has manifested to a great extent now. It almost gave me a bit of subtle joy to see things manifest and unfold as I saw months back. So I know now that the belly vision would also manifest, along with others.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8 (Tree of Life Version)

A Time For Everything

3 For everything there is a season and a time for every activity under heaven:
2 a time to give birth and a time to die,
a time to plant and a time to uproot what is planted;
3 a time to kill and a time to heal,
a time to tear down and a time to build up;
4 a time to weep and a time to laugh,
a time to mourn and a time to dance;
5 a time to scatter stones and a time to gather stones, a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing;
6 a time to seek and a time to lose, a time to keep and a time to discard;
7 a time to tear apart and a time to mend,
a time to be silent and a time to speak;
8 a time to love and a time to hate,
a time for war and a time for peace.

The Secret Place Revelations

Edit:

10:36 (11th Nov 2022)

Additionally, in that vision, the hair of that woman were open and kinda straight but wavy and frizzy and thin and much lesser in volume than what I had at that time. And after going through a period of time, I noticed yesterday that my hair have gained that texture and shape as I have lost a good amount too. It was because of the hair and the slimness of the face that it wasn't apparent that it was me at the time I had the vision. But things fall into their place in their time. So we need to keep walking in faith. It's not about what God promises us, but it is about if we love Him enough to continue in His commands and walk through what He has set out in front of us as His Will.

The promises God makes to us are good and they are to bring us some kind of joy and relief which He wants for us to receive from His hands, but the promise itself as an object would be of no value if God wasn't a part of it. Of course, His children are to be loved by us the way He has loved us, but any promise (either it involves a land – as in the case of the Israelites, or a person – as in my case) wouldn't be of as much of value as it gains when given by the hands of God.

As I also shared in one of my FB posts, the promises of God are our true inheritance and anything else, no matter how huge or great it may be that we may want to attain for ourselves, will not bring us to a place of True Rest. True rest lies in God's best for us. And true rest signifies the state of constant inner communion with God in (one's) heart as you rest in a state of peace and contentment as you do things you ought to do. In other words, the inner rest that God has ordained for us brings true contentment and rest to our restless hearts.

13:20

What applied to me on Page 58 also applies to the bully – 'separating the do from the who and looking at the heart instead as God works on it'

I received an encouraging Word from Sis Adele on 31st August which related to my situation and what I had recently done a few days back on 27th August. I am sharing a part of it here below.

"You need to learn to separate your "who" from your "do". What you achieve for God from your own human point of view is not the same as how God views that achievement. You might be wearying and tiring yourself out at the moment because you think your efforts have not been enough to achieve what you think should have been achieved on this pathway God has you on.

The apostle Paul achieved chains and prison for his efforts. And yet he said in Philippians 1:12 (NIV) – Now I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that what has happened to me has actually served to advance the gospel. Paul separated his "who" from his "do". He understood that effort and achievement viewed from his perspective does not necessarily align with God's view of achievement of that effort. Paul understood that even though he poured himself out constantly and laboured continuously for the Kingdom of God, and reaped chains and prison as achievement or result for his effort, that achievement and result had great benefit from a Kingdom standpoint and not a worldly one.

Do not become distracted with your efforts and the result of those efforts. Trust God with your efforts and the works you do for Him as He is the one who works in you to accomplish all things for His purposes, His way, in His timing. Even if your results of your efforts might not look like much to you, in God's eyes it is pleasing and achieves much in His Kingdom as you operate from a position of obedience, willingness and submission to His will and way. Keep going.

Wasn't it those sinners who 'knew' that they were sinners and therefore needed God's forgiveness, as they loved Him. God gave Himself completely over for them so that they be saved and changed.

Luke 15:7
New International Version

7 I tell you that in the same way there will be more rejoicing in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who do not need to repent.

From <<https://www.biblegateway.com/passage/?search=Luke%2015%3A7&version=NIV>>

Therefore, a demonic child who turns to God and gets saved is FAR more valuable than a righteous child who goes corrupt later or never feels that he needs God. God had his heart set towards sinners as His purpose in coming to Earth in flesh. He LOVED them while they were still sinners, and He died for them still while they were sinners.

Isn't He far happier when a child of His who was pursuing wickedness at first turns to the right because of a change of heart caused by His love for His child? Doesn't that establish and make firm the REAL creator-child relationship between Him and His previously wicked children?

The Secret Place Revelations

God's heart is filled when a child of His turns to Him and is renewed because of the same.

It's a love story of God and His children who turned away from wickedness and turned back to Him.

Page 88. Spiritual Significance of Names

13 November 2022

13:41

At times a person may not exhibit the characteristics implied by the meaning of his/her name, but the name still may have a spiritual significance because of the person's role in God's plan.

The promised person is named 'Glory' in meaning, but his character traits don't resemble those of Jesus, though some of them may be resembling. But his name has a significance because of his role in God's plan as I spiritually represent the Bride of Christ. Likewise, two people from my workplace who were shown to me in a dream as looking at things with their right eye, spiritually represent the lean and fat sheep of God, as they physically are one lean and another fat as well.

Does the fact that the name of the promised person is Glory (though he may not be having the character traits of the King of Glory) diminish the significance of the demonic infant God wants saved? Didn't God die for that child of His too so that he is set free from his bondage of sin?

And is it a coincidence that Jesus is called the Lion of Judah who 'conquered death', and the meaning of the name of the demonic infant happens to be the same - one who conquers death (which is a result of turning to God and witnessing an inner change). Again, we see the spiritual significance of names.

Though I may have written significantly more about my revelations related to 'Glory', but that was because I was still learning and understanding how things work in the Kingdom of God and it took many words to make sense of things from a human point of view with a limited understanding. Now I have a greater understanding of God as a person and the spiritual gifts He gives us and how He uses His children to bring about 'His' plan to fruition. So if I were to write the same info now again, I would perhaps write it in a more concise manner and not get easily overwhelmed as I receive revelations, because God has strengthened and matured me and I can face situations without having a lot of associated negative emotions.

The Secret Place Revelations

Its' a SERPENT
WORLD ===WAKE _

Yess!! It's a serpent world. And so many people are still running after their flesh when we are called to lose it. With each passing day, I become more and more aligned with the fact that I don't belong here. And I know that by the time I have reached the time of my departure, I would have come out of this world mentally entirely knowing what it really is and that God saved His people out of it whom He wanted saved. Our job here is not to live like we are gonna live forever so we have to build a life here. We live like astronauts on Earth waiting for our time of redemption, and praying for those we love - that they too are able to escape the system. But often some are too blinded that they just don't want to change their perception of the world as their source of entertainment and see it as what it really is - a hidden demonic reality with angels trapped in flesh.

I also learned with time to not give too much importance to roles that people are supposed to fulfill acc to their place. We see people failing all the time and it's the norm here - and most of the time their immoral behavior is intentional and not something beyond their control. While I gave up my expectations from 'official' roles, at the same time I also learned to love unconditionally the people to whom I may not be related with a title.

It doesn't bother me now if someone is keeping up to the standards they ought to fulfill while I previously I won't even get involved with those people whom I observed to be without integrity. Because at the end of it, I have come to understand through various channels that this place is a sham and our only job as ambassadors of Christ is to proclaim the gospel and get people out of this cannibalistic system. If a person ends up getting up saved at the end but suffers a terrible earthly fate or feels his/her life just got ruined bcz of some or the other reason - then whatever they went through was all worth it.

I lost all care about what others are doing irrespective of their supposed place in my life - because I've also come to accept and understand that they are also a creation of God and therefore not someone great that they should be placed on a pedestal where they are supposed to fulfill standards they need to fulfill. That way when they sin against us or God, we can easily forgive them. I learned to trust in the Lord with all my heart and not in a man or woman. I learned to trust in His faithfulness, love, and compassion. He gave me some physical experiences so that I know that I am loved and valuable in His sight and am not judged by the vain standards an ungodly man judges. He knew the pace at which I would be progressing in His Will, so He did what was necessary so that I have my own experiences with Him to cherish irrespective of what another ungodly created being does or how high he thinks of himself that he would try to publicly mock me in a way by showcasing his immoral acts right in front of my place. It hardly had any affect on me bcz I had the same experiences given by God who has loved me eternally and not by another person in a moment of temporary fleshly gratification.

JESUS is my Eternal Love who is waiting for me in Heaven and who secured me with His blood, and not any man or woman, and He is 'forever' faithful. He is the First, the Last, and everything in between, and anything else we receive or if we happen to receive love from another person - it's all because of Him. If the person God promised me slept with 2000 women and he did it right in front of my eyes, I would still be not moved as I know that I would be held close to Jesus in His arms and be comforted by 'His' love which is REAL. And if He wants to tie me up with someone with the character of a pig, I would still go ahead with it, because Jesus is my Husband first (and also my Creator), and I change, morph and walk acc to His Will (and not to please another man), and am loved by Him with an infinite and everlasting love which the children of the serpent race will never get to experience. (Hosea married a prostitute as instructed by God). I don't love Jesus bcz He gave me sparkling revelations of Himself. I love Him irrespective of how He revealed Himself to me. Though he also made the point that it's ok to look shiny (though not necessary). And 'He' wants to morph me into looking a way that is compliant with His plan. And won't I do it if I love Him? He is the potter and I am the clay. He can change me as He wants as He has the right to do so.

I now wish and want to see in the spirit all the time, through and disregarding physical bodies, and not be deceived by what we see with our physical eyes - that way we will always be witnessing the truth.

Hosea 1:2 (New Living Translation)

2 When the Lord first began speaking to Israel through Hosea, he said to him, "Go and marry a prostitute, [b] so that some of her children will be conceived in prostitution. This will illustrate how Israel has acted like a prostitute by turning against the Lord and worshipping other gods."

One of the events of the prophetic dream of main significance written on Page 53 had me passing by a long white car from a distance and shouting at it as I passed by it. And the person inside was supposedly the demonized infant talked about on Page 83. I shouted at the person inside and turned to the other side and walked away in anger. But I never actually did it in my real life. But I did it in that dream, and it signifies that though I may not have shouted externally or even internally, my demeanor or behavior was equivalent to that. I recently happened to come across a short clip recommended on YouTube (a fun video of a mom and her child) but the title was related to 'shouting in sign language'. After that, the shouting event from the dream on Page 53 kept catching my attention in my mind as it kept recurring to me implying that I did do that, not by actually shouting but by having a resentful attitude that resembled hatred, and that's also how it was perceived. (In the dream, this shouting event occurred many events before the 'open slaughter' event. So we know that we are moving ahead in the timeline of this dream also, along with others simultaneously.)

I had shouted off loudly with a lot of hatred in my dream. It's good that God showed me how my demeanor actually came across. I don't want to shout at anyone like that. But I was sick of what I had been observing for some time now since my breach of privacy – passing by strangers who place themselves at strategic positions and wait like pickup artists, and they blow horns uselessly and flash their lights to get attention. Not all have pure hearts and the right motives. And I am prone to misjudgment because I am not God who can discern the bone and marrow of someone's heart and mind effortlessly.

But still, the incident revealed to me my own shortcomings. I can learn from God's nature of love and patience. I wish I could undo my perceived shouting – because the way something is perceived also reveals the inner self of the other person. And the way it was perceived added to my perception and understanding of the situation and the other person. So I repented before God and I know that He has already forgiven me.

In that slaughter event from the same dream, I was walking and then someone started accusing me in front of some criminals that 'SHE's done it! SHE's done it! (Or she's responsible for whatever happened)' And then that tall and fluffed criminal asked me if 'I did it' to which I replied with a 'No' (being scared). And then he targeted others that were present at that place resulting in a slaughter. It was about to turn into a public massacre, and then I started intensely asking or praying to God to help put an end to the situation, but then I caught myself in an act that calmed everything down. So I know now what I will have to do when such a situation arises.

1. Dream-Vision (April-May 2021): A cat takes a step towards me and makes a fierce 'meow' as if it is going to attack me after which I wake up. (representative of a truth - that cat's me who did make that huge meow).
2. Vision (Room D4, Late 2021/Early 2022): Bow of a sky blue tie being highlighted by transparent moving lines in the vision showing only the neck of a man with a white shirt and black suit on top.
3. Vision (March-April 2022): A grave amidst bushes of colorful flowers. (I had it within the few days of creating my supposed vanity box to store stuff using a cardboard box and floral wallpaper)
4. Vision (Aug-Sept 2022): Golden eyeshadow with mild sparkle (Instruction/Counsel)
5. Vision (Aug-Sept 2022): My smiling lower face with red lipstick and head slightly bent to its left with upper body wearing the green sweater (Instruction)
6. Vision (Sept/Oct 2022): A finger with a long golden nail in a golden surrounding calling me towards itself (Instruction/Counsel)
7. Dream (one of the three dreams that I received in a row in room D4, one had my wedding, another had Jesus shutting the door in my face, and the last one had the lion finally coming as everyone was mocking me about him not having made his appearance yet): I have written throughout about the first two dreams here, but not about the third one. I will write about it soon.

The counseling revelations that God gave me pertained to not only the person He very apparently promised to me, but many of the revelations were related to the other person (fat infant) whom God started revealing things about to me since 2020, but I didn't take those revelations seriously. But God worked on my heart and helped me to look through the correct lenses. Three revelations for sure from the above list pertain to the infant, perhaps five.

There are some revelations related to 'Glory' God gave me that I didn't write about here and don't feel like, because I end up thinking why did God ordain such events for me with this person. He could have chosen someone else for him who matched his fairy standard and was just like him in character – the young immoral who thinks (s)he is doing others a favor by not sleeping around while it's for one's own sake and soul that one abstains from random involvements as one doesn't want one's soul defiled! But God promised him to me and I have to walk in His Will and change as He leads and guides me. He is changing me according to both people as He gives me revelations related to both. I recently realized that I not only receive revelations regarding the thoughts of 'Glory' but also of the 'Grave Conqueror' - both the titles relate to Jesus.

And within the past few months, I had this line from a Hindi song play in my spirit that I couldn't understand why it was being highlighted to me. But after understanding some revelations I understood that the line implied that "I have 'two' precious gems" – Glory and Death Conqueror, which was never my own will (to be involved with more than one person), but God has ordained and changed my heart according to His plan and purposes.

On the other hand, I also understood something more as something from my BSc days, while I was still living in the place (Saroj Sadan) adjacent to my present one during 2010-2012, was recently brought to my attention by the Holy Spirit, and also the time around I first happened to come across 'Death Conqueror', and how everything was connected, and I also received further understanding related to the first vision written on this page – that cat represents me. Perhaps I will write about it later.

In that dream, after I whispered that phrase in his year, the screen to my right now had a change, while previously I had prayed verbally, then looked at the screen, then prayed in tongues, and looked again, but there was no change. After the screen changed showing the motions of a normal person, he got up from the hospital bed which was laid in open, and got down from it, and I was smiling as he was healed and now up. Then I moved towards him to my right, and he was looking straight, and when I stood close to him facing him on his left side - his head close to my bosom because of his short stature (around 5 feet tall) – he looked away to his right with an expressionless face and then walked away in front of me as I watched him. And while this took place, I could hear a few voices that said in Hindi, "She was to be married to him." After he was out of my sight, I turned to the other side to answer the lady who came forward to question me (with a mic held towards me) and I said softly – 'God did this', after which the dream ended.

The Secret Place Revelations

Because of the things that must be ensuing before this event, I sometimes feel a bit scared, and it makes me want to stay away from him, because I don't want anyone have their perception of life ruined, though it's all a delusion on earth. I've become quite comfortable with this reality (of the truth of the Earth system), but it may be hard for others to accept – but if they do accept it, it would be the best thing that could happen to them. You have to lose your life on Earth and your perception of it in order to find it with God in Heaven.

I had this dream back when I was at home during the lockdown in 2020.

Whatever past sins he is carrying in his bag, he needs to repent of them and be transformed, be it incest or other sins – repent together with the other guilty party and enter the ark together with her in order that they may escape this earthly trap – a temporary party meant to delude people away from God – an attempt to hide from Him and do one's own thing.

Song of Songs 3 (Verses 1-5)

New International Version

3 All night long on my bed

I looked for the one my heart loves;

I looked for him but did not find him.

2 I will get up now and go about the city, through its streets and squares;

I will search for the one my heart loves.

So I looked for him but did not find him.

3 The watchmen found me as they made their rounds in the city.

The Secret Place Revelations

"Have you seen the one my heart loves?"
4 Scarcely had I passed them when I found the one my heart loves.
I held him and would not let him go till I had brought him to my mother's house, to the room of the one who conceived me.
5 Daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you by the gazelles and by the does of the field:
Do not arouse or awaken love until it so desires.

Tree of Life Version

The King on his Wedding Day

6 Who is this—she who is coming up from the wilderness like columns of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with every powder of the merchant?
7 Behold, it is Solomon's traveling couch—around it are sixty warriors from the warriors of Israel.
8 All of them wield a sword, experts in war.
Each man with his sword on his thigh against terrors of the night.
9 King Solomon has made for himself a carriage from the trees of Lebanon.
10 He made its posts of silver, its back of gold, its seat of purple cloth, its interior fitted out with love by the daughters of Jerusalem.
11 Go out, daughters of Zion, and gaze upon King Solomon, with a wreath his mother placed on him on the day of his marriage—

Contemporary English Version

Beautiful Dreams

She Speaks:

- 3 While in bed at night,
I reached for the one I love with heart and soul.
I looked for him,
 but he wasn't there.
- 2 So I searched through the town for the one I love.
I looked on every street,
 but he wasn't there.
- 3 I even asked the guards
 patrolling the town,
"Have you seen the one
 I love so much?"
- 4 Right after that, I found him.
I held him and would not let go until I had taken him to the home of my mother.
- 5 Young women of Jerusalem, promise me by the power of deer and gazelles, never to awaken love
 before it is ready.

The Groom and the Wedding Party

Their Friends Speak:

The Secret Place Revelations

- 6 What do we see approaching from the desert like a cloud of smoke?
With it comes the sweet smell of spices, including myrrh and frankincense.
- 7 It is King Solomon carried on a throne, surrounded by sixty of Israel's best soldiers.
- 8 Each of them wears a sword.
They are experts at fighting, even in the dark.
- 9 The throne is made of trees from Lebanon.
- 10 Its posts are silver,
the back is gold,
and the seat is covered with purple cloth.
You women of Jerusalem have taken great care to furnish the inside.[b]
- 11 Now come and see the crown given to Solomon by his mother on his happy wedding day.

2. The Wedding

In my dream that is continuing in its timeline, as I passed through one event to another, I went out one night wearing a certain set of clothes (my pink shawl and denim skirt), and looked for Glory. And I didn't find him, and then I had left some people standing in a group as I must have asked them something, and the next thing I saw was him revealing himself from behind a vehicle, to which I said: 'I was expecting this'. When I had his dream, it didn't make sense to me but I just remembered what I saw – all the events in the order that I had seen them. Most of the events prior to this one have come to pass in exactly the manner that was shown symbolically to me, where I was even wearing the clothes in those events that I had seen in one of my dreams. I had three dreams in a row and the Holy Spirit woke me up at 'key' endings of those dreams. I am denoting those three dreams as Dream 1, Dream 2 and Dream 3. These are the events from the Dream 1 that have come to pass until now:

1. Event from Dream: I was walking in a line in a well-lit setting going from one table (set high with food in a circular manner) to another table.

Manifestation in Real Life: There was a time I was eating a lot during last year as I ate three times and I ate to my fill.

2. Event from Dream: During that itinerary, Glory appeared out of nowhere at my right wearing striped pink, white and grey shirt, and was looking at me as if he had come to meet me, but I looked at him and passed him by.

Manifestation in Real Life: Glory came below my PG wearing a pink, white and grey striped shirt and stood there with some people for some time expecting me to come meet him. At that time, I didn't have a clear memory of this dream, so I forgot his appearance in the dream. Also, I didn't go downstairs to meet him as I didn't feel a nudge from within.

3. Event from Dream: I continued further in my walk forward and he appeared again at my right and was looking expectantly at me, this time looking kinda dirty as he was wearing dusty red sweatshirt sort of, but I looked at him and passed him by again.

Manifestation in Real Life: After I was done talking to a girl from my roof who was staying in the PG I used to previously stay in, as I was walking downstairs, I happened to see Glory again through the glass window of my PG, but this time he was wearing dusty clothes with a sweatshirt, and was walking on road looking down at his phone.

4. Event from Dream: After a while, I left that food zone, and found myself sitting with an Aunt who was represented to be resting on a bed with her back against a wall to my left as I ate with her and I was wearing the bracelet that she had given me.

Manifestation in Real Life: Things so followed that that Aunt herself came to meet me and we went out and ate together and I did wear her gifted bracelet. The fact that she was represented as resting on a bed implied that she found rest in her time with me.

5. Event from Dream: I then started walking and left that Aunt and entered another zone which represented another event where I saw food preparations being done for a gathering, and then I entered a gathering of people who were not really dressed for a party but were dressed casually. In that event, I talked to some of them and was wearing my long floral blue kurta.

Manifestation in Real Life: I went to my dad's retirement in March and met and interacted with people there. All were dressed casually, and I was wearing the same blue kurta. I just happened to pick it up to wear at his retirement as I hadn't worn it outside even once and also because of the fact that it didn't look too casual. So, I thought it would be good for his retirement.

6. Event from Dream: I went out at night wearing my long denim skirt and pink upper woolen wrap. I was taking turns and moving forward, and then I saw myself leaving a group of people standing together on road who were supposedly saying something. The next thing I saw was Glory revealing Himself from behind a white car to my right (perhaps he was hiding there) and apparently, he looked quite filled with joy as his eyes were wide open and looked teary as well, and he had a huge toothful smile on his face as I looked down at him where he was dressed in a red suit with a white shirt (the attire of God the Father in yet another dream I described previously), and had a bouquet of red roses in his fist close to his face making the symbol (a face, a fist and a bouquet) that was manifested in room D4. As I saw him abruptly showing himself up in that pose, I said that I was expecting that. The next thing was blurry as I probably sat down to his level, but when the vision of the dream gained clarity again, I saw him now having stood up and pointing with his right forefinger to his left. Apparently, he must be telling me something or inviting me to a place. After that, I took that bouquet from his hand and told him – 'I have to talk to my dad'. He then left to his left and I to my left (in an opposite direction to him), and then I found myself walking alone with a slight limp towards my wedding's entrance which had a few huge flower bouquets outside the door. I was wearing the same clothes (long denim skirt and pink shawl). As I entered it, I saw him standing with other people at a good distance with his back towards me (or the entrance). There must've been some other details that took place between him leaving after I told him that I had to talk to my dad, and before I entered into that place. But they were not shown to me. But apparently, all of it took place on the same night. (I think this is the most detailed event God made sure to show me out of all the other events) In the next scene, I walked and stood behind Glory a step ahead to his left as he was now sitting on one of the red steel chairs in a row with other people on both his sides. And then I saw another guy come up very close to me from my front and talk to me while the sitting row of Glory was right to my right hand.

My thoughts: This has not yet manifested in real life, and it also shows that all other attempts made by Glory are going to fail as well, because God has ordained His Will already. I however went downstairs in one of his previous attempts for a local wedding (downstairs in the street) though I knew that that wasn't the way God had shown things to unfold. I went because I was expecting the unfolding of a different event shown to me and not the one talked about above, and also because they already organized it. (At least I am quite straightforward and go to them directly instead of organizing events supposed to 'lure' or mentally hint them into being a part of.) None of the events above were expected or anticipated by me, but they did come to pass. Also, God is changing me like a potter. Additionally, God told me to lose my extra belly fat and showed me a model that I had to achieve which is also the 'key' that I talked about in one of the previous pages. Instead of keeping the revelations of God to myself, I will rather write them out and just shut my ears to what others have to say about them, because it's not me who ordained these events to take place. If anyone mocks or makes fun, they are mocking God. Also, supposedly I must have had some sort of separation from Glory after the courting process because of which I wasn't supposed to be expecting the event symbolized in room D4 (I'm not sure about why I said that 'I was expecting it', but I did say it in the dream). That's why he was teary. There must be many events that would have taken place before this. And I don't follow what a man or woman wants me to do according to his thoughts or timeline. I follow God and His timeline. Glory may think of me as a dusty person who is fat and ugly, and therefore has to be insulted in indirect ways, but I only listen to God's view of me, and not a man's!! Also, it was not a blurry or random face God showed me who supposedly represented the person He had promised me. I saw the 'exact' face of him in those revelations! So, it shouldn't be thought I am looking for someone I don't know and who doesn't know me. I'm not 'looking' for anyone, as the promised person has already been staying in my vicinity, but some locks need to be opened, keys put in the right place, which would open door to the next thing. And one major key is to attain the model He had shown me – it's a condition set by God so I don't have to think about Glory's view of the condition.

{Edit:

This was the only event which got its symbolic confirmation as the wall art in Room D4. And when I made that wall art, I was just going as I was led, and had no specific direction in mind. And it came to take that form, implying that it was led by the Holy Spirit, and not by my own reasoning. It's a confirmation marker. When I was going out at certain nights last year to make rounds around my place, I had two things in mind – that my Spirit-led act was either the initial ground that I had to set (like Joshua circled the walls of Jericho 7 times before they fell down as God had told them, or like Naman who had to go bath in the Jordan 7 times before he got healed as told to him by prophet Elisha), or I could actually receive the promise as the dream showed. A while after I had received that dream (revelation) from God, the contents of the dream went into my mental hindsight as I forgot most of the dream because the events were kinda casual and could've been a part of a dream which may not necessarily have been prophetic. But this one event was unusual and pertained to the fulfillment of the promise of God – so I remembered clearly this event alone. However, later on, as other preceding events came to pass, and situations led me to make that confirmation-marking symbol in Room D4, I recalled the entire dream and knew that it was indeed prophetic and had a certain timeline that it was following. Like Joshua and his army and Naman, I took my stunt as the initial act of obedience that had to be performed in order for God to do His part like in their cases. God's logic is not our own, nor are His thoughts and ways. Also, He showed me the vision of the night look and the time (in 24 hrs format) pertaining to when I was to set out. Once I was confused and was kind of feeling resentful towards Jesus regarding when exactly I was to go out, and then I saw Him (in the Spirit) sitting in front of me on my bed as I was sitting on my chair facing it, and He was holding a white rectangular sheet/paper which had the time written clearly and His expressions told me that He did understand how I was confused because of the way He had communicated it to me. So, this time He showed it very clearly. So, I did what I was being led to do by Him.

In my thoughts, he should go around his business until God moves any of us, or until He nudges me to tell him that I am ready now to face him and start meeting him. I can't go by my own reasoning {Edit: or else I may step out of my supposed trajectory I am to be walking on. So, I don't make moves until I am led. But I did see the time when the courting process began. But again, God only reveals some parts according to His own wisdom.}

Manifestation in Real Life: Pending (awaiting its appointed time as the intermediate time not shown in the dream comes to pass).

3. Jesus Proposes to His Bride

Vision (Aug/Sept): Jesus in his Full white robes sitting down with a bouquet of flowers in His hands with shining eyes and a toothful smile.

Context: I was sitting on the middle cement stool on the roof and I was praying or saying things to Jesus. And then I was filled with immense love for Him, suddenly, as I thought about Him and then He showed himself to me in that vision above where He was right down in front of me on the roof. It was quite unexpected but it shows how much He loves it when His created people love Him. I have mentioned this vision at some places in previous pages also, where I said that Jesus replaced Glory with Himself symbolizing the event on the wall of Room D4. I think He did it to let me know that saying yes to Glory is equivalent to saying yes to Him, which is also reflected in the vision where I walked towards Glory and armored him after which I saw my head slide off to my left, and the vision where I saw Jesus standing at the top of a staircase with his forearms stretched towards me. Walking towards Glory as he stood with his forearms stretched and leaving the prison-suit is equivalent to facing Jesus afterwards with His forearms stretched towards me. He made this clear to me through those visions.

4. Sis Adele In White

Vision (Aug/Sept): Focused vision of Sis Adele dressed in a beautiful white gown with her hair tied back sitting on a bench with some other men who were also dressed in white robes. The bench may have been long, but the vision only showed her with one or two men in the sight. She was sitting there looking at me and was smiling beautifully. She is the wise virgin who made herself ready.

We as the children of God have to walk in the Will of God. And I was so glad later to 'see' in the ark-room dream that God did save the person whom He had represented to me as the demonized fat infant previously. My heart's desire since I came to know the real God was to have this person saved, who was so persistently chasing after me and was staying at the apartment right above my parental home (or he may be having a few more places to hide). I prayed for him as well after my fast was over one Sabbath day – this person whom I saw as being immoral and evil. I prayed to God to make my Sabbath fruitful by 'saving' this person who wasn't doing the right thing in my eyes. I initially had a sort of hard spot as well for him in my heart. We are called to pray for those who hurt us in one or the other ways. And I knew that God was watching us, or everything, and that He was in control, and therefore He will work things out as He had already called out my name (Kartika) and shown me some things. The Holy Spirit had me prophesy to be having the anointing of 'Rebecca' (in relation to my wedding). I knew therefore that even if my situation seemed oppressive to me as I saw another person trying to erode my boundaries – God was still with me as He had communicated with me a few times by then. So, the only thing that I could do was to pray to God regarding everything. Once, I was trying to pray in tongues out of curiosity when I first got to know about it. I was at home during the lockdown in 2020. I was praying in tongues as it came to me and at the end of each long sentence, I would end up with the name 'Rebecca'. I didn't understand right then what it meant as I didn't even know back then that Rebecca was a person in the Bible. I found it out later on. And then He gave me the two dreams in Room D4 – one which had a huge white camel lying down thirsty (in the same unchanged pose) whenever I looked down from above my PG, and another that had the ark-room where I saw a very short camel pass me by warily (perhaps shorter than my own height) along with an infant who was supposedly a girl.

God saves His sheep. God must have a reason to orchestrate a situation such as this, for the greater good. He holds all answers and wisdom. All we can do is walk in His ordained path and try to live up to what we are called to by God. I never had a two-track mind. I always wanted one person for me and knew that that would be enough for me. And when I came to know God, I knew that God filled that position well. And now I've grown and matured in Him and come to learn how to follow in His Will and have an understanding of how things are going to unfold for me and therefore what expectations I should be having during my time here, and that I can't just do anything I want or make of my life what I personally would want to – this is something the children of the world can't and don't want to do – not have their own plans but walk in the plan of God, however it may be. I would rather have 'one' person for me on Earth in the role of a spouse. But God chose for me to be mingled with two people. One He showed me to be getting wedded to, another He showed me some snippets of my time together with.

While we are on Earth, hearts and bones break. But we live for the hope for Heaven we have as our eternal residence.

The symbolic infant himself admitted indirectly during my time at home in 2020 that 'he had a killer in him', and he was breaching all my boundaries as he sent his tiny cam bots wherever I went and showing me and my family to the world even when we went to use washrooms, and he was not feeling guilty about it at all, and then he thought what was stopping me from coming to him because I definitely did seem to him to be showing some soft spots for him at times. Well, I don't like to hate people except when they are continuously moving forward in their wicked ways.

But God changed my perception of him as He revealed many important things to me.

The Secret Place Revelations

1. Vision of a Short and Thin Guy

Vision (A-17/B, 2010-11): A rough vision (without much details) in dark background of a short-heighted lean and thin guy. My first roommate who was 3-4 years senior to me and much shorter in height was describing the kind of looks she desired in the guy she would want for herself. We were in our room in the PG. She often used to start talking and share stuff on her own with most of my role being that of a listener. She had a difficult past with two failed relationships. So, she often shared things related to her past and all what she went through. One day she happened to be talking about the above and then asked me the same, in response to which I had this vision (I didn't know back then that it could be vision, but it qualifies as a vision looking back at it now).] Edit (15:59 17th Dec 2022): She was then telling me that I could go for a taller guy as I was taller than the norm seen around in women. I then told her that I would prefer someone equal or lesser than me in height. I added the 'equal' criteria as the threshold extension in response to her comment. She was a bit surprised at my initial response, as she wanted a puffed up tall guy for himself. Well, I was feeling a bit repelled too at the same time as I talked to her because I found the talk a very vain, cheap and useless one, but I continued listening to her as she was all too excited describing her desired traits in a guy. When I think about it now, I think that particular figure came to my mind, because it gave the person an innocent and childlike look.

[Edit: God revealed to me later this year in a dream that I was a Teddy person. I didn't know it about myself and didn't even believe it at first when I saw the label 'Teddy Guys' written on me. Also, it doesn't go along with the above vision that had come to me almost a decade back. So I was doubting it's validity until I found out recently that the Teddy look seemed to work with some people. When my roommate had asked me the question, only a lean and thin short-heighted image had come to my mind. Nothing related to a teddy-like person. But God knew what would work with taller people in my case which I found out to be true. I feel a sense of hearty comfort around tall teddy people, while I equate thin short-heighted people to them being innocent and childlike. My first instinctual natural inclination though happened to be the innocent child from the figure that came to my mind as a vision around a decade back.]

2. The Tree Top

Vision (Room D4, Late 2021): This was later manifested as a prophetic tree diagram which I made to use in my research paper. (Edit: The Tree Top Vision on Page 154)

3. Lifted ankles

Vision (Room D4, Late 2021): Ankles of clean feet that lifted themselves high above the ground. (I had previously interpreted it differently thinking that it implied that

The Secret Place Revelations

I have to be on my toes as I go to visit my home due to my granny's demise as I had received the vision on the day of her cremation, and also because my family was to follow pagan rituals, so, I thought perhaps that's why God wants me to be on my toes on my visit – just make a quick to and fro and be back to my place, but now I understand it as keeping ankles above ground as mine happen to accumulate dead skin and crack quicker than others from what I observed.)

4. Resting in Love

Vision (Room D4, Late 2021): In a light reddish hue, I saw Glory's head resting on my neck. We were both still with our eyes closed and my hair were tied low at the back in a small pony.

5. Passion in the Dark Sky

6. Glory Is Crossed With Kareena Kapoor

Vision (Room D4, Late 2021/Early 2022): Vision where the right half (the seer's right) of a blurry guy (Glory) wearing a full sleeves boxy sky blue shirt was visible, and he was standing with his back towards who looked like Kareena Kapoor (from Jab We Met – representing his past view of me) and was wearing a skinny sky blue slip, had open middle partitioned straight black hair with a tiny hair clip on each side, and she was teary-eyed and looked straight and was kinda sobbing. (I think God wanted the vision to be focused on the fact that the guy was standing with his back facing Kareena, and on the look of Kareena herself, and that's why He made her the center of the vision while the right half of the guy was towards the left side of the vision. She looked very flat and thin in that vision.) They were of similar height, perhaps the guy was a bit taller. But the vision was kinda funny to look at.

7. 'Red' and 'Blue & White'

Dream (Room D4, Early 2022): I saw myself walking down some dark stairs, with phone's flashlight in hand, with Glory. I was wearing a red full sleeves suit/kurta with its thick drape around my neck with the loose ends hanging in front (a Holy attire). Glory was dressed in a white t-shirt and blue jeans. I wore red Relaxo flip-flops (because of the dream was why I bought them) and he wore similar blue and white ones. I had my hand around his waist while his around my shoulders. We were stepping down the stairs together with our feet joined together, him after me. I then went down a few more steps and stood at the stairs' U-turn looking forward down on the flashlight-lit stairs. I sensed some fear in the aura of the dream. I turned my head slightly upwards to my right and looked at Glory through the corner of my eye and he quickly came to me and we joined our feet again. I was still looking forward down on the stairs when the dream ended.

The Secret Place Revelations

8. A Bride and Groom In a Duet

This vision was on the wall above the House of the Lord in Room D1 when it was still in its first room setting. The vision was then repeated high on the wall in front of the windows after a few minutes as I kept sitting on my chair, ready and waiting for the time at which I was to go out. I had this vision within 10-15 minutes of the clock hitting 22:00 - time at which I went out at certain nights.

Vision (Room D1, March/April 2022): Semi-animated vision: A bride in white and a groom in black in a duet (they had general faces and did not resemble specific people). This vision told me that this was on God's timeline and plan and that though it may not be coming true that very night, but it was on God's mind. So I knew then that what He promised would indeed come to pass.

[Edit (22:16, 21st Dec 2022): When I had the above vision on the wall, I was sitting on my chair waiting to go out at 22:00 while I had a candle lit in the House of the Lord whose light was illuminating the rose I had made on the wall above the house. I had taken pictures of the lit rose in the dark too but deleted them afterwards. This was when my room was in its previous arrangement of furniture. The rose that I had made is now hidden behind the wardrobe placed in front of the wall. Within the past few week I had a vision (in my mind) where I saw a lion walking towards me with a rose with a long stem held horizontally with its teeth.

9. Offering Breast Suck (BS)

Vision (Room D1, June 2022): Offering BS (I took it as instruction and went ahead with it).

10. One Gobhi Parantha

Vision (Room D1, Mid 2022): I saw myself wrapped in a dark green tree wrap on the upper body as Glory was asking me very politely (almost as if he was begging me) to cook one Gobhi Parantha (bcz of which I learned it). He said very politely in a begging manner, "Kartika ek Gobhi ka parantha banado." after which I ran downstairs to cook but ended up cooking one Aloo parantha because I forgot the instruction. Apparently, both mixtures were present in the refrigerator.

11. Man On a Fairy

Vision (Room D1, Mid 2022): Upper half vision of a man on top of a person with full-grown white fairy wings (apparently it represented Glory and me)

12. The Palm Rest

Somatic Vision (Room D1, Mid 2022): A palm coming from the right and resting below my face on the chin.

13. Jesus With Lavender Roses

Vision (Room D1, Mid 2022): Jesus came happily rushing from my left with a bouquet of lavender-colored roses. I had this vision on the day I wrote about my increased understanding of the fairy revelation He had given me when I was in room D4, that the revelation actually pertained to my time with Jesus when I used the washroom to bath.

14. Vision (Room D1, August 2022): Vision of me working out a certain exercise from the cardio session where I had to lift and tap my feet once at the front and then at the back. In that vision, I was wearing my red trousers and peach/light orange colored long tshirt, and my free (right) hand was still and held the long stem of a red rose in it.

[Edit (2nd Dec 2022): That huge ring coming jumping from the sky represents me.

16. Vision (Room D1, August/Sept 2022): I was lying on my bed when I had the vision as the first person. I had a quick unexpected vision of Glory on top of my left breast sucking it like an infant while very softly holding it together with both hands while I looked at him (seems to me to be an instruction looking at the kind of visions in the next revelation below).

17. Somatic Vision (August/Sept 2022): When I was walking on the roof and talking to Jesus inside of me saying to Him how I had incorporated the things in my life that He showed me and how the current state of things were, I saw in the Spirit two huge brushes appearing above my lips which brushed them quickly and disappeared. One brush was smaller than the other. I understood it as me now having to 'paint' my lips, after the things I had already changed. I understood that I needed to use two brushes.

18. (JK) Putting your money where your miracle is. (So I invested in products that were not really 'essential' from a necessity point of view but which I needed to buy acc to God's Will and what He has shown me. So I choose accordingly)

19. Vision(s) (one vision in D4, and others in D1 (July-Oct 2022)): I had this vision when I was lying in bed. I saw Glory on top of me slowly ripping my belly open as he looked inside with a devilish (devouring) expression. Further visions had him slowly ripping open the center of my chest and peeking in, and him stabbing my forehead. Though they were already ripped open and inner red flesh was visible, he still kept pushing the boundaries apart slowly and kept looking inside.

20. Dream (August/Sept 2022): Me treating my middle brother nicely as I was trying to give him a good time (symbolized by being in a fun, love and care-filled duet) knowing that he doesn't have too long, while Glory was sitting down at the side and watching with a grim expression.

21. Vision (Room D1, Aug/Sept 2022): Glory standing wearing an off-white kurta pyjama set between the washroom door and my roommate's bed with a red heart-shaped figure in front of the middle of his chest (representing his heart) breaking in two as he looked towards my side of the room with a surprised face.

22. Vision (Room D1, Sept/Oct 2022): Glory spitting at my face

23. Dreams (Room D1 and D4): Three different dreams related to the courting process before the wedding (involving Glory).

24. Somatic Vision (Room D1, Sept/Oct 2022): Shaking of the surface of my bed followed by an immediate vision of a hut-sized house on top of a heap of large rocks near the seashore, which shook because of wind and waves, representing how fickle the security of 'home' for me in the world is.

The Secret Place Revelations

25. Vision (Room D1, Sept/Oct 2022): Lady in the Ab-Workout video (identified by her clothes in that video) doing the first (stretching) exercise of the cardio workout video, implying that the 30 min ab workout is to precede the cardio workout and is like a stretching exercise of the same.

26. Dream-Vision (Sept-Oct 2022): Me going to the adjacent salon to get hair treatment. (Instruction/Counsel) I will do it when I receive my pending salary.

27. Vision (Oct/Nov 2022): Scene from a movie where the actor pushes the actress down from the roof of a very tall building. This vision repeated itself many times. Most probably it represented the thought of a person(s) who was pissed at me because I didn't follow their covert 'commands'.

28. Spirit-led utterings:

- * "Rebecca" (during praying in tongues at home in 2020)
- * 'Luka' (while I involuntarily started praying in tongues during Mid 2021 in Saroj Sadan) - Luke in Hindi. I was confused about which Gospel to distribute.
- * Rushdie (Sept/Oct 2022 while lying on the bed)
- * Fruitless (26th Nov, Saturday Late Night) - though I may seem fruitless currently, there'll be a huge fruit at the end of my struggle on Earth. (Sometimes the Holy Spirit reveals the thoughts of others to me as well.)

29. The Dusty Man and The Fairy (Home Version of the Courting Phase)

One of the three dreams of #18

Dream (Room D1, Sept/Oct 2022): I was just done with buying something, and then I happened to look to my right and I saw Glory who had made his intentional appearance at a distance in order for me to call and stop him as he was about to walk up a staircase that went in a perpendicular direction to the street I was on, but the staircase was covered so I could only see the first few stairs. It looked like winter bcz he was wearing a printed black sweater with black pants (he was dressed in all black). I called out his name, but he didn't stop, so I ran after him as he went out of my sight after he had walked upwards. When I finally reached that staircase and caught hold of him, he didn't at all look like how he had looked when I had called his name. But rather, he looked fat (it looked like he had grown HUGE upper arm muscles), was wearing a sleeveless thin grey top and an inverted cap on his head, and looked dirty. He was walking up towards the door of the home I visited once in this area.

The change in looks was quite shocking to the dreaming me but they didn't seem shocking at all to the 'dream me' as she was pulling him to her by his shoulders while he was trying to put her hands off him. He freed himself from me and quickly went inside the door leaving me out. I could tell that he hadn't locked it. I entered inside with a bit of caution and saw the standing fan right in front of me. I could see someone move ahead inside who turned that fan on. I was about to walk past it but then I stood there and enjoyed some fan air, smiling, being happy that they did such a thing. Then someone took hold of my shoulders from behind and swung me around a few circular rotations. I was afraid in the moment that I might fall and then also because it was too abrupt. When I was finally left free, I took hold of my senses and looked around to see who was it. I found the fluffed Glory standing at some distance behind me. Seeing him I slowly ran towards him in the same outwardly left-right manner. As he saw that I was about to kiss him, his expressions changed to being a bit fearful and he turned his face away bringing his hands in front as he moved them to communicate a 'No'. The next scene had us standing close face to face looking at each other. Again, he saw that I was about to kiss him. He abruptly turned to the opposite direction saying 'I've to go now!'. But I took hold of his shoulders with one hand in time and said "You've to kiss me!" and started kissing him. He was struggling to get away from me as he stole some breath and said, "No Kartika, I can't kiss you.", to which I quickly replied, "You don't have to kiss me. You just have to stand still!" He then said, "I don't want to kiss you! I have to go!" He again turned back and was so adamant about leaving but I pulled him back again and said while I was still kissing him, "Please stay for 5 minutes!" Then I was sucking on his upper lip while his eyes were wide open, and as he looked at my eyes his eyes went together in the middle as he said in a breath "Kartika, your eyes are looking so beautiful.", to which I replied, "Don't you know that I am a fairy!?".

The next scene showed both of us in the Physics department (my workplace) on one of the top floors. We both were wearing white t-shirt over black pants. I signalled him to come along with me. We saw a room at the front on which a small poster of a white-winged fairy was pasted. I was both shocked and touched to see that someone would do such a thing. I stood outside the room in order to open it and while I was finding the key to open it, I told Glory to go and hide in the narrow corridor to my right between walls. He stood there holding a device in his hand that looked like both a laptop and a printer. He was typing something on it and out of the printer side of it facing the viewer came out a long (seemingly unending) paper. It seemed like he was doing some of my work! I looked to my left and right and told him to continue typing. He kept writing and the unending river of paper kept flowing out and accumulated on the floor. I then saw Prof Sanjay Jain some distance away on my left using his room's key to open the door of the room he was standing in front of. He kept standing there and moving his keys inside the lock as I watched Glory type out that long unending paper. I was hoping that he wouldn't know about Glory being there, and somehow wanted to keep it a secret.

There were some events that followed in which I was the one who would be making moves but he would retaliate or resist and try to avoid me. I could clearly tell that he was behaving out of his character because his behavior didn't seem natural. Towards the end of the dream, he came to me and said, "Kartika, Tumse kuch baat karni thi." (Kartika, I had to talk to you about something), and then he started complaining in a soft tone that to be with me he has to be someone that he is not, while I looked disturbed because I never like to tell people how to be, as I look at their character and not much at their looks.

As he was saying that, his real self which looked like the black sweater guy was standing behind the self that he had presented to me (the fat and dirty self that was wearing clothes that seemed inapt on him, but he looked very cute - I realized this many months after the revelation), and both of them were speaking at the same time. And while I stood in front of him, I wore a brown shirt, unbuttoned to an extent I don't usually do, revealing my flat cleavage, and I also had two labels written horizontally on my skin starting below my neck, one below the other: 'Teddy Guys' and 'Since 192_' - I tried hard for a while to figure out the last number in the year 192_ written on my skin but couldn't as it was partially hidden beneath the sides of my shirt and was a bit blurry too. They do not describe me at all in my opinion. I was wearing rectangular, vertically narrow black blinders on my eyes and had straight hair in that vision, and my face too looked contoured and clear (as if I had color-corrected my face with makeup on). As I (the one witnessing the dream) looked at the presented him and the real him standing behind him as was shown to me, and later my own self standing with uneasy feelings listening to his complaining and trying to find space to speak up, the dream ended. My thoughts:

I think God revealed a glimpse to me of what would've happened otherwise. Now that I have written it here, I don't know if this is what will follow. It could as well be a counselling dream that we can learn from.

[Edit on 1st Dec 2022, 13:18]

The revelation also reveals that according to God's judgment of me, my mental age is that of a person born in the 1920s, and His judgment is righteous and perfect. So I can understand that it constitutes one of the reasons why I can't indulge in physical indulgences with other people for the purpose of meaningless fun alone. I can only do it out of love which holds meaning for me and therefore would make me want to stay with that person without ceasing, and Jesus fulfilled that position

first because He understood me perfectly. Moral inclination is another factor that comes into play too, but an older person of lower mental age will seek new experiences and yet not be fulfilled because the newness never ceases to be, but a young person of high mental age won't be after seeking many new experiences because (s)he can already fathom the entire crux of that experience without having to actually live it herself. An old person with a lower mental age gets bored with people easily and jumps from relationship to relationship quickly. A person with a high mental age never gets bored of the person (s)he loves, or even if (s)he does, it's not enough to make them leave or cheat on the other person, because the boredom is irrelevant in her/his eyes compared to the (loving importance of that) person. They attribute their boredom to other factors and not the person herself/himself, and work on fixing those factors. This kind of mindset is directly related to how God created us to be – eternal beings who were created to stay eternally with Him in Heaven with our fellow brethren, living in Love and in obedience to God. People with high mental ages also have a greater tendency to stay committed with continuity to what they value.]

But the thoughts that came to my mind (who was watching the dream unfold) looking at the last scene were that the girl brought about a lot of changes in her – like she got her hair smoothened and straightened (which goes along with another dream and a dream-vision where I went to my adjacent parlour to get it done as it is an instruction from God), lost a lot of weight to get in shape, learned to do makeup and other stuff – all these changes were good in a way as they lead to a healthy body and make you look good, tidy and professional. But the guy was complaining about having to make changes, though I never asked him to in my dream, or at least I wasn't shown the place where I asked him to change anything. I just took the Word of God when He promised Glory to me and started preparing as He guided me and revealed stuff to me – isn't that how we are to walk in our walk with God – that we submit our own ideas and thoughts and perceptions and follow in "His" guidance in obedience to do or achieve what He tells us to. It shouldn't be thought of as Him trying to decide for us what we are to think – no. He is the almighty creator and holds all wisdom and understanding and His opinion and view are the ultimate and final word for anything and His judgments are righteous. I change my brain according to how He leads me or how He wants me to change it. If one resists God, he is living in rebellion and has the traits of the children of the world and not the children of God. My personal thoughts were that a good change in character should always be desired and shouldn't be resisted. Though he needed not to look dirty or dress half naked, wouldn't it be good for his own self if he learned to exercise boundaries with people – because it leads to a pure mind and a lifestyle that follows the statutes of God? I couldn't understand why would anyone complain about or resist bringing about good character changes in oneself. I think that this could be one of the reasons that the girl in the dream looked a bit disturbed at the end of the dream because she herself worked on making changes that were desirable acc to the situation as counselled by God, and here comes this other person who is not happy about being someone with traits that I don't know how many of them he had had to change in order to 'be with me'. But my own perception was that of compassion towards the guy as he was explaining himself because he was split in two as he talked, which he needed not to be, though I didn't really know the changes he was talking about.

30. Vision (Room D1, Early Nov 2022): A far-sighted well-lit vision of a tall and slim woman with shiny straight and very long hair (perhaps upto her elbow) dressed in a long white shirt lying on what looked like a bench without any support except that of the wall with a seemingly black glass window. The woman was lying with her upper body lifted a bit on her elbows support, and her legs spread a bit. There was a man with a lot of hair on his head (perhaps he didn't get a haircut for a long time) with his head buried in between her legs.

31. Dream (Room D4, Early Nov 2022): (first mentioned in #13 of on Page) I saw myself in a home that partially resembled our rented home in my hometown where I had spent my childhood, and some parts of it also resembled the home we have now. I can recall seeing my dad and brothers in that home in the dream. I saw a fast-forwarded version of things (will write later).

32. Whispers of the Holy Spirit:

Sweet November (Today at workplace, 29th Nov 2022) - When I was sharing with my colleagues that I was feeling like having a 'sweet communion' (A sweet with a sugarless tea, and I felt quite satisfied while having it.)

33. Dream-Vision (Today Morning, 30th Nov 2022): I had this vision as I laid asleep late this morning on the bed in my PG. I was asleep on my right side with my left hand resting against my belly but a few cms away. In the vision, I saw a light brown door being closed fully by a hand on its twist-handle. The door was left open by a few cms when the vision began with the hand on the twist handle, which closed the door fully, and as it got closed, I woke up with my own hand making the end of the movement. It was just like the dream-vision of the shaking of a hut house on top of a pile of large rocks, where after the hut moved because of a strong wind or wave at the shore, I woke up experiencing shaking in my own bed. After I woke up bcz of the somatic vision, I closed the few-cms gap between my arm and my belly. :) I thought I must have been resting with Jesus.

Vision (Today Morning, 2nd Dec 2022, between 7am to 8am): A far-sighted vision of a group of grey-colored airplanes (could be jets) flying together in one direction.

Vision (At home in 2020): An animated vision of a sun-lit open area with a busy road on which people were walking by but a child was standing still in the middle who was picked up by a winged angel coming from above his back as she lifted him up with her arms under his armpits and started moving back above when the vision ended – the rapture of the church/children of God from the serpent system). The angel was represented as a wheatish female wearing a full-sleeved pink top tucked inside blue pants with her black hair tied low at the back, and she had white wings.

[Edit (15:47, 17th Dec 2022): I think it also metaphorically relates with my own walk here on Earth with God, where I came to pick up the 'baby' of God and take him back to heaven with me. I concluded this because I was wearing a Pink long cardigan at the top in my healing revelation on Page 37, and a Pink shawl in yet another.]

Vision (At home in 2020): An animated field fully filled with golden crop swirling in the wind, ready for harvest – goes along with the previous vision.

Matthew 13:24-29, 40-43 (New Living Translation)

Parable of the Wheat and Weeds

24 Here is another story Jesus told: “The Kingdom of Heaven is like a farmer who planted good seed in his field. 25 But that night as the workers slept, his enemy came and planted weeds among the wheat, then slipped away. 26 When the crop began to grow and produce grain, the weeds also grew.

The Secret Place Revelations

27 “The farmer’s workers went to him and said, ‘Sir, the field where you planted that good seed is full of weeds! Where did they come from?’

28 “An enemy has done this!’ the farmer exclaimed.

“Should we pull out the weeds?’ they asked.

29 “No,’ he replied, ‘you’ll uproot the wheat if you do. 30 Let both grow together until the harvest. Then I will tell the harvesters to sort out the weeds, tie them into bundles, and burn them, and to put the wheat in the barn.”

From <<https://www.biblegateway.com/passage/?search=Matthew+13&version=NLT>>

40 “Just as the weeds are sorted out and burned in the fire, so it will be at the end of the world. 41 The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will remove from his Kingdom everything that causes sin and all who do evil. 42 And the angels will throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. 43 Then the righteous will shine like the sun in their Father’s Kingdom. Anyone with ears to hear should listen and understand!

From <<https://www.biblegateway.com/passage/?search=Matthew+13&version=NLT>>

Parable of the Fishing Net

47 “Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a fishing net that was thrown into the water and caught fish of every kind. 48 When the net was full, they dragged it up onto the shore, sat down, and sorted the good fish into crates, but threw the bad ones away. 49 That is the way it will be at the end of the world. The angels will come and separate the wicked people from the righteous, 50 throwing the wicked into the fiery furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. 51 Do you understand all these things?”

“Yes,” they said, “we do.”

52 Then he added, “Every teacher of religious law who becomes a disciple in the Kingdom of Heaven is like a homeowner who brings from his storeroom new gems of truth as well as old.”

Page 97. The Instruction I missed: Getting Down From Rickshaw; The vision of an Abrupt Birthing (Open Delivery); Vision of the Promise Made by God; The Courting Phase

03 December 2022

Earlier in my walk with God, I hadn't yet thought that God could give instructions in the form of visions as well. So I missed an instruction and also a nudge of the Holy Spirit because I couldn't realize that it was the Holy Spirit nudging and highlighting to me, but rather I listened to my own anxious self.

1. The Instruction I Missed: Getting Down From Rickshaw

It was during the last winter that I was returning from work in a Rickshaw and it was evening. As the rickshaw approached the service road along which my PG stands, I saw a navy blue car in my way with a man sticking his face to its closed window and looking towards my side at my feet. I was wearing my blue denim long skirt, my orange t-shirt with black denim jacket on top, and my black running shoes. I could tell that the person looked like Glory. As my Rickshaw passed by that car, the Holy Spirit highlighted the spot at a corner to my left (for me to get down at), but I bypassed the spot as I didn't realize that it was the Spirit's nudge and also I hadn't yet perhaps received the dream which had my wedding (not sure about his part though). Additionally, I was the kind of person who wouldn't stop for people who wait at places expecting you to approach them while they themselves never talk to you, and play the passive action game. I would have definitely stopped for a friend whom I knew. But why would I stop and get down for a stranger who I hardly talked to!? Though I knew that God had promised me a person in marriage a few months back in a vision back in A-17/B where I was previously staying, and I also could tell from the vision that the face resembled that of Glory, I didn't get down at that spot where my eyes went suddenly as it was highlighted and stood out in my eye's vision. I thus ignored the nudge of the Spirit because I was already feeling anxious. If I were to stop by every Tom, Dick, or Harry who drives by in a car expecting me to stop for him, I would be no less than a picked-up girl, and that's not how things worked in my view. But apparently, that's how it was supposed to be according to God, because the guy in that car wasn't a 'random' person as I could 'see' in that moment as well, and perhaps that situation was orchestrated in that manner by God. Anyway, I didn't get down and bypassed Glory and reached my PG. As I was about to enter my PG, I looked at his side and saw him now driving away, while previously He was almost blocking my path.

After this incident, I didn't think much about it. But then within a week or so, I was reminded by the Holy Spirit that this was the instruction that was shown to me a month or so back. I had seen myself getting down from the rickshaw at that exact corner that was highlighted to me that day and wearing those exact clothes.

Vision (Room D4, Oct 2021): Far-sighted vision of me wearing a long blue denim skirt and black denim jacket and getting down from a Rickshaw at the corner spot on my PG's street.

When I had that vision, I didn't quite understand what was it about, as I didn't even have the denim skirt of the vision yet and had no thoughts of buying it either, and also because the vision showed me getting down at that spot where I was wearing unusual clothes which I don't usually wear, and it didn't have any other person either. After some weeks of that vision, I wanted to dress holier and therefore bought some long denim skirts, one of which was the one I was shown in the vision. But during the time of choosing to buy it, the vision was nowhere in my mind. By the time of the fulfillment of that event when I was supposed to carry out the instruction, I had forgotten about the vision. I realized later after that event that the vision was actually a prophetic instruction and not a prophecy that would have 'definitely' come to pass (because I didn't get down at that spot in the real situation, but in the vision – I saw myself getting down). And then I was sharing with people in my life that I now had levelled up in my walk with God as I now received instructions – it was a huge thing for me, though I had missed this particular one.

I had missed both the instruction of the vision given to me months 'before' the event, and also the nudge of the Spirit 'during' the event.

2. The Vision of an Abrupt Birthing (Open Delivery)

Vision (Room D1, Mid 2022): (Birthing of a Word or a promise spoken by God) Vision of an abrupt open delivery of a baby by a standing person. The person could be standing in a group but it wasn't very clear as everything else was blurry except the baby being delivered with its head down after which the vision ended.

3. Vision of the Promise Made by God

The Secret Place Revelations

Vision (A-17/B, Mid 2021): I saw an open night vision of the upper halves of me and Glory standing facing each other and smiling, where he was wearing a black suit and I was wearing a supposed white gown and had a crown over my head which turned into a crown of thorns and then the vision ended. The vision represented the promise of marriage made by God as we were dressed in bridal clothes though those won't be the clothes in which we will get wed as God showed me in a different dream. I remember sharing this vision a few months after I had it with the caretaker (Rekha Aunty) of that PG I used to sit with sometimes (on the roof).

4. The Courting Phase (the Workplace Version)

Dream (Room D4, Late 2021/Early 2022): I was walking with Pooja, a work colleague, and was looking down, and therefore could see my dark green shirt that was draping loose and my thighs too that looked much thinner now in the blue denim jeans. I could see my shoulder-length straight shiny hair too on the sides of my face as I was walking looking down. I must have lost a good amount of weight because of how I looked. So, I have an idea of how I would be looking as I lose more weight. I experienced most (a great part) of this dream as the first person and not the third. I and that colleague got some disposable cups for tea, and then things fast forwarded and the view changed while I was still wearing the same shirt, and the next thing – I found myself looking at the sky where the view in front of me was that of the towers back at my home that one gets to see as one enters through the narrower gate. I had my head bent to one side as I was looking at the sky as I thought or whispered to myself, "Khyati (Glory) is coming today." which would imply that he must have shifted to a different place (which was not around my vicinity) and was now coming to meet me. The next event had my roommate leading me to a room to sit in. Then I saw her saying to herself, "What should I wear? What should I wear?" It didn't make much sense to me. Some more people came in and we were all waiting for someone. After a while, Glory made his appearance wearing a black denim jacket (like mine) and sat to my left. Apparently, it could be a brief intro/ get-together as people must have wanted to witness the work of God in my life and meet Glory. My roommate also entered the room now, and this time she was wearing a short skyblue dress that revealed a large part of her back and thin waist. I was enraged when I looked at her as I could see that it was intentional. After all, why was she trying to seduce a person not meant for her!? She looked back at me by turning her head slightly to her left and gave a shrewd smile (with a wink).

Some time had passed when I saw that Glory was sweating a lot though he was smiling as he looked forward (making the prophetic symbol). I said worriedly, "Khyati.. you're sweating a lot." So I asked someone from my right to pass the book lying nearby and started fanning him, us together for a while, and then back him again. There was a table at the front on which were kept some burgers and small Limca bottles. I found myself noticing them lying there. When we stood up and walked forward, I was following after him. He turned his head to one side, looked at me with the corner of his eye, and said in a serious tone, "Kartika, tumhe mera naukhar banne ki jarurat nhi hai." (Kartika, you don't have to be my servant.)

The next event had me in what looked like an open lawn area where I saw a girl who was praising Glory according to what I've written by far as revealed by God. She said, "Bilkul teddy bear hai! Bilkul cute baby ki tarah hai." I replied to her with an 'Aur kya!! Chotaa Bacchaaa.. Chotaa Bacchaaa..' (Indeed!! Little child.. Little child..) And while I said these things, I was sitting beside Glory with my face turned to his side and his shoulders wrapped in both my arms, while the girl sat at our right front. I wore a full-sleeved light blue shirt and him a white fitting t-shirt. He kept looking forward smiling and was silent all the time and did look a bit puffed up in that vision. That girl looked like Rakhi – a colleague of mine I know already (but I'm not sure as I have a blurry memory of that event). I then realized that I had been wrapping him for too long now and it made me a bit conscious so I removed my hands from over him and put them on my lap.

In the next event, I found myself standing and moving backwards to sit beside Glory where he was sitting perpendicular to me in a restful position with legs spread out but crossed and the girl was sitting close at our right front. I wore a full-sleeved light blue shirt. The three of us were together in a green open space. This time I said to her, "You can leave us alone now". And then as I sat there, I started observing him with my head turned to my right. I saw his summery clothing which was a hybrid of being a child and a sporty person with a slight mix of black and white. He wore a white t-shirt and black sporty trousers with a mild-colored patch around the pockets. I found myself thinking "Khyati is looking so good in this attire. Oh.. but then he will look good in anything he wears." I then happened to silently fart, and became conscious. I still had that book in my hand so I started fanning him hoping he doesn't get 'affected'. But he said something like, "So Darling are you happy now?" This was the closest that I understood of what he had said. What he actually said was a bit longer and was said too fluently. I replied with a 'Kya?'. He repeated it again, and I was silent and still trying to fathom what was it that he said as I looked at him facing forward to my right when the dream ended and I woke up.

Because of this revelation, I bought the green and sky-blue full sleeved shirts that now fit me loosely as I have lost weight (though I've to lose more weight, as it stands).

The Secret Place Revelations

(This proves that written details add much!!)

God gave me a glimpse many months back of how things would go about, or how the courting phase was gonna look like (if there's one!, there should be one according to this dream). Well, now when I look back, I can make slight sense of the revelations given by God. When I was awake later, I did not at all understand why that friend praised Glory calling him a teddy bear. But then many months later, I had another (counseling) dream where I had the label of 'Teddy Guys' written on my skin. So, now it makes sense why she said that.

And, when I had this dream, it was quite unexpected because I looked very different in real life and did not have very good bonds with my colleagues as well because I wasn't regular due to the Covid lockdown. Now, I have been going to work regularly, and we hang out every day for tea or a break, and I now have good bonding with them. So, in my understanding, this dream is on the line to come into play in its timeline as I lose more weight, and it's quite near it seems.

And I have also come to understand that I should write every revelation that I get no matter how weird or improbable it seems (or else I tend to forget it).

1. Empty Hospital Room

The Secret Place Revelations

Vision (Room D4, Late 2021): A door opened and inside the room laid empty hospital beds.

2. Long Whip Swirling

Vision (Room D1, Mid 2022): A very long and thick whip was swirling horizontally – God's punishment for the disobedient in Heaven though God is often graceful and full of mercy and therefore forgives when we repent.

Note: Not all revelations pertain to those events actually manifesting in real life, but pertain to the thoughts as well of the related people.

From <<https://mail.google.com/mail/u/0/#inbox/FMfcqzGrbRSDfbhcPNRMxfqNqCNRVqCL>>

[Edit (6th Dec 2022): I understood that the vision was a whip because I later watched a video by Sis Adele where she said that God wasn't someone who was lashing His whip ready to whip you if you mess up, and that He is a God of love, grace and mercy. Likewise, with the vision described next. I had the vision first and was led to watch Brother Philip later which revealed the meaning of the vision to me.]

3. Fire from Heaven

Vision (Room D1, Mid 2022): The vision had a pillar of fire swirling down quickly from Heaven. This was to show that God can send fire from Heaven as well to destroy His enemies, but He chooses not to. We as the children of God walk out in obedience the path He has set for us, not just because we love Him immensely but also because we should fear Him as well, as He is the eternal almighty God who holds all the power. We are called to walk by the fear of the Lord and not that of man.

[Edit (6th Dec 2022): I did not understand the vision at first, but then I was led to watch a video by Brother Philip who said that God is not someone who is ready to send fire from Heaven if you mess up and that He gives space to repent – that's when I understood that God was showing to me what He was capable of doing. It was all a part of revealing all aspects of His nature to me.]

4. Harry Potter

Vision (Room D1, Nov 2022): A brief vision where Death Conquerer's face changed to that of Harry Potter (the way he looked in his mid-series releases), and then back to his own self – he's God's version of Harry Potter according to this revelation. (I used to be a huge fan of Harry Potter during middle and high school, and in undergrads as well, though my interest faded in Masters. But there was a time in BSc when I used to think that I only wanted to marry Harry Potter! And somehow God's view of this person happens to be what He revealed. This is not to say that I support witchcraft which is of the kingdom of darkness, but I think God was rather making a point about this person.)

5. Ranbeer Kapoor Asking me to Use a Milder Version of a Curse Word

Dream-Vision (Early Nov, 2022): The Bollywood actor Ranbeer Kapoor asking me in a loving-polite manner to say out a milder version of a curse word that's used for incestuous people. (Quite Unexpected revelation. Perhaps he asked so because I don't want to use profane curse words even when people have done those horrible things, though I do call them by their character traits. Jesus also called the Pharisees thieves and hypocrites – words that described their character.)

1 Corinthians 5:1-5 (New International Version)

Dealing With a Case of Incest

5 It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and of a kind that even pagans do not tolerate: A man is sleeping with his father's wife. 2 And you are proud! Shouldn't you rather have gone into mourning and have put out of your fellowship the man who has been doing this? 3 For my part, even though I am not physically present, I am with you in spirit. As one who is present with you in this way, I have already passed judgment in the name of our Lord Jesus on the one who has been doing this. 4 So when you are assembled and I am with you in spirit, and the power of our Lord Jesus is present, 5 hand this man over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh,^[a]^[b] so that his spirit may be saved on the day of the Lord.

6. Tiny Insects Flying Inside My Blanket

Vision (Room D1, 3-4 days back): I was half asleep in my bed at night and a vision quickly flashed where I saw tiny things flying inside above in the space between me and the blanket over my body below my head. They were many in number (perhaps 6-9). I was still half asleep and yet another vision quickly flashed by where I saw two of those tiny things flying over close to my face.

The Secret Place Revelations

However, when I looked around inside my blanket for real, I couldn't see anything. Perhaps the flies were too small for my natural eyes to discern in the dark.

7. Furry White Cat Peeking out Through a Blanket

Vision (Few days back at night): As I took a turn on my bed to the other side, I saw the furry face of a very cute white cat (with blue eyes) lying on its belly looking out through the blanket it was covered with.

8. 2 White Birds

Vision (Last Night between 2 - 2:30 am): 2 white birds walking towards each other within a few inches of distance in front of a brownish wall, and as their beaks touched (representing peace) the vision ended.

From <<https://mail.google.com/mail/u/0/#inbox/FMfcqzGrbRSDfbhcPNRMxfqNqCNRVqCL>>

9. Golden Retriever Dog being layered with Honey and Sliced Bananas

Vision (Last night, some minutes after the previous vision): A while after the vision of birds: Vision of a huge hairy beige dog sleeping on its left on a bed like mine, in a way I was lying on bed at the moment of the vision, with a human's hand spreading honey on it from a distance at its front side, and then as it quickly spread some sliced bananas, it withdrew after which the vision ended. (Who can think such a thing but an inner infant..?)

From <<https://mail.google.com/mail/u/0/#inbox/FMfcqzGrbRSDfbhcPNRMxfqNqCNRVqCL>>

I had recorded some of these revelations in my phone during the last night that I later mailed myself this morning for me to copy-paste here.

Devotional (same as the video) written by Sis Adele on the Bold Existence App:

You may have heard people say that you can "piggy back" on someone else's faith that is stronger than yours to help you through difficult situations. Well, the body of Christ is there to help edify one another and pray for one another, however, another person's faith cannot take the place of your own belief and relationship with God.

The five foolish virgins, thought they could piggy back on others' preparation and preparedness, however, it left them in a difficult place in the end and they were not recognized by the bridegroom.

Jesus Loves You

The Secret Place Revelations

Someone else's faith will never be able to replace your own faith and belief in Jesus. When you stand before God one day, He is either going to know you or He won't. You won't be able to play the "it is not about what you know but who you know card" on that day. You will not be able to say, "well God even though You didn't know me personally, You know so and so whom I am friends with so that gives me a ticket into heaven right?". The Lord will look at you and say "I never knew you".

Prayer: Lord Jesus, thank You that You are returning for Your bride. Help us Lord to live prepared, keeping our oil lamps full until the day You take us. Help us to not rely on second hand faith, but rather to strengthen our own faith as we walk in relationship with You, Amen.

Written by Adele Grobler

Now is the time to seek God and keep seeking Him until the day you are no more. Don't waste your time pursuing other things above a relationship with Jesus. Make sure your oil lamp is full because the day and hour of Jesus' return is not known. Don't be caught unprepared.

Matthew 25:1-13

New King James Version

The Parable of the Wise and Foolish Virgins

25 "Then the kingdom of heaven shall be likened to ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. 2 Now five of them were wise, and five were foolish. 3 Those who were foolish took their lamps and took no oil with them, 4 but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. 5 But while the bridegroom was delayed, they all slumbered and slept.

6 "And at midnight a cry was heard: 'Behold, the bridegroom [a]is coming; go out to meet him!' 7 Then all those virgins arose and trimmed their lamps. 8 And the foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.' 9 But the wise answered, saying, 'No, lest there should not be enough for us and you; but go rather to those who sell, and buy for yourselves.' 10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the wedding; and the door was shut.

11 "Afterward the other virgins came also, saying, 'Lord, Lord, open to us!' 12 But he answered and said, 'Assuredly, I say to you, I do not know you.'

13 "Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour [b]in which the Son of Man is coming.

1. The Gift of a Heart

Vision (Room D4, Oct-Nov, 2021): Two red curtains draw aside, one after another, and behind them is revealed a Huge white heart that is throbbing (not in the shape of a real physical heart but that of the symmetric symbolic heart.).

The Secret Place Revelations

I hadn't previously understood what it meant. But the Spirit had been highlighting the lyrics of a song to me and the lyrics had the phrase 'gift of heart' as a part of them. So I understood that he had brought his heart as a gift to me (which touched my heart). This song has been being highlighted intermittently to me since the past year I came to this PG.

2. Refinement of Gold

Vision (Room D4, Late 2021/Early 2022): A brief vision showing a fast-forwarded process after which a long streak of refined gold was shown being formed. That is the process we undergo on Earth as we face difficulties – physical, mental, or emotional.

3. Two Tiny Angels

Vision (Room D4, Late 2021/Early 2022): Two golden tiny angels flying facing each other and making the shape of a heart with their bodies bent outwardly and heads and feet touching each other.

4. Butterfly Near the Mouth of a Serpent

Vision (Room D1, Mid 2022): The orange-black butterfly flying near the huge wide open mouth of a still black serpent but not entering it and staying out.

5. A Toddler

Dream-Vision (Afternoon): I was half asleep and lying on my right side in my bed facing the other end of my roommate's bed, while she was sitting at the opposite end on the wall's support. Because I was half asleep, I'm not sure if I actually opened or closed my eyes, or if it was part of a 'dream-vision'. But this is what happened. I saw the blurry image of a toddler sitting on my roommate's bed facing right in my direction. He was sitting opposite to her. I opened and closed my eyes twice to make certain of what I was seeing. My vision was blurry because I was half asleep and my eyes won't open fully. That toddler was mostly looking in my direction though at times towards my roommate as well when I heard her ask him a few times in a fun tone what was he looking at. I then saw him now getting down from the bed and I could tell from his countenance that he was going to approach in my direction. Though it was a dream-vision, I knew that the toddler was representing the self of one of the tiny flying cameras. So I turned to the other side of my bed (in reality as well). I saw the toddler walking and approaching me by the side of my bed that I was now facing towards. And as he reached near me, while still standing on the floor, he started kissing my right cheek (as my face was turned so towards the left). The toddler had the height just enough to be able to do that without bending his body, but just his head. (I anyway love children, so I was feeling flushed by the fact that the toddler was kissing my cheek). It later turned to him giving huge kisses all over my right cheek (with a bit of drool) and those did not at all feel like that of a toddler but the self was represented by a toddler. And as he was doing so, he reached near my lips, lifted his head slightly and stopped there. I could tell that he was thinking or deciding for a moment. I thought that it won't be right if he now started doing the same to my lips as well, so, lest this toddler now do that same bite and drool thing on my lips too, let me turn away from him to the other side of the bed (which I did in real life and it woke me up as I turned to my right side). As I did so, I also happened to put my right hand over my left one which was beneath my head, I had yet another quick vision that flashed by, which is written next. By this time, I was fully awake.

[Edit:

7th Dec 2022

In the ark-room dream, when I had entered it, I had seen a very 'wary' camel pass me by slowly. And as I had moved further inside the room, I had asked the question to one of the persons present there in a very soft tone. This made me realize yesterday that that was how I am to behave with that person, seeing that he was represented by a vulnerable and wary short camel. The tone of communication is especially important to be paid attention to (as communicated by God) because of how he is (or will be?). So, I came back to the above para today and edited it to portray how I really saw the toddler in my dream-vision (not resenting him, but I felt a bond). I at times happen to give a false impression of toughness because I don't want to look like I am a boundaryless person.]

6. Two Hands Clapping Together

Vision (Afternoon): A wheatish male hand clapping a smaller fair female hand below through the fingers (both were wearing thin rings - one each).

(I have now become reluctant to fall asleep for the kind of revelations I may get to see. I have become quite open to whatever the Holy Spirit reveals to me, and I take in all revelations seriously because I know that He doesn't speak in vain, and they represent the truth.)

4. A Brown Cuboid Breast Bun

Vision (Post Mid-Night when I was not yet 'fully' asleep) – A small square brown bun with a protrusion at its middle-top which was shifted to a plate and on top

The Secret Place Revelations

which was then placed a smaller square bread spread with green-sauced veggies (SIN)

(Parts of my body are not a bun or a vada-pav on top of which you put a topping..)

[Edit

8th Dec 2022

11:40

I understood that the above vision could only be the thought of Death Conqueror and no one else, as was the vision that I had previously some months back which is written below.

5. The Breast Pizza

Vision (Room D1, July-Sept 2022): Vision in thin air of Death Conqueror taking a stretched bite of what looked like a breast pizza. I knew that this represented his thought because there's a certain standard that is to be followed even on the marital bed (as we are called not to defile it). The Holy Spirit reveals to me things pertaining to both him and Glory. Well, I just brushed the vision aside.

Then there was another vision pertaining to Glory that I later had.]

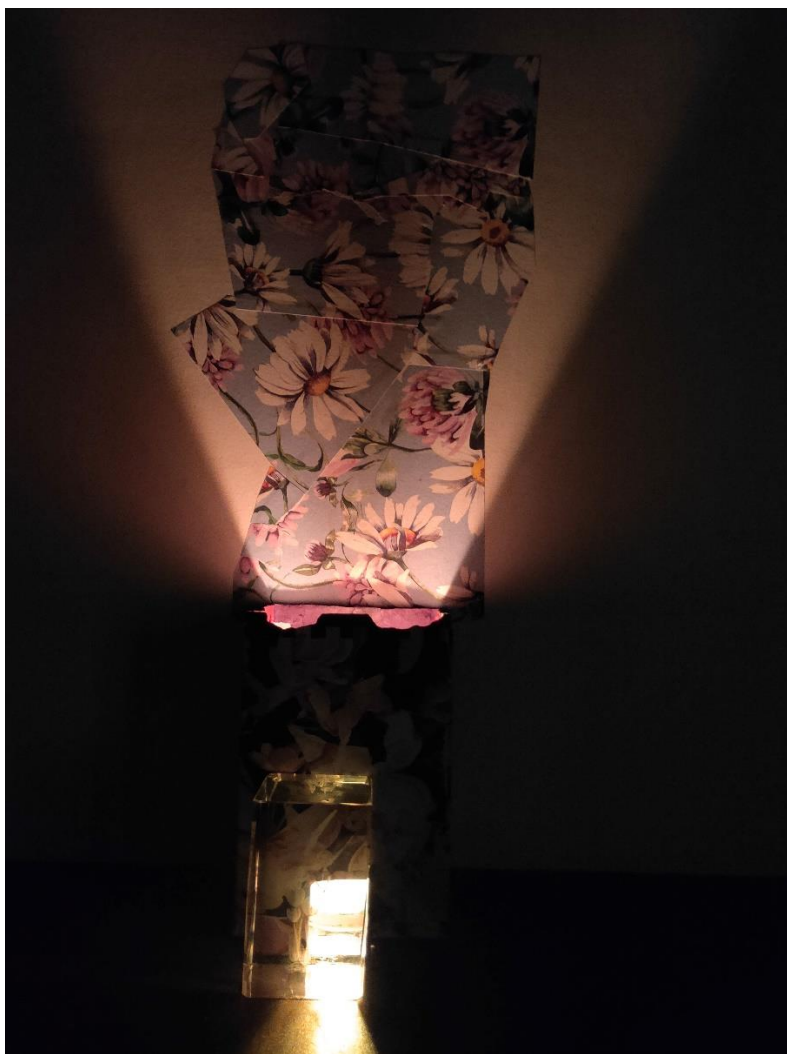

Note: God and I won't allow someone to be a part of my life who uses curse words as a natural habit. I hope this will serve as one of the keys as to why things aren't progressing forward. Because I will not grieve God by going to someone before I have changed to a certain level, and God won't allow that person to grieve Him by allowing him to be in my circle when he has some ungodly traits. God works to bring about changes in all parties involved.

1. The Man with Dual Eyes

Part of a Dream (Late 2021/Early 2022): Towards the end of that dream, I found myself face to face in front of a man right in front of me who had greyish-white hair but his face wasn't too old (looked old to some extent though). His eye to 'my' right was blue in color with a white sclera, while the one to my left had a black iris with a red sclera. The blue eye had a very innocent look, while the red and black one looked gravely evil. His face resembled Death Conquerer's. I found myself looking at his angel eye and the devil eye in turns and saw the stark difference in the character traits they were reflecting. As I was watching the two eyes one after the other, the dream ended. If one looked at just one eye, one wouldn't be able to tell that the other eye was the way it was shown - such was the difference between the two. This was the only part of the dream where I saw him face to face, while throughout the rest of the dream I didn't have a direct encounter but there was a lingering presence that was made manifest as I looked here and there moving from event to event and one place to another in that dream.

Luke 11:33-36 (New International Version)

The Lamp of the Body

33 “No one lights a lamp and puts it in a place where it will be hidden, or under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, so that those who come in may see the light. 34 Your eye is the lamp of your body. When your eyes are healthy,^[g] your whole body also is full of light. But when they are unhealthy,^[h] your body also is full of darkness. 35 See to it, then, that the light within you is not darkness. 36 Therefore, if your whole body is full of light, and no part of it dark, it will be just as full of light as when a lamp shines its light on you.”
